On November 19, 2025, this Court directed Petitioner to file a further status report in support of his Motion for Release no later than December 3, 2025, if his trial had not commenced by that date. (Docket No. 352). On November 22, 2025, Petitioner's federal habeas counsel reported that Petitioner's trial was continued to January 22, 2026, at the request of Petitioner's trial counsel. (Docket No. 353 at 1). Although federal counsel notes that Petitioner himself objected to his counsel's request (id.), if Petitioner has a conflict with his state trial counsel, that is a matter for the state court to address. Accordingly, Petitioner's Motion for Release (Docket No. 347) is DENIED. IT IS SO ORDERED. THERE IS NO PDF DOCUMENT ASSOCIATED WITH THIS ENTRY. (smom) TEXT ONLY ENTRY (Entered: 11/24/2025)

10 NOEL JACKSON, JR.,

16 Respondent.

Case No. 2:97-cv-03531-MWF

REPLY TO RESPONDENT'S OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR RELEASE OF PETITIONER

Honorable Michael W. Fitzgerald

17 I. INTRODUCTION

18 Petitioner Noel Jackson files this reply to respondent's opposition (Doc 19 #350) to his motion for release. Doc #347.

20 Respondent errs in claiming that this Court is without jurisdiction "to grant
21 Jackson further relief in this habeas corpus case." Doc #350 at 1. This Court's 22 conditional writ ordered that "within 120 days of the date of this Judgment, the 23 State of California shall either release Petitioner or grant him a new trial in 24 accordance with applicable California law and the United States Constitution."
25 Doc #312.

26 While Mr. Jackson was transferred to Riverside County and appeared in 27 Riverside County Superior Court within the 120 days provided for in the Court's 28 order, trial has not commenced. It is now set to begin on November 19, 2025. As

1 a result, the State has not complied with the conditional writ and this Court's
2 jurisdiction has not ended.

3 II. THIS COURT HAS JURISDICTION TO GRANT RELIEF.

4 Mr. Jackson agrees that on May 28, 2024, he was transported to Riverside
5 County Jail. Doc #350 at 3. However, the State did not "grant Jackson a new trial
6 within 120 days of the Ninth Circuit's Mandate on April 23, 2024." Doc #350 at 7 5. His trial does not start until November 19, 2025, some five-hundred-seventy-8 five (575) days after the mandate was issued. A jury has not been empaneled and 9 trial proceedings have not begun. Thus, contrary to respondent's argument, "the 10 exact stage at which Jackson finds himself in the retrial proceedings is [] essential 11 to answering the question of whether the writ has been satisfied." Doc #350 at 4.

12 Respondent is wrong in claiming that "[a]ny concerns regarding the pace of 13 the retrial proceedings are not remediable through the vehicle of § 2254 and the 14 relief granted by this Court thereunder." Doc #350 at 6. The pace of the 15 proceedings is at issue given the Court's specific order setting a deadline for trial
16 and its subsequent orders continuing the trial as shown below.

17 On August 20, 2024, this Court "Ordered that the deadline to retry or 18 release Petitioner is extended to Defendant's current trial date, October 3, 2024. If 19 Defendant's trial in the Riverside County Superior Court will not commence on or 20 before that date, the parties are ordered to immediately advise the Court so that 21 further action, if warranted, can be taken." Doc #333 (emphasis in original).

22 In line with the Court's order, on September 23, 2024, respondent filed a
23 status report. Doc #334. Respondent wrote: "At the status conference on August 24 20, 2024, the court asked respondent to notify the court and counsel of any 25 developments in the state court retrial proceedings as part of the court's continuing 26 efforts to ensure compliance with the conditional writ." Id. at 1-2. Respondent 27 also stated that it would "continue to notify the court and counsel of any additional 28 developments in the state retrial proceedings." Id. at 2. Respondent did not

1 declare that the State had already complied with the conditional writ at that time.

