

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

No. 26A_____

Chase Hunter,

Applicant,

v.

Joanne Auclair.

APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

To the Honorable Ketanji Brown Jackson, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Circuit Justice for the First Circuit:

1. Pursuant to Sup. Ct. R. 13.5 and 30.2 of the Rules of this Court, Chase Hunter, pro se, respectfully requests a 120-day extension of time, to and including January 1, 2027, within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari to review the judgment of the Supreme Judicial Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Chase Hunter ("Ms. Hunter") is aware that Sup.

Ct.R. 13.5 establishes a maximum 60-day extension. But this is an extraordinary situation.

JURISDICTION

2. On June 5, 2026, the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts denied Ms. Hunter's timely Motion for Reconsideration. (Attachment A at Bates 16.)

3. Ms. Hunter has ninety days from that date to file a petition for a writ of certiorari. Sup. Ct. R. 13.3. Therefore, unless extended, the petition is due by September 3, 2026. Today's date is July 25, 2026.

4. Jurisdiction is established by 28 U.S.C. § 1257.

JUDGMENT SOUGHT TO BE REVIEWED

MASSACHUSETTS APPEALS COURT DISMISSAL

5. A copy of the denial of Ms. Hunter's Application to the Supreme Judicial Court (the top state court) for Further Appellate Review #30691 is in Attachment A at Bates 15. The Application for Further Appellate Review ("FAR") #30691 was entered 12/17/25, due by 12/17/25, and denied on 4/16/2026.

a On December 17, 2025, Ms. Hunter initiated FAR #30691 with a motion asking for an extension to file the "application" an uncertain future date that would be 30 days after the Appeals Court Panel ruled on Ms. Hunter's Motion for Reconsideration that was pending in the underlying appeal number 2025-P-0471. Allowed on January 14, 2026. (The Massachusetts Rules of Appellate Procedure allow for the same appeal to be simultaneously pending in both the Appeals Court and the Supreme Judicial Court. Ms. Hunter was required, by a twenty-one-day rule, to initiate the FAR 30691 before the Appeals Court Panel had ruled on Ms. Hunter's Motion for Reconsideration.)

b Ms. Hunter filed the "application" in FAR 30691 on February 17, 2026, which was 32 days after the Appeals Court Panel denied Ms. Hunter's Motion for Reconsideration in appeal 2025-P-0471 on January 16, 2026. The 30th day was a Sunday and the 31st day was a holiday and the state courts were closed. Ms. Hunter's "application" was timely (see Attachment A, Bates 17).

6. A copy of the denial of Ms. Hunter's Motion for Reconsideration of the denial of FAR #30691 is attached (filed 4/30/26 (due by 4/30/26); Denied 6/5/26) (Attachment A at Bates 16).

7. A copy of the Massachusetts Appeals Court (the intermediate state appellate court) Panel Appeal 2025-P-0471 Opinion dated November 26, 2025, is in Attachment B at Bates 19-24.

a One extension to file Ms. Hunter's Motion for Reconsideration was allowed to January 9, 2026. The motion was timely filed on January 9, 2026; and denied on January 16, 2026. A copy of the denial of Ms. Hunter's Motion for Reconsideration and denial of Ms. Hunter's Amended Motion for Reconsideration is in Attachment B at Bates 25-26 and 27-28, respectively.

SPECIFIC REASONS WHY AN EXTENSION IS JUSTIFIED

Preliminary

8. Ms. Hunter is not an attorney and does not have support staff to assist with researching and drafting and needs extra time to give this Court her best effort.

a The impending petition will not ask this Court to correct factual errors; will raise one or two constitutional questions; will show a "Circuit split", will reveal state-by-state inconsistencies on these questions, and/or will establish that a federal question was decided in a way that conflicts with this Court's past decisions.

9. Ms. Hunter is indigent but will pay the filing fee of $300 and will print the perfect-bound booklets herself because the cost to professionally print the booklets is cost-prohibitive.

Extraordinary Circumstances Justify This Request

10. Ms. Hunter has many pending appeals and lawsuits in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (see below), and she needs an extension so that she can give each court her best effort.

a The substance of the impending petition is not based on these pending appeals and lawsuits and not based on the substance of this Application. But this is relevant to show that this Application is justified.

11. Truth is stranger than fiction, Justice Jackson. The truth is that there is a Massachusetts attorney, Susan McCoy, ("Ms. McCoy") who has been committing crimes against Ms. Hunter since at least September 2024. This is explained, in part, in Application 25A470 that Ms. Hunter filed with this Court in October 2025. It is also explained, in part, in ECF 9 in United States District Court case 3:25-cv-30143; Springfield, Massachusetts, Chase Hunter v. Susan McCoy, et al.

