The State has collected $151.84 on the support order in 2026 through September 12 and its account showed $120,036.07 in custodial arrears and $14,552.58 in interest as of September 11, 2026, which are the subject of this petition. The residence in Question 5 is encumbered beyond its value. The spouse columns are figures and estimates my wife provided to me; her resources are not available to me for this petition and she will not pay any cost of it. Continued on the attached sheet,

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

CHRISTOPHER J. TOSSING, Petitioner, v. SARAH M. MORGAN, Respondent.

CONTINUATION SHEET TO THE AFFIDAVIT OR DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Petitioner: Christopher J. Tossing. Answers continued from the Court's form, by question number.

Question 1

Q1, all spouse columns: The spouse figures on this form are figures and estimates provided to me by my wife, Moria R. Tossing, on September 13, 2026. Her income is from self-employment in her own business (Question 3): ~~an average of $2,413.22 per month over the past twelve months and $2,364.25 expected next month, net of business expenses and before taxes. We do not live in the same household and those funds are not available to me; see the attached Statement of Petitioner (Exhibit A).~~ (4) ← (see Additions on signature page)

Q1, "Employment" and "Other (specify): residuals", you: Institutional wages at New Lisbon Correctional Institution, $8.67 per month (80 hours per two-week period at $0.05 per hour, $4 biweekly; ~~my Income and Expense Statement filed in the Dane County circuit court, and the institution's trust-account statement).~~

"Other" is residual payments from Paramount Pictures Corporation on work performed as a child, $0.94 per month (2025 Form W-2 wages $11.32; D17 line 8). Total $9.61 per month.

Question 2

Q2, row 2: Paramount Pictures Corporation is not an employer during the past two years; it pays residuals on work I performed as a child, $0.94 per month on average (2025 Form W-2, wages $11.32, ~~filed with that statement).~~ I have been incarcerated continuously since June 20, 2022 and have had no employment other than institutional work assignments.

Question 3

Q3, spouse employment history: My spouse is self-employed through her own business, Connected Solutions Group LLC, 2800 E. Enterprise Ave., Ste 333, Appleton, WI 54913, formed March 1, 2021, and has had no other employer in the past two years. Her former employer laid off its workforce company-wide in May 2020, 2022 she had worked there from January to July 2020 and then received unemployment benefits. I was sentenced on June 20, 2022. She was unemployed until June 2023, when she began her first and only contract, which continues. ~~She is currently providing figure one provided to me by her partner, which is $2,413.22 per month, net of business expenses and before taxes. Her average over the past twelve months is $2,413.22; Question 1).~~

Question 4

Q4: My own funds are the two sub-accounts of my Department of Corrections inmate trust account, $1,555.42 in total as of July 31, 2026 (REG $1,538.78, REL $16.64); the REL sub-account is held for release and is not available to me now. ~~It is not available to me for the past two years.~~ The Landmark Credit Union balances are figures my wife provided to me on September 13, 2026: her checking account, $93.77; her savings account, $5.00; and a joint checking account in both our names, $3.10, which is listed once, in the spouse column, and is the only bank account other than the institutional trust account on which my name appears.

Question 5

Q5, Home: My residence in Lisbon, Wisconsin, titled in my name alone. Value stated is the 2025 property-tax bill's estimated fair market value, $268,500 (2025 tax bill, Village of Lisbon). It is encumbered by $452,114.04 in two mortgages, nine docketed civil judgments, a child-support lien and a federal tax lien, ~~on the encumbrance schedule filed in the circuit court, the encumbrances senior to the child-support lien alone,~~

$294,533.84, exceed the value by $26,033.84. I have no equity in it. My spouse occupies it and pays the mortgage and property taxes (Q8).

Q5, Other assets: (a) Roth IRA, custodian Directed IRA. Its sole holding is a 50% member interest in CMT-SD-R, LLC. Fair market value of the interest $6,363.75; custodian fees of $1,420 are due and unpaid on the account as shown on the custodian's portal on September 12, 2026 (the custodian's annual account fee is $350 a year, charged most recently March 1, 2026, plus late-payment penalties); they have gone unpaid since my incarceration; net $4,943.75. ~~Illiquid: the interest has no market. The other 50% is owned by my spouse, the custodian fees must be paid before any liquidation, and I have no means of paying them from prison. Details in the attached Statement of Petitioner, paragraph 4.~~

(b) Spouse's assets, from figures and estimates she provided to me on September 13, 2026: a Roth IRA with the same custodian, Directed IRA, whose sole holding is the other 50% member interest in CMT-SD-R, LLC, valued at $6,363.75 on the same basis as mine; custodian fees of $1,420.00 are due and unpaid on that account, so its net value is $4,943.75; and a 2006 Pontiac Vibe, listed as Motor Vehicle #1, valued at $615.00 as of July 2026 by a recent Kelley Blue Book valuation; and a health savings account in her name only, which she values at $1,590.93. She owns nothing else of value. (1) (see Additions on next page)

Question 7

Q7: The two minor children listed are the children of my prior marriage; they live with their mother, the respondent, and the child-support order at issue in this case runs to them. R.E.T. is my spouse's daughter, age 15, from a prior relationship, and relies on my spouse for support, as she reported to me on September 13, 2026.

