MERIT FOR GRANTING ORAL ARGUMENT AND TRANSPORT ORDER:

That petitioner has not only provided sound evidence that Judge Colleen Weiland rejects complying decisions in accordance with Rules and Laws, but that, Judge Colleen Weiland places herself above the Law by openly ignoring it just to sabotage petitioners case.

And petitioner has provided compelling evidence that he is actually innocent of the conviction and evidenced by the States own words at trial and by negligence of the medical examiner in failing to investigate the crime scene prior to determining the manner of death, which Crime scene clearly reflects that the deceased placed himself into the path of the bullet that killed him and admitted by the State.

Oral arguments is essential for petitioner to be able to illustrate the manner of death and Judge Colleen Weilands non-compliance with Rules and Laws and if there is any material issue of fact that this U.S. Supreme Court questions on the virtue of guilt then allow petitioner a polygraph to prove the truth of the matter before rendering any adverse Ruling.

Therefore a transport ORDER is necessary for petitioner presence for ORAL ARGUMENTS and potential polygraph.
