

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

JULIANA SLOTO

Respondent – Appellant

v.

CHRISTIAN KARVELID

Petitioner – Appellee

MOTION TO SEAL IDENTIFYING INFORMATION CONCERNING MINOR CHILD

Respondent–Appellant Juliana Sloto, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court to seal or redact portions of her Emergency Application for Stay and accompanying appendix that contain sensitive identifying information about her minor child.

This request is made pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 34.6, Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 25(a)(5), and the strong public policy of protecting children’s privacy in Hague Convention and custody-related proceedings. The filings include the child’s full name, school records, counselor and teacher letters, and information concerning the child’s emotional and psychological well-being.

Respondent has served unredacted copies of these materials Petitioner, but respectfully requests that the publicly available docket redact the child’s name and identifying details. Respondent is simultaneously submitting a redacted version of the relevant filings for the public record, with the unredacted versions filed under seal for the Court's review.

Granting this motion will not prejudice Petitioner, who has received full service, and is narrowly tailored to protect the privacy of the minor child.

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that this Court order Exhibit materials, letters, and filings containing identifying details of the minor child to be filed under seal, with only redacted versions available on the public docket.

Dated: October 15, 2025

Respectfully submitted,
JULIANA SLOTO, Pro Se
