MOTION FOR TRANSCRIPTS IN INDIGENT
POST-CONVICTION PROCEEDINGS

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

COMES NOW William Stedman, Applicant pro-se moving the Court to furnish him, at Government expense, a true and correct copy of the transcripts of the proceedings in his trial transcript UNDER CAUSE NO. 331844C. In support of this Motion, Applicant states the following.

INTRODUCTION

In the above numbered cause, styled the State of Texas v. William Stedman in the 251st District Court of Randall County Texas. Applicant was convicted of _____ ON _____ Applicant is indigent and cannot pay or give security for the records required to file an adequate collateral attack Post-Conviction Writ. See Certified Annex A.

JURISDICTION

This court has jurisdiction to grant and review this Motion Pursuant to C.C.P. Art. 1107 Sec. 3(d); CCP Art. 4.04(). See also InRe Bonilla 424 sw3d 528,532 citing Bounds v. U.S. 430 U.S. 817,821 (1977).

ARGUMENTS AND AUTHORITY

Applicant contends that his constitutional rights have been violated and he cannot pursue any appeal without transcripts C.C.P. Art. 11.07 Sec. 3(c-d); Smith v. Bennett 81 S.Ct. 895. (The Principles were not to be limited to direct appeals from convictions but extended alike to State Post-Conviction Proceedings). Ibid.

Appendix A5

The United States Supreme Court opined in Gardner V. California "(A) layman acting on his own behalf needs the record even more than an attorney acting on his behalf would" Id. 368 U.S. 772.

The Court of Criminal Appeals gave a stern reasoning why the records are important to a Pro Se litigant seeking Post Conviction relief. With no right to appointed counsel, an indigent inmate, either alone or possibly with the help of a "Jailhouse Lawyer", Family member or friend must obtain any records necessary to prepare and file his Application.... In all likelihood an applicant will need to obtain and review his trial transcripts to ensure that he may present all his claims..." In Re Bonilla 424 sw3d 528, 532 (2014).

A trial Court may permit discovery of records upon showing of "good counsel particular need" Brady v. Gramley, 117 S. Ct. 1793 (1997).

A. PARTICULAR NEED

Applicant alleges he was denied the effective assistance of Counsel guaranteed by the 5th and 14th Amendments of the United States Constitution, in that defense counsel failed to prepare a proper defense - See Exhibit B

Applicant further alleges he was denied a Fair Trial/Fair Proceedings when See Exhibit B

Without access to the trial transcripts, Applicant will be effectively precluded from presenting to this court anything other than conclusory allegations based upon his memory of the trial proceedings which at this late date has been distorted by the passage of time.

That the Applicant is indigent and cannot afford to pay the cost of the production of the trial transcripts. See Certified Annex Exhibit A. Wherefore the Applicant respectfully requests that this court order copy of the trial records without cost, i.e., Reporter's Records; Clerk Records.

SHOW CAUSE ORDER

Applicant Set Forth to the Court that it show cause any reason that would indicate why the applicant should "NOT" be entitled to indigent paid copy of the Reporter's and Clerk's records within Fifty (50) days. The Court's Disclaimer to the Applicant no later than the 50th day of the filing of this application of indigent assistance day after date of filing and receipt of this motion.

The Court's Non-Disclaimer will be considered acceptance. and agreement that Applicant is entitled to the Trial records requested above.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED.

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR TRANSCRIPTS IN INDIGENT POST-CONVICTION PROCEEDINGS

On the 24th day of February, 2025, came on to be considered the Defendant's Motion for Transcripts in Indigent Post-Conviction Proceedings.

Without the necessity of a hearing, having reviewed that request in the light most favorable to the Defendant, the Court finds that the Defendant has heretofore waived the right of appeal. Therefore, the Court is of the opinion that the Defendant is not entitled to the relief requested.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that Defendant's Motion for Transcripts in Post-Conviction Proceedings is hereby denied.

Signed this 24th day of February, 2025.
