SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

SURGRET URANIA DOSS,

Petitioner,

v.

GREGORY P. HOLDER, et al.,

Respondents.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

The petitioner asks for leave to file the attached petition for a writ of certiorari without prepayment of costs and to proceed in forma pauperis.

[X] Petitioner has previously been granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis in the following court(s): the Florida Second District Court of Appeal and the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

Pursuant to Rule 39.1, petitioner discloses the following:

Petitioner has previously been granted leave to proceed as an indigent litigant in Florida state court, having been adjudicated indigent by both the Florida Second District Court of Appeal and the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit in and for Hillsborough County, Florida. In the proceedings giving rise to this petition, petitioner applied for leave to proceed in forma pauperis in both federal courts below; that application was denied by the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida.

RECEIVED

JUL 13 2026

OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

November 1, 2024, and by the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit on April 16, 2025, after which petitioner paid the appellate filing fee in order to prosecute his appeal. Petitioner is an honorably discharged, service-connected disabled veteran of the United States Army, and his income consists substantially of fixed, needs-based benefits provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs and the United States Government. Petitioner supports a minor child and children attending college, and the greater part of his self-employment income from fluctuating receipts from independent gig work is consumed by the legal-research and case-management resources required to litigate this and other pending matters pro se, including a Westlaw subscription he is contractually obligated to maintain. His current financial circumstances, which render him unable to pay the costs of this proceeding, are set out in the accompanying affidavit or declaration.

☒ Petitioner's affidavit or declaration in support of this motion is attached hereto.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Surgret', is written over a horizontal line.

I, Surgret Urania Doss, am the petitioner in the above-entitled case. In support of my motion to proceed in forma pauperis, I state that because of my economic circumstances, I am unable to pay the costs of this case or to give security therefor, and I believe I am entitled to redress.

Are real estate taxes included in the mortgage payment? N/A ☐ Yes ☐ No

Property insurance included? N/A ☐ Yes ☐ No

9. Do you expect any major changes to your monthly income or expenses, or in your assets or liabilities, during the next 12 months? [] Yes [X] No (If yes, describe on an attached sheet.)

10. Have you paid — or will you be paying — an attorney any money for services in connection with this case, including completion of this form? [] Yes [X] No

11. Have you paid — or will you be paying — anyone other than an attorney (e.g., a paralegal or typist) any money for services in connection with this case, including completion of this form? [] Yes [X] No

12. Provide any other information that will help explain why you cannot pay the costs of this case.

Petitioner is an honorably discharged, service-connected disabled veteran of the United States Army. His gross monthly income going forward is approximately $3,951, consisting of $2,951.17 in fixed, needs-based VA service-connected disability compensation, approximately three-quarters of his income, which was reduced effective July 1, 2026, from the $3,268 per month he had been receiving, for reasons the VA has not explained to him (90 percent combined evaluation; benefit verification letter dated July 6, 2026, attached), plus fluctuating receipts from independent gig work, including approximately $200 per month in YouTube content-creator revenue, averaging approximately $1,000 per month in total (ranging between roughly $500 and $1,500). Because he cannot afford counsel and his efforts to obtain representation have been unsuccessful, Petitioner is compelled to represent himself in multiple concurrent matters, including this proceeding, an automobile-negligence action, two administrative proceedings involving the Florida Department of Revenue, and related civil litigation.

In March 2026, the attorney representing Petitioner in the automobile-negligence action withdrew, requiring Petitioner to assume that litigation pro se on short notice and adding substantially to the research and case-management burden he must carry without counsel. The legal-research and case-management resources that this type of extensive self-representation requires, including a subscription to Westlaw, at approximately $851 per month under a three-year subscription agreement that Petitioner remains contractually obligated to pay, and AI-assisted research tools at approximately $200 per month, total approximately $1,051 per month. That amount alone routinely equals or exceeds his entire gross self-employment receipts. Petitioner does not own a home; he resides in a home owned by the mother of his 13-year-old daughter, who assists the family with housing, and Petitioner contributes approximately $400 per month toward the housing costs, as reflected in his expense declaration. He holds approximately $300 in his bank account. He supports his 13-year-old daughter, who resides with him, and contributes monthly support to two children attending college. His itemized monthly expenses exceed his income going forward.

Petitioner has been adjudicated indigent by two Florida courts: the Second District Court of Appeal and the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit in and for Hillsborough County. He sought leave to proceed in forma pauperis in both federal courts below; that leave was denied, and he was required to pay the appellate filing fee, which further depleted his limited resources. For these reasons, Petitioner is unable to pay the $300 docket fee or to bear the cost of producing forty booklet-format copies of the petition under Rule 33.1.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Executed on July 6, 2026.