2 On September 24, 2024, this Court issued an order informing the parties that
3 the Court's previous Order (Doc #333) remains in effect. Doc #336. The Court
4 further advised the parties that "the deadline to retry or release Petitioner remains
5 set for his current trial date, October 3, 2024. If Petitioner's trial in the Riverside
6 County Superior Court will not commence on or before that date, the parties are 7 ORDERED to immediately advise the Court so that further action, if warranted,
8 can be taken." Doc #336.

9 On October 10, 2024, respondent informed the Court that the trial date was 10 continued to October 16, 2024. Doc #337. Respondent stated it would "continue
11 to notify the court and counsel of any additional developments in the state retrial
12 proceedings." Id. at 3. Once again, respondent did not state that the State had 13 already complied with the conditional writ at that time.

14 On October 11, 2024, this Court issued an order extending the deadline to 15 retry or release Petitioner to his then current trial date, October 16, 2024. Doc 16 #338.

17 On November 5, 2024, this Court ordered the parties to file a report on the 18 status of petitioner's retrial or release. Doc #339.

19 On November 6, 2024, Mr. Jackson filed a pro se status report requesting to 20 be "released due to the ongoing, persistent violations of this Court's orders and 21 refusal to comply." Doc #340.

22 On November 12, 2024, respondent filed a status report. Doc #341.
23 Respondent informed to the Court that the trial was set for November 25, 2024.
24 Respondent also stated that it would "continue to notify the court and counsel of 25 developments in the state retrial proceedings." Id. Respondent alerted the court
26 that it intended to file a Rule 60(b)(5) motion for relief from judgment on the 27 ground that respondent believed the State has satisfied this court's judgment by 28 vacating Mr. Jackson's conviction and sentence and releasing him from all

1 custody attributable to that judgment.

2 On November 14, 2024, respondent filed a motion for relief from further
3 judgment. Doc #342. On November 15, 2024, the Court dismissed the motion for 4 relief from further judgment as unripe. Doc #343.

5 Since that time, respondent has not provided any updates to the Court nor 6 claimed that the State had already complied with the conditional writ.

7 The current opposition simply tracks the language of the motion for relief
8 (Doc #350), which was denied by this Court. Doc #343. There, and here,
9 respondent primarily relies on Magwood, v. Patterson, 561 U.S. 320, 332 (2010)
10 and Fisher v. Rose, 757 F.2d 789 (6th Cir. 1985) to argue that “further habeas 11 relief under section 2254(a) is unavailable.” Doc #350 at 3. Respondent is wrong.
12 Neither case controls the situation presented here.

13 In Magwood, the court “granted certiorari to determine whether Magwood’s
14 application challenging his 1986 death sentence, imposed as part of resentencing
15 in response to a conditional writ from the District Court, is subject to the 16 constraints that § 2244(b) imposes on the review of ‘second or successive’
17 habeas applications.” Magwood, 561 U.S. at 330. The court determined: “Section 18 2254 articulates the kind of confinement that may be challenged on the ground
19 that the petitioner is being held ‘in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties
20 of the United States.’ § 2254(a).” The court went on to find: “Custody is crucial 21 for § 2254 purposes, but it is inextricable from the judgment that authorizes it.”
22 Id. at 333.

23 In Fisher, the district court ordered that Fisher be “‘discharged from custody
24 and prosecution by the State of Tennessee.’ The court ordered that ‘[p]etitioner
25 will be immediately released and the respondents enjoined from further
26 prosecution of Fisher’ and that ‘in the habeas context discharge from custody
27 means discharge from total custody’” Fisher, 757 F.2d at 790-791. The court 28 found that: “[a] conditional grant of a writ of habeas corpus requires the

1 petitioner's release from custody if new proceedings are not commenced by 2 the state within the prescribed time period.” Id. The court noted that “the state is 3 not precluded from rearresting petitioner and retrying him under the same
4 indictment.” Id. at 791.

5 Mr. Jackson has been sitting in Riverside County Jail since May 2024. He 6 should be released pursuant to the Court’s order. No less is satisfactory. The 7 State had its chance but lost it by not bringing him to trial within 120 days.