Question 8

Q8, spouse column: All spouse figures are figures and estimates provided to me by my wife on September 13, 2026, as monthly amounts. Rent or home-mortgage, $971.40, is what she pays on the mortgage, property taxes and homeowners insurance of the residence titled to me, which she occupies (Question 5). ~~Taxes: self-employment tax, $492.33 per month. Estimated payment, Social Security, $488.00 per month. Regular expenses for operation of business, $750.00 per month, the monthly figure per 2025 filed Schedule C and Schedule SE. Total monthly expenses, spouse, $4,119.78.~~ (2) (see Additions on next page)

Q8, you (all figures are the monthly amounts on my Income and Expense Statement filed in the Dane County Circuit Court on August 7, 2026, and its reimbursement). Food: canteen food (coffee), $14.15. Laundry: $1.20. Medical and dental: institutional co-payments, $3.13. Other (specify), page 2: hygiene items $30.20, over-the-counter medications $27.70, and correspondence and mandatory copies $7.11, together $57.90 plus $7.11. Alimony, maintenance and support paid to others: the child-support order at issue is $2,430 per month; about $4.33 per month is actually withheld from my institutional wages (50% of $4 biweekly). Rent or home-mortgage: I pay none; my spouse pays it (spouse column). Total monthly expenses, you, is the sum of the "you" column with the support obligation at the ordered figure. (3)

Question 12

Q12, continued: Collections on the order by year, from the State's own payment record: 2022, $15,871.80; 2023, $2.80; 2024, $1,072.52; 2025, $41.20; 2026 through September 12, $151.84. The residence is encumbered by $452,114.04 against an estimated value of $268,500; on the encumbrance of ~~the residence~~ it is under water by $26,033.84 on the encumbrances senior to the child-support lien alone. I have no vehicle, no bank account other than the institutional trust account and the joint checking account with my spouse listed in Question 4, and no income other than institutional wages and the residuals stated in Question 1. My parents are retired; my mother is a full-time caregiver for my father; they paid for my criminal defense and made a deposit to my inmate account at the start of my sentence and are not in a position to provide further assistance. My spouse's income, accounts, assets and expenses are stated in the spouse columns from figures and estimates she provided to me; they are not available to me for this petition, ~~for the reasons in the attached~~

~~Statement of Petitioner:~~ 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1) requires a statement of all assets I possess; I have stated all of them.

Q12, continued: the balance in Question 4: The $1,555.42 in my trust account is more than the $300 docketing fee, and I state that plainly. It is not available to pay the fee. It is the only reserve I have against needs the Department of Corrections does not provide and that do not pause during imprisonment. Every medical or dental contact I initiate carries a $7.50 co-payment, which is charged as a debt against any money that reaches my account (Wis. Admin. Code § DOC 316.04; NLCI Handbook). The institution issues only soap, a toothbrush and toothpaste; every other hygiene item, all over-the-counter medication, laundry supplies, and the paper, envelopes, postage and copies my legal obligations require must be bought from my own funds through the contracted canteen at a 10% mark-up. ~~On the itemization filed with my income and expense statement in~~

~~the circuit court~~ those needs total approximately $88.46 per month, against total income of $9.61 per month: a shortfall of ~~$78.85~~ every month that comes out of this balance. At that rate the balance covers about ~~24~~ months of the roughly 70 months remaining before my anticipated release in August 2032. No money comes in from outside; support withholding is taken from my wages. The $16.64 release sub-account cannot be spent while I am incarcerated. Paying the fee from this balance would take about 19% of everything I have and shorten by about ~~4~~ months the time I can meet those needs.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

Additions

- (1) Q5, Other assets (contd.): I hold a 1% membership interest in Connected Solitaires Group LLC, a Wisconsin limited liability company. My spouse, Maria R. Tossing, holds the other 99%. I do not participate in the daily operations of the business and have taken no distributions from it. The company has no employees other than my spouse; everything it takes in is earned by her own personal work and paid out to compensate her for it, so it is her self-employment run through an LLC rather than an enterprise that accumulates value. As of September 20, 2026, its accounts held $1.05 in business savings and $2.54 in business checking, $3.59 in total, figures my spouse provided to me. This interest cannot be used to pay the docketing fee or any other cost of the petition.
- (2) Utilities, $800.00; approx. $400 for electricity, $200 for heating oil, $100 for internet and $100 for telephone. Home maintenance, $250.00, a reserve against repairs on a house that has already required a well pump and a sump pump and will require a roof soon. Transportation, $300; approx. $150 for fuel and $150 reserved for vehicle repair and replacement. No amount is stated for the regular expenses of operating her business. The income figures in Question 1 are gross, as that question directs, and no deduction of any kind is claimed against them.
- (3) The State's account also carries an order of $200 per month toward custodial arrears in addition to the current support order.
- (4) She has stated that she will not pay the docketing fee or contribute to any other cost of this petition.
