

APPENDIX OF RECORD CITATIONS & TRANSCRIPT EXCERPTS

1. On the Trial Court Admitting the Respondent's Mother Works in the Courthouse (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 7:10–12): (See Page 4)

"...the Plaintiff, Miss Schwender's mother works here. I have had limited contact with her while she has been here"

2. On the Court's Admission of the Objective Appearance of Impropriety (Jan. 10, 2022 Tr. at 48:23–49:3): (See Page 4)

"...Miss Schwender who is Miss Barry's mother who is an employee of the court and let me say, it is entirely reasonable for any healthy person to wonder given the fact that Miss Schwender has worked here, whether he or she is getting a fair shake in the litigation"

3. On the Court Threatening Extrajudicial Sanctions / Sheriff Escorts (Jan. 10, 2022 Tr. at 49:13–16): (See Page 5)

"There have been threats against court personnel and others, which have required Mr. Barry to be escorted in the courthouse any time he is present. And that includes some of the judges here"

4. On the Judge Cutting Off Petitioner Regarding the Personal Relationship (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 3:17–21): (See Page 6)

"It matters not,"

5. On the Court Striking Exhibits and Rejecting Bias Evidence (Nov. 24, 2021 Tr. at 77:10–17): (See Page 6)

"I am going to strike all of the exhibits that have been filed. They simply don't have anything to do with the claim of bias against me. So with that, that will conclude that issue... Then it has no merit"

6. On Respondent's Admission of Curtailing Employment (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 149:4–13): (See Page 6)

"[I could] live off child support"

7. On Reframing Respondent's Work Hour Reductions as an Affirmative Benefit (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 149:4–13): (See Page 6)

"permits her to be home more frequently... and thus could not possibly be a detriment to OJB"

8. On the Child's Extortion Statement Reflected in Court (June 16, 2021 Tr. at 91:13–14): (See Page 6)

"Daddy, you better pay Mommy so you can see me"

9. On the Trial Judge Enforcing the "Material Change" Evidentiary Blindfold (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 19:1–6; 51:6–9; 91:1–4): (See Page 7)

"THE COURT: The first standard is you must demonstrate that there is a material change in circumstances... And then and only then do we get into the circumstance of finding what is in the best interests of OJB. Understand I'm not at that point yet. I have to find there has been a material change of circumstances. That is the issue. And what do you have to show that?"

MR. BARRY: ...Unless I can continue on to what his best interests are.

THE COURT: Not at this point."

10. On Suppressing the Amicable 50/50 Settlement Agreement (Jan. 10, 2022 Tr. at 3:11–13): (See Page 7)

"I did have marked as the Defendant's Exhibit Number 24 the settlement agreement that was referred to and was not admitted..."

11. On Discarding Court-Appointed Expert Psychological Findings (Jan. 10, 2022 Tr. at 50:11–25): (See Page 7)

"I am not obligated as a finder of fact to accept any testimony... I don't take it much further than that"

12. On Respondent Admitting to Severe Depression (Jan. 10, 2022 Tr. at 31:24–32:8): (See Page 7)

"I became incredibly depressed"

13. On the Court Refusing to Evaluate the Insider's Household (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 12:21): (See Page 7)

"I'm going to deny that now,"

14. On Blocking the Minor Child's Testimony (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 11:13–12:2): (See Page 7)

"I find that it is more harmful to the child to be placed in the middle... given the high level of antagonism between the parties, I am going to exercise my discretion and decline to interview OJB in this case"

15. On Using Family Law Chambers as a Makeshift Day Care (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 61:19–24; 68:20–22): (See Page 8)

(Record showing minor child brought into the courthouse to be babysat in Family Law chambers by the Head Administrative Judge's assistant while she works)

16. On Rigorously Punishing Petitioner for Discovery Delays (June 16, 2021 Tr. at 14:8–13; 19:14–18): (See Page 8)

"I am going to order that you pay an amount of $325... If that is not reproduced within that time, I'm going to presume that the information that you would have produced would be unfavorable and I'm going to assess the attorneys fees as I discussed. Okay?"

17. On Awarding Final Attorney's Fees Judgment Against Petitioner (Jan. 10, 2022 Tr. at 65:20–66:2): (See Page 8)

"I will award an amount of $2,500 towards her attorneys fees and that amount may be reduced to judgment if unpaid within six months."

"I can promise you I will enforce things in exactly the same way if there is no response to the discovery that you ask"

19. On Forgiving the Insider's Attorney's Backdated Filing / Perjury (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 16:20–24): (See Page 9)

"THE COURT: If I believe that this was an intentional effort to deceive, perhaps you are right. But it seems pretty obvious to me during the changeover from 2024 to 2025 that this was a simple error and without any prejudice to Mr. Barry"

20. On Silencing Petitioner When Proving It Was Not a "New Year" Typo (Jan. 30, 2025 Tr. at 16:25–17:14): (See Page 9)

"MR. BARRY: Well, if the year were simply to change from '24 to '25 and it were January to January, that may make sense, but this a month rollover. So it would have potentially say January '24... but it said instead December '24.

"THE COURT: Mr. Barry, I am going to have to cut you off at times... Sir, please don't speak over me... I'm going to deny the motion."

21. On Trial Diversions Involving Video Games (Jan. 10, 2022 Tr. at 85–88): (See Page 9)

(Record reflecting opposing counsel cross-examining Petitioner on Nintendo video game systems rather than constitutional or custodial merits)