8 III. CONCLUSION

9 For the forgoing reasons, the motion for release should be granted.

11 Dated: November 18, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

12 /s/ James S. Thomson

PETITIONER'S FURTHER STATUS REPORT

Honorable Michael W. Fitzgerald

On November 19, 2025, this Court issued an order directing petitioner to file a further status report in support of his motion no later than December 3, 2025, if his trial has not commenced by that date. Doc # 352.

On November 21, 2025, counsel for petitioner was informed by Mr. Jackson's Riverside trial counsel that the trial was continued to January 22, 2026 and the RJA motion hearing was continued to January 23, 2026. A copy of the docket is attached as Exhibit A. The docket confirms those setting dates.

Undersigned counsel also was informed that the RJA motion was continued at the court's request and the trial was continued at trial counsel's request. Counsel was further informed that "[t]he DA did not oppose [counsel's] motion [and that] Mr. Jackson explicitly did not join in [counsel's] request and lodged a personal objection to the continuance."

MEMORANDUM

I. INTRODUCTION

Mr. Jackson asks this Court to release him from custody because he was not brought to trial within the 120 day time period ordered by this Court, or by the time allowed through his time waivers. Doc #310, #333.

Mr. Jackson first appeared in Riverside Superior Court on May 30, 2025 following remand to the trial court. He initially waived time to be tried to allow counsel time to prepare for trial. Exhibit A. (July 5, 2024, October 15, 2024, November 25, 2024, and December 2, 2024 Minute Orders). Mr. Jackson then objected to the continuance of trial on several occasions beginning in 2025. Exhibit A. (January 9, 2025, March 24, 2025, June 10, 2025, and August 11, 2025 Minute Orders).

On September 2, 2025, Mr. Jackson waived time in order to litigate his pro se motion to dismiss under the California Racial Justice Act, which was filed almost a year earlier. Exhibit A.

In addition to objecting to continuances, Mr. Jackson made a pro se motion to be released and to dismiss the case on November 25, 2024. Exhibit A. His counsel filed a motion to dismiss for violation of his speedy trial rights and this Court's habeas order on May 7, 2025. Exhibit B. Mr. Jackson also filed a pro se motion to execute writ order in this Court on June 3, 2025. Doc #344. Each of the state motions were denied and the federal motion was struck by the court. Doc #345.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On February 9, 2022, this Court granted relief on the Batson claim raised in the second amended petition. Doc #299.

On February 16, 2022, respondent filed a motion to stay the case pending judgment pending appeal. Doc #302. On February 17, 2022, Mr. Jackson filed an opposition to the motion. Doc #305.

1 On September 29, 2022, this Court issued the judgment and vacated Mr.
2 Jackson's conviction and sentence. Doc #312. This Court stated: "IT IS 3 FURTHER ORDERED that, within 120 days of the date of this Judgment, the 4 State of California shall either release Petitioner or grant him a new trial in 5 accordance with applicable California law and the United States Constitution." Id.
6 On the same day, this Court entered a stay until the Court of Appeals issued a
7 mandate or the Attorney General provided notice that the State will not file an 8 appeal. Doc #313.

9 On October 6, 2022, respondent filed a notice of appeal. Doc #314.

10 On April 1, 2024, the Court of Appeals affirmed this Court's granting of the 11 petition for writ of habeas corpus. Jackson v. Broomfield, Ninth Circuit Case No.
12 22-55937, Circuit Docket Report "Circuit Doc" #48. On April 23, 2024, the Court
13 of Appeals issued the mandate. Circuit Doc #49.

14 Pursuant to the September 29, 2022 orders, the stay was lifted on April 23,
15 2024. Doc #312. At that point, Mr. Jackson should have been released or granted
16 a new trial within 120 days - August 21, 2024.

17 On May 30, 2024, Mr. Jackson appeared in Riverside Superior Court. A
18 jury trial was set to begin on October 3, 2024, with a trial readiness conference set 19 for September 16, 2024. Exhibit A at 18.

