JOHN T. HARDEE - PETITIONER

VS.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
- RESPONDENT(S).

MOTION FOR EXTENSION
OF TIME

The "Petitioner", John T. Hardee, proceeding pro se, moves this Court, and Justice, John Roberts, for an Extension of Time, pursuant to U.S. Supreme Court Rule 30, to be granted, for the following reasons layed out in the following letter to the Clerk.

To the Clerk of Court,

John Tucker Hardee #1491532, proceeding pro se, respectfully requests this Court, and Honorable Chief Justice, John Roberts, to allow the Petitioner a continuance and extension of time. The reason are:

1.) The Petitioner has now (after grieving the matter) been allowed by Virginia Department of Corrections to use a type writer, instead of having to handwrite his Writ of Certiorari. Simply put, he must now downsize his case in chief to fit U.S. Supreme Court Rules pages, and double spacing. It is simply too big.

2.) The Virginia Supreme Court denied his Petition for appeal on September 4, 2025. However, his attorney wrote him informing that the decision was denied on September 9, 2025. As you will see in the following exhibit, he did not receive it at Nottoway Correctional Center's Mailroom (marked "NCC-Mailroom" on envelope) until September 17, 2025 - and it was not signed by him until September 18, 2025. The real (90) day mark would be December 3, 2025. The Petitioner is simply asking to give an extension of time until what would be the (90) day marked upon receipt of the decision. The (90) day mark from September 18, 2025 would be Thursday, December 18, 2025.

3.) As a result of the Thanksgiving holiday, the not receiving receipt of the Court's decision until September 18, 2025, and now having to downsize the handwritten motion to comply with the U.S. Supreme Court Rules on a type writer, the Petitioner sees no other alternative but to respectfully and humbly ask this Court, and Chief Justice, John Roberts to allow an extension of time to be granted forthwith. This request is within the (10) days per Rule 30.

Respectfully Submitted,

#1491532