12. After October 2025, Ms. McCoy committed more egregious crimes against Ms. Hunter.

13. On November 15, 2025, Ms. Hunter's residence was violently broken into and robbed of, inter alia, cheap equipment that Ms. Hunter needs to access the Internet. And Ms. Hunter needs the Internet to work and to research to prepare for her various appeals. It has been time-consuming for Ms. Hunter to make doors damaged in the break-in functional again. Ms. Hunter is indigent and has not been able to replace her stolen equipment yet. During this same break-in, the locks of Ms. Hunter's home were illegally changed on November 15, 2025, causing Ms. Hunter to be illegally evicted from her home. Ms. Hunter took back possession of her home, using her own means. But Ms. McCoy violently broke into Ms. Hunter's home a fourth time on March 31, 2026, and illegally changed the locks of Ms. Hunter's residence, causing Ms. Hunter to be illegally evicted. But Ms. Hunter is unable to take back her home again because Ms. McCoy made false statements to the police which caused Ms. Hunter to be arrested on March 8, 2026. Ms. Hunter is currently defending a criminal complaint prompted by Ms. McCoy (criminal case citation is shown below). Ms. Hunter needs to keep herself safe from any other false accusations made by Ms. McCoy. Ms. McCoy is determined to illegally take Ms. Hunter's residence which is a 900 square foot home.

14. It has been very time-consuming, mentally distracting, and physically demanding for Ms. Hunter to try to avoid and try to recover from Ms. McCoy's crimes. And such crimes are unpredictable. Ms. Hunter was forced to rent a private storage unit just to keep court documents and evidence safe because Ms. Hunter cannot keep them in her home because Ms. McCoy illegally locked Ms. Hunter out of her home four times from October 2024 to March 31, 2026. After the first three illegal lock-outs, Ms. Hunter regained access to her home using her own means.

a On July 23, 2025, Ms. Hunter's security camera recorded Ms. McCoy telling a strange man to illegally lockout Ms. Hunter a fourth time. This man was standing in Ms. Hunter's yard when Ms. McCoy stated the following: if either he or Kevin are driving by Ms. Hunter's house - and they do not see a car and do not see a dog - they have "free permission" to "break in" Ms. Hunter's home and "lock it down" because she needs to make a "concerted effort" to make sure that nobody gets "near that house". The man was eager to comply and offered to come back "on the weekend"; presumably when he thought that Ms. Hunter might not be home.

b Ms. McCoy illegally disconnected Ms. Hunter's electricity twice since June 2025 and disconnected Ms. Hunter's Internet four times since June 2025.

c Since June 2025, Ms. McCoy has aggressively and repeatedly threatened to have Ms. Hunter arrested for trespassing if Ms. Hunter uses her residence.

d Ms. Hunter's residence was owned by Ms. Hunter's deceased mother, Darlene Joyce Calabrese ("Ms. Calabrese") who died in July 2022. The residence is now co-owned, by operation of law, by Ms. Hunter and her sister, Joanne Auclair, pending the final adjudication involving Ms. Calabrese's Last Will and Testament.

e Ms. Hunter has lived alone in this residence during all times relevant after Ms. Calabrese died, and lived in the same residence with Ms. Calabrese from about 1971-1987, and from about 2015 until Ms. Calabrese died in July 2022.

15. Ms. Hunter is an eyewitness to the fact that Ms. McCoy took control of Ms. Hunter's deceased mother's bank accounts in 2024 - which had about $150,000 in them. And she did so with the help of an unconstitutional order entered by a state judge (see Application 25A470 filed with this Court in October 2025). Ms. McCoy has never provided a report to show how she has spent these funds.

OTHER TIME-CONSUMING LITIGATION

18. Ms. Hunter has the following due dates of time-consuming pending litigation tasks (which all arise from dishonest, deceptive, and unlawful acts of Joanne Auclair, Ms. Hunter's sister, which began on the day the sisters' mother, Darlene Joyce Calabrese ("Ms. Calabrese"), died on July 9, 2022). Ms. Calabrese died because Joanne Auclair unplugged Ms. Calabrese's life support equipment, watched Ms. Calabrese die about thirty minutes later, and looted Ms. Calabrese's house "right after" - - while Ms. Hunter was out of town. Joanne Auclair did not tell Ms. Hunter that Ms. Calabrese was unexpectedly hospitalized for about seven hours and did not tell Ms. Hunter that Ms. Calabrese died until about one day later -- after Joanne Auclair and her two adult children looted Ms. Calabrese's house.

a. Service of process and/or motion practice for United States District Court ("USDC") 3:26-cv-30110-MGM, submitted to the Clerk of the USDC on July 10, 2026 (entered on July 13, 2026) Chase Hunter v. Dawn V. Portillo arising from, inter alia, Ms. Portillo's unconstitutional block on Ms. Hunter's efforts to order transcripts for Massachusetts Appeals Court Panel Appeal 2026-P-0152 (appeal of more than forty orders of the Hampden County Probate and Family Court Action HD22P2394).