20 On June 13, 2024, attorney Bosky Kathuria was appointed to represent Mr.
21 Jackson. Exhibit A at 16.

22 On July 5, 2024, the court found good cause to continue the case at the 23 request of defense counsel. Mr. Jackson agreed to waive time for trial to October 24 3, 2024, with the last day being October 16, 2024. Exhibit A at 16.

25 On August 20, 2024, this Court "ORDERED that the deadline to retry or 26 release Petitioner is EXTENDED to Defendant's current trial date, October 3, 27 2024." Doc #333.

1 On September 16, 2024, Mr. Jackson moved to represent himself at trial.
2 The court granted the motion. Mr. Jackson's appointed counsel was relieved, and 3 an investigator was appointed. The October 3, 2024 trial date was confirmed.
4 Exhibit A at 15.

5 On September 23, 2024, Mr. Jackson filed a pro se motion under 6 California's Racial Justice Act. California Penal Code § 745. A hearing on the 7 motion was originally set for October 17, continued to October 31, and then set for 8 November 25, 2024. Exhibit A at 14.

9 On October 3, 2024, the trial court heard a motion by the district attorney 10 seeking reconsideration of the order granting Mr. Jackson pro per status. At the 11 hearing, the trial court appointed a doctor to examine Mr. Jackson and assess his 12 ability to represent himself at trial. The jury trial was traileed to October 16, 2024,
13 the last day allowed by the July 5, 2024 time waiver. Exhibit A at 14. Doc #337.

14 On October 9 and 15, 2024, expert reports were filed under seal in the trial
15 court. The hearing on Mr. Jackson's ability to continue to represent himself was 16 continued to October 14, 15, 31, and then November 25, 2024. Exhibit A at 13.

17 On October 16, 2024, the trial was traileed to October 31 and then set for 18 November 25, 2024 with a last day of December 5, 2024. Mr. Jackson agreed to 19 waive time for trial. Exhibit A at 11.

20 On November 14, 2024, respondent filed a motion for relief from further
21 judgement or order in this Court under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 60(b)(5).
22 Doc #342. On November 15, 2024, this Court ordered respondent's motion
23 "DISMISSED as unripe." Doc #343.

24 On November 25, 2024, a stipulation was entered into to vacate the trial
25 date and reset it for December 2, 2024, with a last day of December 12, 2024. Mr.
26 Jackson either made an oral motion or filed a motion to be released and have his 27 case dismissed. He submitted documents in support of the motion. The court read 28 and considered the documents and denied the motion. Exhibit A at 10.

1 On December 2, 2024, Mr. Jackson withdrew his Faretta request. New 2 counsel was appointed, and the trial date was vacated. Mr. Jackson waived time
3 for trial until January 9, 2025, with an outside date of February 10, 2025. Exhibit
4 A at 9.

5 On January 9, 2025, Jeff Moore was appointed to represent Mr. Jackson.
6 Counsel took the motions off calendar. Mr. Jackson objected to any continuance 7 of the trial. The court continued the jury trial until March 24, 2025, with an 8 outside date of April 23, 2025. Exhibit A at 8.

9 On March 24, 2025, counsel filed a motion to continue the trial. Mr.
10 Jackson objected to the continuance. The court continued the trial until June 10, 11 2025 with the last day set for June 20, 2025. Exhibit A at 8.

12 On May 7, 2025, counsel filed a non-statutory motion to dismiss for the 13 denial of speedy trial for violation of a court order in the superior court. Exhibit B 14 at 21.

15 On June 3, 2025, Mr. Jackson mailed for filing a pro se motion to execute
16 writ order in this Court. Doc #344.

17 On June 10, 2025, a stipulated motion to continue the trial was granted. Mr.
18 Jackson objected to the motion. The court continued the trial to August 11, 2025,
19 with the last date set for August 21, 2025. Exhibit A at 7.

20 On June 27, 2025, the district attorney filed an opposition to the non-
21 statutory motion to dismiss for denial of a speedy trial. Exhibit B at 39.

