UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 4:25-CR-46-1

Before SMITH, HIGGINSON, and WILSON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Gerardo Perez-Checa appeals the 21-month, within-guidelines sentence imposed upon his guilty plea conviction for illegal reentry. He contends that the district court's explanation for the sentence was inadequate because the court did not specifically respond to his nonfrivolous arguments for a lesser sentence.

* This opinion is not designated for publication. See 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.

No. 25-11003

Perez-Checa's challenge to his sentence is not so clearly foreclosed by circuit precedent as to warrant summary affirmance. See Groendyke Transp., Inc. v. Davis, 406 F.2d 1158, 1162 (5th Cir. 1969). Accordingly, we DENY the Government's motion for summary affirmance. See id. Nevertheless, we dispense with further briefing and therefore DENY the Government's alternative motion for an extension of time to file an appellate brief. See United States v. Bailey, 924 F.3d 1289, 1290 (5th Cir. 2019).

We review Perez-Checa's forfeited challenge to the procedural reasonableness of his sentence for plain error. See United States v. Coto-Mendoza, 986 F.3d 583, 585–86 (5th Cir. 2021). The district court provided sufficient reasons for its choice of a within-guidelines sentence, and Perez-Checa fails to show plain error. See Rita v. United States, 551 U.S. 338, 343–45, 356–59 (2007); Coto-Mendoza, 986 F.3d at 584–87 & nn.4–6.

AFFIRMED.

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant, GERARDO PEREZ-CHECA, is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) to be imprisoned for a term of TWENTY-ONE (21) MONTHS as to Count One of the Indictment filed on February 19, 2025. This sentence shall run consecutively to the undischarged term of imprisonment in Case No. 1808178 in the 371st Judicial District Court, Tarrant County, Texas, which is unrelated to the instant offense.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of ONE (1) YEAR as to Count One of the Indictment filed on February 19, 2025.

As a condition of supervised release, upon the completion of the sentence of imprisonment, the defendant shall be surrendered to a duly-authorized immigration official for deportation in accordance with the established procedures provided by the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 USC § 1101 et seq. As a further condition of supervised release, if ordered deported or removed, the defendant shall remain outside the United States.

In the event the defendant is not deported immediately upon release from imprisonment, or should the defendant ever be within the United States during any portion of the term of supervised release, the defendant shall also comply with the standard conditions contained in the Judgment and shall comply with the mandatory and special conditions stated herein.

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- ( 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- ( 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- ( 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- ( 4) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- ( 5) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

- ( 6) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- ( 7) You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- ( 8) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- ( 9) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- (10) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- (11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- (12) If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- (13) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

In addition the defendant shall:

not commit another federal, state, or local crime;

not illegally possess controlled substances;

cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer;

not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any dangerous weapon;

refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court;

pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013; not illegally reenter the United States if deported or allowed voluntary departure; and, abstain from the use of alcohol and all other intoxicants during the term of supervision.

FINE/RESTITUTION

The Court does not order a fine or costs of incarceration because the defendant does not have the financial resources or future earning capacity to pay a fine or costs of incarceration.

Restitution is not ordered because there is no victim other than society at large.
