Re: United States v. Jackson, et al.,
Supreme Court Case No. 26-304

Dear Mr. Harris:

The government filed its petition for a writ of certiorari in the above-captioned case on September 8, 2026, and the petition was placed on the docket the same day. The defense's brief in opposition is due on October 8, 2026.

I respectfully request, under Rule 30.4 of the Supreme Court Rules, an extension of time of 28 days, to and including November 5, 2026, within which to file the defense's brief in opposition.

I request this extension to ensure adequate time to properly prepare the brief in opposition. The government's petition for a writ of certiorari raises issues that require additional research beyond the existing deadline. In addition, I have been heavily engaged with the press of business in matters with previously scheduled deadlines and have a previously scheduled personal trip during the month of October. I therefore respectfully suggest the requested extension is reasonably necessary to properly prepare the brief in opposition.

Counsel for the government takes no position on this request.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jeremy C. Baron