22 In response to Mr. Jackson's pro se motion to execute writ order, on June 23 30, 2025, this Court noted that the docket in Mr. Jackson's retrial proceedings
24 "shows that retrial proceedings were begun on May 30, 2024, and Petitioner
25 appears to have waived his time for trial on certain occasions since." Doc #345.
26 The Court also noted that "on May 7, 2025, Petitioner filed a motion to dismiss for 27 denial of speedy trial. The motion was set for hearing on June 10, 2025, at which 28 time the parties stipulated to continue the hearing to July 10, 2025." Id. The

1 Court observed that “[t]he docket also shows an upcoming hearing on Petitioner’s
2 Motion to Dismiss Under Racial Justice Act set for July 30, 2025, and the 3 scheduled beginning of Petitioner’s jury trial on August 11, 2025.” Id.

4 On July 10, 2025, a hearing on the motion to dismiss for denial of speedy
5 trial was held. Exhibit A at 6. On July 15, 2025, the court denied the motion.
6 Exhibit B, Minute Order at 82. The court set the jury trial for August 11, 2025.
7 Id. at 5-6.

8 On July 23, 2025, the district attorney filed an opposition to the RJA
9 Motion. Exhibit A at 5. On July 30, 2025, the RJA Motion hearing was continued
10 to August 11, 2025. Exhibit A at 5.

11 On August 11, 2025, counsel filed a motion to continue the trial. Exhibit A 12 at 4. Mr. Jackson objected to the continuance. The court granted the motion and 13 continued the trial to September 4, 2025. On the same day, Mr. Jackson filed a 14 Marsden motion. The motion was denied. Id.

15 On September 2, 2025, counsel filed a motion to continue the trial. Exhibit
16 A at 3. On September 4, 2025, the jury trial was continued to November 3, 2025,
17 with the last day set for December 2, 2025. Id. Mr. Jackson did not object to a
18 continuance to litigate the RJA motion to dismiss. At that time, the RJA motion 19 had been pending for close to 12 months. Mr. Jackson asserts that he did object to 20 a continuance of the trial but agreed to continue the RJA motion. Counsel
21 Declaration at ¶ 4.

22 On September 19, 2025, the RJA Motion hearing was continued to October
23 17, 2025. Exhibit A at 3.

24 Trial is currently set for November 3, 2025. Exhibit A.

25 III. MOTION FOR RELEASE

26 Mr. Jackson has waited long enough. He initially waived time to allow 27 counsel to prepare for trial. He then requested to represent himself and later
28 withdrew that request. He then began to object to the delay in going to trial.

1 Mr. Jackson made a pro se motion to dismiss arguing that this Court's order
2 was violated because he was not brought to trial within the time frame set by this
3 Court. He continued to object to any continuance starting in January 2025.
4 Counsel for Mr. Jackson filed a non-statutory motion to dismiss for denial of 5 speedy trial for violation of the Court's order. The objections and motions were to 6 no avail.

7 Mr. Jackson was to be brought to trial by April 23, 2024, later extended by 8 this Court to October 3, 2024. Trial is now set for November 3, 2025. Trial is 9 scheduled some 13 months after the original deadline set by this Court. Even if 10 the control date is January 9, 2025 when Mr. Jackson objected to the continuance 11 of the trial, it would be 10 months after the deadline. Under either scenario, it is 12 well past the 120 days originally set by this Court.

13 Mr. Jackson asks this Court to release him from custody.

14 IV. CONCLUSION

15 Based on the foregoing, Mr. Jackson seeks his release from custody given 16 that the State of California did not grant him a new trial by October 3, 2024 or 17 January 9, 2025.

DECLARATION OF COUNSEL

I, James S. Thomson, declare:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of California and before this Court. I was appointed to represent petitioner in this matter. Jackson v. Calderon, C.D. Cal. Case No. 2:97-cv-03531-MWF Civil Docket Report #9.

2. I have reviewed Exhibits A and B attached to this motion. The dates and matters set out in the procedural history section and referenced in the motion for release section were taken from those exhibits.

