Re: Peridot Tree WA, Inc. v. Wash. State Liquor & Cannabis Bd., et al.
No. 26-343

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for Respondents City of Sacramento and Davina Smith in the above captioned case.

On October 2, 2026, Respondents Washington State Liquor and Cannabis Board and William Lukela, Director of the Washington State Liquor and Cannabis Board sought under Rule 30.4 an unopposed 50-day extension of the October 15, 2026 deadline for Respondents' response to the cert petition. The Court granted the motion on October 5, 2026.

For coordination of response and reply dates, the parties intended for the extension to apply to all Respondents. It is unclear to me from the docket whether the extension granted on October 5 applies to all Respondents.

To ensure the extension applies to Respondents City of Sacramento and Davina Smith, and to allow consideration of respondents filing a joint response to the cert petition, Respondents City of Sacramento and Davina Smith move under Rule 30.4 for a 50-day extension through December 5, 2026 to respond to the cert petition.

Honorable Scott S. Harris