b. Due on about August 26, 2026: various motions and response to a motion to dismiss in Hunter v. Susan A. McCoy et al. in 3:25-cv-30143, United States District Court, Springfield, Massachusetts.

c. Due on about August 22, 2026: Appellant brief in the First Circuit Court of Appeals consolidated appeals 25-2047, 26-1297, and 26-1522 (Chase Hunter v. Lester Kalmanson Agency, Inc. and Mitchel Kalmanson) arising from Joanne Auclair's unlawful interstate scheme of, inter alia, bribing Florida citizens with Ms. Calabrese's assets.

d. Due on about September 15, 2026: Appellant brief in the First Circuit Court of Appeals appeal 26-1585 (Chase Hunter v. William T. Walsh, Jr. et al.) arising from two clerks of the Hampden County Superior Court deleting Plaintiff's filed documents and otherwise falsifying the court record in Hampden County Superior Court case 2379cv00413 (which arises from, Joanne Auclair's unlawful interstate scheme of, inter alia, bribing Florida citizens)

e. Due on about August 30, 2026: Massachusetts Single Justice Appeal from a Hampden County Superior Court order that denied Plaintiff Hunter's indigency request for $800 to purchase transcripts for Appeal from Hampden County Superior Court 2379cv00413 (still waiting for the clerk of court to assemble the record for appeal);

f. Due on about August 24, 2026: Pre-trial conference in Commonwealth v. Chase Hunter, in Palmer District Court 2543CR001389 (which is a criminal complaint prompted by Susan McCoy).

g. Due on July 31, 2026 (HARD DEADLINE): Appellant Brief in Massachusetts Appeals Court Panel appeal 2026-P-0152 which is consolidated with Appeals Court Panel appeals 2026-P-0852, 2026-P-0539 and 2025-P-1144 (which was consolidated with 2025-P-1079) which arise from Hampden County Probate and Family Court Action HD22P2394.

h. Due on July 26, 2026: Docketing Statement for Massachusetts Appeals Court Panel appeal 2026-P-0994 (appeal from Hampden County Probate and Family Court Action HD22P2394).

i. Due on about August 26, 2026: Appellant Brief in Massachusetts Appeals Court Panel appeal 2026-P-0994.

j. Due on about September 1, 2026: Appellant brief in Massachusetts Appeals Court Panel appeal 2025-P-0076 (arising from Ms. McCoy illegally locking Ms. Hunter out of her residence in October 2024 and in November 2024. This appeal is delayed because the trial court will not rule on pending motions since May 2025). All transcripts have been transmitted to the clerk. And the clerk has not yet transmitted the record to the Mass. Appeals Court Panel.

k. Due on about September 1, 2026: Appellant brief in Massachusetts Appeals Court Panel appeal of Palmer District Court Case 2543RO000212 (harassment complaint against Ms. McCoy). All transcripts were transmitted to the clerk in September 2025. And the clerk has not yet transmitted the record to the Massachusetts Appeals Court Panel. Plaintiff petitioned a Single Justice of the Appeals Court to appeal without assembly of the record in Single Justice appeal 2025-J-0663. Denied.

l. Due by about August 1, 2026: service of the summonses and complaints upon all defendants in Chase Hunter v. Susan McCoy et al. in 3:25-cv-30143, United States District Court, Springfield, Massachusetts.

m. Due on September 3, 2026 (if Ms. Hunter's Application for an extension is not granted - said Application is being filed with this Court on even date): petition for writ of certiorari to the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court with the Supreme Court of the United States (arising from Massachusetts Appeals Court panel appeal number 2024-P-0972 which is an appeal from Hampden County Probate and Family Court action HD22P2394; Joanne Auclair is the only opposing party);

n. (THIS APPEAL) Due on September 3, 2026: petition for writ of certiorari to the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court with the Supreme Court of the United States (arising from Massachusetts Appeals Court panel appeal number 2025-P-0471 which is an appeal of a state Land Court action arising from Joanne Auclair's interstate bribery scheme to unlawfully and physically force Plaintiff out of her residence because Joanne Auclair had offered the same residence as a bribe to Florida citizens).

CONCLUSION

19. Ms. Hunter has faced and continues to face a very hostile, unconstitutional Massachusetts judicial system; and it has been very time-consuming for Ms. Hunter to try to protect her constitutional rights. Ms. Hunter is temporarily homeless because of Ms. McCoy's crimes against Ms. Hunter.

20. The additional time sought in this Application is needed for researching, drafting, and printing the booklets for the impending petition. Ms. Hunter is eager to give this Court her best effort in substance and presentation.