3. I have communicated with Noel Jackson's trial counsel in Riverside, Jeff Moore. On October 8, 2025, Mr. Moore informed me that Mr. Jackson waived time on September 4, 2024 but for the purpose of ensuring that his motion to dismiss pursuant to the Racial Justice Act was heard. "In September [2025], after the denial of the motion to dismiss, Mr. Jackson agreed to a continuance of the trial in order to litigate the RJA motion that he filed while he was in pro per. He did not object and entered the time waiver to ensure that his motion could be litigated."

4. On October 15, 2025, I was informed by Mr. Jackson that on September 4, 2025, he "was ask[ed] by the judge if [he] waived time. [He] said NO [he] do[es] not waive time." After talking with counsel about litigating the RJA motion, "he made the choice to have [his] RJA motion heard. [He] was given no choice in the matter. [He] waived time."

5. I have communicated with Deputy Attorney General Daniel Rogers regarding this motion. On October 11, 2025, Mr. Rogers advised me that the State opposes the motion.

I declare under the penalty perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated: October 15, 2025

JAMES S. THOMSON

1 did not order that Jackson be brought to trial in 120 days, but that he the State
2 “grant him a new trial in accordance with applicable California law and the United 3 States Constitution.” (ECF No. 312.) California granted Jackson a new trial within 4 the 120 days provided for in the Court’s order and that trial is ongoing. The State’s 5 compliance with the conditional writ ended this Court’s jurisdiction, as Jackson is 6 no longer subject to any consequences of the now-vacated judgment that was the 7 subject of the federal writ proceedings.

8 ARGUMENT

9 THIS COURT IS WITHOUT JURISDICTION TO GRANT FURTHER RELIEF IN 10 THE CASE

11 Here, this Court granted Jackson the following conditional writ of habeas
12 corpus on September 9, 2022:

13 Pursuant to the Court’s February 9, 2022 Order Granting Relief on 14 Batson Claim (Claim K) of the Second Amended Petition for Writ of 15 Habeas Corpus,

16 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the 17 Second Amended Petition is CONDITIONALLY GRANTED and that 18 the judgment of conviction and sentence for life without possibility for 19 parole for the murder of Sonja Niles in the matter of People v. Jackson, 20 Case No. CR-23480, in the Superior Court of the State of California for 21 the County of Riverside, be VACATED. Because there is no reason for 22 delay, the Court directs entry of a final judgment pursuant to Federal 23 Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b).

24 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, within 120 days of the date of 25 this Judgment, the State of California shall either release Petitioner or 26 grant him a new trial in accordance with applicable California law and 27 the United States Constitution.

RESPONDENT'S OPPOSITION TO PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR RELEASE

Judge: The Honorable Michael
W. Fitzgerald

Action Filed: 5/09/1997

20 INTRODUCTION

21 On October 15, 2025, Petitioner Noel Jackson filed a Motion for Release
22 claiming he has not been "brought to trial within the 120 day time period ordered 23 by this Court." (ECF No. 347 at 2.) On October 16, 2025, this Court ordered a 24 response. (ECF No. 348.) On October 30, 2025, Jackson supplemented his motion
25 with his own declaration. (ECF No. 349.) Respondent now files this opposition
26 pursuant to the Court's order.

27 In short, this Court is without jurisdiction to grant Jackson further relief in this 28 habeas corpus case. Contrary to Jackson's assertion, this Court's conditional writ

1 Put simply, Jackson is no longer subject to the judgment of conviction and 2 sentence this Court found to have been obtained in violation of Jackson's federal
3 constitutional rights. That judgment was vacated on May 17, 2024. (Exh. A at 4.)
4 Jackson is no longer in custody pursuant to that judgment because that judgment no
5 longer exists. Instead, Jackson is now being held in pre-trial confinement in county
6 jail without bail awaiting trial for murder. (Exh. B.) This pre-trial confinement was 7 not triggered by his now-vacated judgment, but by his arrest by sheriff's deputies
8 on May 28, 2024. (Exh. B.) In essence, Jackson has been restored to the position
9 he would have been in had the original trial never occurred.

