STATEMENTOF PETITIONER CARLOS VELASQUEZ

ON MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

I am not properly a pauper. I am Process Server in the State of Utah and make too much money to qualify in forma pauperis.

My present savings are insufficient to afford printing 40 copies of a Supreme Court brief with addenda; particularly, the addenda is almost 400 pages. I expect printing may require more than two weeks, and may cost more than $10000.

Both elements imperil the efficiency of the Collateral Order petition after a repeated emergencies of fraud on the court.

The United States Supreme Court should not discriminate against technical questions on the basis of costs.

Circumstances of the Petition

Circumstances of the case are as upon an emergency; this is a declaration there is Judicial Malpractice, this petition is not filed for convenience; and it will not be timely or cost effective to the action under Jurisdiction 28 U.S. §2101(e); we act to preempt a potential fraud at determination in the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

The Courts of Appeals are corrupted from time to time, and it is not the Pro Se petitioner's civil role to suffer malpractice; the implication violates every civil right, and commits criminal transgressions.

While we are prejudiced, the courts are coercive and have lost their fundamental civil intuitions.

We intended to instruct particular procedures to guarantee Justice at a Pre-trial phase where the Judiciary have become abandoned to the allegation of Fraud on the Court, and neglect extraordinary procedures in a run-of-the-mill posture.

Extraordinary Financial Circumstance

My work vehicle was totaled on 9/17/26, and must be replaced shortly. I expect the down payment on the new vehicle will consume my current savings. I do not keep an excessive savings at the moment, and expect my month costs to become more critical before the end of the year.

Particularly, I have to rent a separate apartment/office space from my home.

Provisional Statement

I can pay the Docketing Fee, and if the court would like forty copies of the Petition in 8½ x 11 in. paper I can also provide that on issue here.

I can work in excess of a hundred hours per week, and have authored a Pro Se Legal Monograph available to aid the court shape, and reshape its political perspectives on the Philosophy of the Constitution of the United States of America, and the meaning of Conferential Formalism as a fundamental determination of Constitutional Formalism.
