

Docket No. _____

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

EDWARD ALLEN MOORE

Petitioner-Applicant

v.

GREGORY HANCOCK, Warden,

and

CATHERINE HANAWAY, Attorney General,
State of Missouri

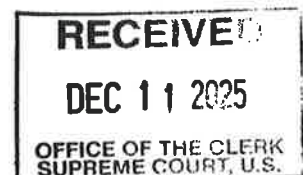

Respondents

ON WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE
UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE EIGHTH CIRCUIT

APPLICATION TO JUSTICE KAVANAUGH TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE
PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

APPLICATION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE
PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

To the Honorable Justice Kavanaugh:

COMES NOW Edward Allen Moore, 28 U.S.C. § 2254 Petitioner in the underlying cause and Applicant herein, with this motion to extend the time in which to petition the Court for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit from the denial of Applicant's application for a certificate of appealability, see attached July 28, 2025 Judgment, currently due December 3, 2025, see attached September 4, 2025 Order denying rehearing, and in support thereof would show as follows:

RELIEF SOUGHT

Applicant seeks a 60-day extension of time, up to and including February 1, 2026, to file a petition for writ of certiorari.

GROUND FOR RELIEF

Although nowhere to be found in Departmental or institutional policy, the institution's librarian, with the acquiescence of Respondent Hancock, implemented a limit of 50 copies per week (Thursday mornings). See attached grievance. Purportedly, this de facto policy makes exception for court deadline, however, the proof required, i.e., a document from a court specifying a deadline, is often lacking, e.g., the current deadline sub judice.

Applicant estimates that, counting one copy for service and one copy for retention, his petition for writ of certiorari will require over 200 copies. Factoring in the upcoming holidays, even with a 60-day extension of time, it may be necessary to abbreviate the appendix.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Applicant respectfully moves that the time for filing the petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit be extended to February 1, 2026.

Respectfully submitted,

Edward Allen Moore

IRR Response

DATE: 6/30/2025

LOG #: SECC 25-557

CATEGORY: #2— Activities

OFFENDER: Lewis, Joshua #1379770

Nature of complaint: Your IRR has been received and reviewed. Your complaint is that the Librarian has implemented a copy limit. You are requesting that the page limit be removed.

Findings: Your complaint has been reviewed. The copy schedule correlates with the Recreation schedule and the limit is fifty per assigned access. If you have a court-imposed deadline, you can make arraignments with your case manager to set up a time with the Librarian.

Recommendation: Based on these findings, this should resolve your IRR.