10 Respondent acknowledges that Jackson's retrial has not yet commenced,
11 insofar as a jury has not yet been empaneled and trial proceedings begun, with a 12 jury trial set for November 19, 2025, the day following a hearing on Jackson's 13 motion for relief under California's Racial Justice Act, Cal. Penal Code § 745.
14 (Exh. D at 11.²) In the first instance, the exact stage at which Jackson finds himself 15 in the retrial proceedings is not essential to answering the question of whether the 16 writ has been satisfied. The writ can be satisfied in one of two ways: vacatur of the 17 judgment in case number CR23480 and release or the grant of a new trial within the 18 120 days allotted. As discussed above, the judgment in case number CR23480 has 19 been vacated and Jackson is no longer in custody pursuant to that now non-extant
20 judgment. Thus, the State has satisfied the first of the two alternative conditions set 21 forth in the Court's conditional writ.

22 In addition to satisfying the first condition of the writ, the State has also 23 satisfied the second condition as well. The second condition of the conditional writ
24 required the State to grant Jackson a new trial within 120 days of the Ninth 25 Circuit's Mandate on April 23, 2024. (ECF Nos. 312, 313, 321.) The State has

26
27 ² Exhibit D is a .pdf version of the Riverside County Superior Court's online 28 case summary of Jackson's trial matter. The formatting of this document was unusual in that the "HEARINGS" section could not be printed consecutively. The additional pages of the "HEARINGS" section follow at the end of the document.

1 This Court granted respondent's motion to stay the judgment during the 2 pendency of the appeal in Jackson v. Broomfield, case number 22-55937, the stay to 3 be lifted upon the Court's filing of the Order Spreading the Ninth Circuit Mandate.
4 (ECF No. 313.) The Ninth Circuit issued its Mandate on April 23, 2024. (ECF No.
5 321.)

6 Attached as Exhibit A hereto are the minutes of the Riverside County Superior
7 Court in case number CR23480.¹ According to the minutes of the superior court,
8 Jackson's 1989 conviction and sentence were vacated on May 17, 2024, less than 9 one month after the stay was lifted. (Exh. A at 4.) As Riverside County Sheriff's 10 Department records indicate, Jackson was then arrested by local sheriff's deputies 11 at Lancaster State Prison on May 28, 2024, and transported that same day to 12 Riverside County Jail to be booked on murder charges. (Exh. B.)

13 The state court's vacatur of the judgment in case number CR23480, as ordered
14 by this Court, is the seminal event in terms of compliance with the conditional writ.
15 Section 2254(a) provides that a federal court shall entertain a petition for writ of 16 habeas corpus "in behalf of a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State
17 court." As the United States Supreme Court has observed, "A § 2254 petitioner is 18 applying for something: His petition 'seeks invalidation (in whole or in part) of the 19 judgment authorizing the prisoner's confinement.'" Magwood, v. Patterson, 561
20 U.S. 320, 332 (2010) (quoting Wilkinson v. Dotson, 544 U.S. 74, 83 (2005)
21 (emphasis added)). "If his petition results in a district court's granting of the writ, 22 'the State may seek a new judgment (through a new trial or a new sentencing 23 proceeding).'" Ibid. (emphasis in original). Consequently, in the absence of 24 custody pursuant to the judgment of a state court, further habeas relief under section 25 2254(a) is unavailable.

26
27 ¹ Respondent reattaches the exhibits that accompanied his Rule 60 Motion,
28 which raised a substantially similar jurisdictional argument. (ECF No. 342.)
Respondent will also attach the latest information he was able to obtain regarding the case from the Riverside Superior Court website. (Exh. D.)

1 granted Jackson a new trial. His judgment of conviction and sentence have been 2 vacated and new trial proceedings are underway.

