Re: Calce v. City of New York
Case No. 26-46

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for Respondents City of New York and Jessica Tisch, in her capacity as commissioner of the New York City Police Department, in the above-captioned case. A response to the petition for a writ of certiorari is currently due October 8, 2026.

Pursuant to Rule 30.4, Respondents request a 46-day extension to file a brief in opposition, until Monday, November 23, 2026. Counsel for Petitioners consents to the extension.

This request for additional time is made due to numerous other responsibilities requiring attention by the City's assigned attorneys which cannot be rescheduled. Specifically, the lead attorney assigned to this matter has several oral arguments scheduled in the coming weeks, including in an appeal in the Second Circuit from the denial of a preliminary injunction and another in an election law case in the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, both of which are on expedited schedules, as well as multiple appellate briefs due in October and November that cannot be adjourned. Additional time is also needed for multiple layers of internal and client review.

The extension will allow for a more thorough presentation by the Respondents, which we believe will be helpful to the Court and not prejudice Petitioners.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

STEVEN BANKS
Corporation Counsel
of the City of New York
Attorney for Respondents
