No. M2024-01188-SC-R11-CV

ORDER

On July 20, 2026, Debbie Williams, proceeding pro se, filed an “Application for Supervisory Relief & Recall of Mandate Based on First Impression Due Process, Constitutionally Defective Notice and Denial of Meaningful Appellate Review” in the above-styled matter. This Court previously dismissed Ms. Williams’s application for permission to appeal as untimely on October 3, 2025. Ms. Williams has not established grounds to recall the mandate. Upon due consideration, it is hereby ORDERED that the request is DENIED.

ORDER

This Court filed an opinion in this case in May 2025 and entered an order denying the appellant's untimely petition for rehearing in August 2025. The appellant subsequently filed motions requesting this Court recall the mandate in this appeal, which were denied by this Court in August 2025 and January 2026. In September 2025, an application for permission to appeal to the Tennessee Supreme Court was filed and thereafter dismissed as untimely. The appellant now has filed an additional motion in this Court attempting to have this Court reconsider its previous orders. Also, the appellees have filed a request for sanctions based on the appellant's post-opinion actions, relying on Tennessee Code Annotated § 27-1-122 to support its request.

After this Court filed its opinion in this appeal, entered an order denying the petition for rehearing, and denied the appellant's requests to recall mandate, there was nothing left for this Court to do. This appeal has concluded. All pending motions in this matter are hereby DISMISSED. Any further filings in this appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER

The pro se appellant, Debbie Williams, has filed a second motion requesting this Court recall the mandate in this appeal. The appellant has failed to demonstrate extraordinary grounds or show good cause to recall the mandate. Upon consideration of the appellant's motion and the response thereto, the motion is hereby DENIED. Costs associated with this motion are taxed to the appellant, Debbie Williams, for which execution may issue.

Circuit Court for Davidson County
No. 23C7

No. M2024-01188-SC-R11-CV

ORDER

On October 3, 2025, this Court entered an order dismissing Debbie Williams' untimely application for permission to appeal. On October 6, 2025, Ms. Williams filed a motion to reconsider the Court's October 3, 2025 order. Ms. Williams asserts that, according to a notice she received from the Appellate Court Clerk, she had sixty days after the Court of Appeals denied her untimely petition to rehear on August 1, 2025, to file her application in this Court. However, Tennessee Rule of Appellate Procedure 11, which is referenced in the notice from the Appellate Court Clerk, clearly provides that an application for permission to appeal must be filed within sixty days of the filing of the judgment of the intermediate appellate court or, if a timely petition for rehearing was filed, within sixty days of the entry of the order on the petition for rehearing. Here, the decision of the Court of Appeals was filed on May 1, 2025, and Ms. Williams' petition to rehear was not timely filed. As a result, the application for permission to appeal to this Court was due on or before June 30, 2025. Ms. Williams did not file her application until September 29, 2025.

While we recognize that Ms. Williams is proceeding pro se, she must still comply with the same substantive and procedural rules that represented parties must observe. See State v. Sprunger, 458 S.W.3d 482, 491 (Tenn. 2015). In addition, the sixty-day period for filing an application for permission to appeal under Tennessee Rule of Appellate Procedure 11(b) is jurisdictional and cannot be extended. See Tenn. R. App. P. 2 & 21(b); State v. Sims, 626 S.W.2d 3 (Tenn. 1981). Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the motion to reconsider the Court's October 3, 2025 order is DENIED.

DEBBIE WILLIAMS v. RODNEY HOLT ET AL.

Circuit Court for Davidson County
No. 23C7

No. M2024-01188-SC-R11-CV

ORDER

The appellant, Debbie Williams, filed an application for permission to appeal on September 29, 2025. The decision of the Court of Appeals was filed on May 1, 2025, making the application due on or before June 30, 2025. Ms. Williams filed an untimely petition to rehear on July 28, 2025, which was denied by the Court of Appeals on August 1, 2025. An application for permission to appeal must be filed within sixty days of the filing of the judgment of the intermediate appellate court or, if a timely petition for rehearing was filed, within sixty days of the entry of the order on the petition for rehearing. See Tenn. R. App. P. 11(b). The sixty-day period for filing an application for permission to appeal is jurisdictional and cannot be extended. See Tenn. R. App. P. 2 & 21(b); State v. Sims, 626 S.W.2d 3 (Tenn. 1981). Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the untimely application for permission to appeal is hereby dismissed.

Circuit Court for Davidson County
No. 23C7

No. M2024-01188-COA-R3-CV

ORDER

The pro se appellant, Debbie Williams, filed a motion requesting this Court recall the mandate in this appeal and for an extension of time to file a petition for rehearing. An Opinion was entered in this Court on May 1, 2025. No application for permission to appeal was filed with the Tennessee Supreme Court, pursuant to Tennessee Rule of Appellate Procedure 11. A mandate was issued on July 15, 2025. The issuance of the mandate signifies the end of the appeal. The appellant has failed to demonstrate extraordinary grounds or show good cause to recall the mandate. According to her motion, the appellant had knowledge, as of May 30, 2025, that her mail was not being held by the postal service as she purportedly thought. However, her petition to rehear was not filed with this Court until July 28, 2025, which included no explanation for its untimely filing. Moreover, her motion to recall mandate was not filed until August 11, 2025. The appellant's motion to recall mandate and extend the time for filing a petition to rehear is hereby DENIED. Costs associated with this motion are taxed to the appellant, Debbie Williams, for which execution may issue.

DEBBIE WILLIAMS v. RODNEY HOLT, ET AL.

Circuit Court for Davidson County
No. 23C7

No. M2024-01188-COA-R3-CV

ORDER

Petitioners/Appellant Debbie Williams has requested that we reconsider our opinion and judgment in this case, entered on ~~May 1, 2025~~. Such petitions for rehearing “must be filed with the clerk of the appellate court within 10 days after entry of judgment.” Tenn. R. App. P. 39(b). Appellant Williams filed her petition for rehearing on July 28, 2025, well beyond the 10-day statute of limitations. Appellant Williams offers no reason or explanation for the untimely filing and does not request an extension of time, which may only be granted in “extreme and unavoidable circumstances.” Tenn. R. App. P. 39(b). Therefore, the petition for rehearing is DENIED. In so ruling, we note that “no further petitions for rehearing shall be filed” in this court. Tenn. R. App. P. 39(f) (“When the Court of Appeals . . . has acted upon a petition for rehearing, no further petitions for rehearing shall be filed in that court.”). Costs of this order are assessed to the Appellant, Debbie Williams.
