v.

No. 26-408

A Crown Roofing, Inc.
(Respondent)

To David H. Willis P.A. Counsel for Respondent:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to Rule 12.3 that a petition for a writ of certiorari in the above-entitled case was filed in the Supreme Court of the United States on June 27, 2026, and placed on the docket September 24, 2026. Pursuant to Rule 15.3, the due date for a brief in opposition is Monday, October 26, 2026. If the due date is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal legal holiday, the brief is due on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or federal legal holiday.

If a respondent determines that no brief in opposition or support will be filed, it is encouraged to file a waiver of the right to file. Where a respondent is a nongovernmental corporation and it has a parent corporation or a publicly held company owns 10% or more of the corporation's stock, it is required to either file a brief in opposition or a waiver, and the filing must include the information required by Rule 29.6. Rule 15.9. Unless the Solicitor General of the United States represents the respondent, a waiver form is enclosed and should be sent to the Clerk only in the event you do not intend to file a response to the petition.

Parties represented by counsel must submit filings through the Supreme Court's electronic filing system. Electronic filing is in addition to the existing paper filing requirements. Attorneys must register for the system in advance, and the registration process may take several days. Further information about the system can be found at <https://www.supremecourt.gov/filingandrules/electronicfiling.aspx>.

Only counsel of record will receive notification of the Court's action in this case. Counsel of record must be a member of the Bar of this Court.
