of the United States of America

Leslie Grace C. Buot

Plaintiff - Respondent

v.

Ian Simon R. Buenaventura

Defendant - Petitioner

Application for an Extension of Time to File a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to the Supreme Judicial Court

To the Honorable United States Supreme Court Associate Ketanji Brown Jackson and the Associate Justice for the Supreme Judicial Court :

I appreciate the time of the Court.

Respectfully this is to request for a sixty (60) day extension of time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari to the Supreme Judicial Court. (Source : Supreme Court Rule 13)

Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the United States Supreme Court is based on 28 U.S.C. § 1257.

Timeliness

The order dismissing the Appeal as of Right was dated June 24, 2025. ¹ Due date for filing the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari is September 22, 2025. (Source : Id.) This request is not timely because it was submitted by regular mail on September 22, 2025. September 22, 2025 is less than ten (10) days from the due date of September 22, 2025. (Source : Id.) Late submissions are not allowed by the Court.

There is a good case, however, in allowing the extension of time.

Good cause (Source : 131st Maine Legislature, First Regular Session-2023, An Act to Strengthen Freedom of Speech Protections by Extending Laws Against Strategic Lawsuits Against Public Participation)

“Good cause” means a reason factually or legally sufficient to appropriately explain why the motion was not brought within the prescribed deadline.”

1. Receipt of mail – twenty (20) days from postmark

My family and I moved to Texas from Maine. This was on July 1, 2025. A change of address request was submitted to USPS on June 10, 2025² with a start forwarding date of June 30, 2025. Order dismissing the appeal was issued on June 24, 2025.³ It was postmarked on June 27, 2025.⁴ I received it through regular mail only on July 17, 2025. The Supreme Judicial Court is geographically located in Maine.

2. Pro se

I am pro se.

3. On my behalf

I am preparing a draft of a petition for a writ of certiorari on my behalf.

4. Presentation

“Legal basis, factual background, reasoning, and the “nature, extent, duration [(e., nearly nine (9) years)], and depth of the misconduct [(eg., retaliation)]” are being presented to the Court for its review and consideration.”

5. Complexity

Issues are complex. At least one (1) is novel.

At least one (1) state law is repugnant to the United States constitution.

At least one (1) state law “oversimplifi[es]” “graces” such as “devotion”.

One (1) state law's “procedural features” “designed to prevent substantive consequences: the impairment of First Amendment rights [under the United States constitution] and the time and expense of defending against litigation that has no demonstrable merit[.]” are ignored. “Dangers of majority's readiness to process without argument and briefing are apparent in the cursory analysis.”

At least one (1) state law has national significance as it affects rights guaranteed by the United States constitution.

6. A meaningful and effective explanation of “[t]he [voluminous, various, vicious, violent, and depraved] retaliation methods being deployed against me and my family members ... ” requires research.

7. Record is large.
8. “The [First Circuit] Court of appeals said "the party suing, not the party sued ... who .. . frame[s] the claims ... ""
9. Generally, issues not raised in a previous level are waived where there is an appeal.
10. “The Supreme Court said in 1941 that "[r]ules of practice and procedure are devised to promote the ends of justice, not to defeat them.”
11. It appears the Supreme Judicial Court has not received and reviewed a case as of the date of its order wherein the Uniform Public Expression Protection Act with an effective date of January 1, 2025 applies. Citations on the order predated the effective date of the broader UPEPA which repealed and replaced the narrower 14 M.R.S. § 556.

Wherefore, this is to respectfully request for a sixty (60) day extension of time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari.

I am appreciative of the time of the Court.

September 22, 2025.

Respectfully Submitted,

Ian R. Buenaventura

STATE OF MAINE

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT
Sitting as the Law Court
Docket No. And-25-246

Leslie G.C. Buot

v.

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

Ian S.R. Buenaventura

Ian Buenaventura has appealed from an order of a family law magistrate referring to a District Court judge Buenaventura's special motion under the anti-SLAPP statute to dismiss this divorce action. The Clerk of the Law Court has docketed the appeal under Law Court docket number And-25-246.

The trial court has not yet entered any judgment against any party. As a result, not all claims against all parties have been resolved, and Quinn's appeal is interlocutory. See Sanborn v. Sanborn, 2005 ME 95, ¶ 4, 877 A.2d 1075. Although the denial of a special motion to dismiss is immediately appealable, see Nader v. Me. Democratic Party, 2013 ME 51, ¶ 12, 66 A.3d 571, the order that Buenaventura appeals from does not deny the special motion to dismiss but merely refers it to a District Court judge.

It is therefore ORDERED that Buenaventura's appeal is DISMISSED as interlocutory. Because the appeal is dismissed, the trial court need not transmit the record to the Law Court.