3 The Sixth Circuit's decision in Fisher v. Rose, 757 F.2d 789 (6th Cir. 1985), is 4 instructive. In Fisher, the district court granted a conditional writ "ordering that 5 '[i]ssuance of the writ will be stayed for ninety (90) days pending appeal by 6 respondent or, within which time, the State may on its own motion vacate
7 petitioner's conviction and grant him a new trial.'" Id. at 790. Within the 90-day
8 period provided by the court, counsel for Fisher was appointed, and both a bail
9 amount and a new trial date set. Ibid. Due to a conflict of interest with appointed 10 counsel, new counsel was appointed, and the trial date continued beyond the 90
11 days. Ibid. Fisher then petitioned the district court for an order that he be released
12 from state custody and barring retrial based on the failure to bring him to trial
13 within the 90 days provided, which the district court granted. Id. at 790–791.

14 The Sixth Circuit reversed, explaining:

15 We conclude that the district court abused its discretion in barring 16 retrial by the state. Less than sixty days after this court issued the 17 mandate affirming the district court's granting of the writ, the state had 18 appointed counsel for Fisher, set bond, and set a trial date. If Fisher had 19 been able to meet the requirements of his bond, he would have been 20 released from detention. These facts indicate that at the time of the July 21 7, 1984 hearing, Fisher was no longer in custody pursuant to the 22 constitutionally defective judgment of conviction, but was being held 23 pursuant to the indictment....[¶]... 28 U.S.C. § 2254(a) provides that 24 relief is available to a petitioner "only on the ground that he is in custody
25 in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States."
26 Since Fisher was no longer being held pursuant to the constitutionally 27 defective conviction, we conclude that the district court erred in ordering 28 Fisher's release and barring retrial.

1 Fisher v. Rose, 757 F.2d at 791.

2 This case is virtually identical to the situation in Fisher. Here, the State had 3 120 days from April 23, 2024, or until August 21, 2024, to grant Jackson a new
4 trial. Jackson's judgment of conviction and sentence was vacated on May 17, 2024
5 (Exh. A at 4), well within the 120-day period. Counsel for Jackson was appointed³
6 and two trial readiness conferences occurred, again within the 120-day period.
7 (Exh. A at 3–4.) Bail was unavailable under the Riverside County Superior Court's
8 Felony and Misdemeanor Bail Schedule, which provides for no bail in cases
9 involving a potential sentence of life in prison without the possibility of parole, i.e.
10 special circumstances murder. (Exhs. B, C at 9.) And finally, an initial trial date
11 was set. (Exh. A at 3.)

12 As in Fisher, the State acted expeditiously to vacate the constitutionally infirm
13 judgment and release Jackson from prison, at which point he was arrested by local 14 law enforcement and retrial proceedings initiated. At that point, Jackson's custody
15 was no longer attributable to the judgment for which this Court granted habeas 16 relief, but was instead the product of his pending, unadjudicated murder charges.
17 Should the case be dismissed, Jackson would be released from jail as there would 18 be no legal basis for his continued detention. And, as custody pursuant to the 19 challenged judgment is the basis for relief under § 2254, Jackson has received the 20 relief to which he is entitled and there is no further relief possible for this Court to 21 grant. See Fisher v. Rose, 757 F.2d at 791; see also Magwood, v. Patterson, 561
22 U.S. at 332.

23 Any concerns regarding the pace of the retrial proceedings are not remediable
24 through the vehicle of § 2254 and the relief granted by this Court thereunder. “A

25 _____
26 ³ The superior court's minutes are not entirely clear as to when counsel was 27 appointed. (Exh. A.) However, as trial readiness conferences occurred on June 6
28 and 13, 2024, and Jackson was not granted self-representation until September 16, 2024 (Exh. A at 3), the conclusion that counsel was appointed prior to June 6, 2024, and sometime during the 120-day period, is inescapable, as someone must have appeared at those two trial readiness conferences.

1 conditional writ under § 2254 is not ‘a general grant of supervisory authority over
2 state trial courts.’” Jensen v. Pollard, 924 F.3d at 455. And federal courts “should 3 presume that states will comply with equitable remedies in good faith” and “[t]his 4 presumption applies with particular force in § 2254 proceedings, where 5 ‘[f]ederalism and comity principles pervade.’” Id. Should Jackson object to delay
6 in his retrial, he enjoys the same state and federal speedy trial protections available
7 to any criminal defendant in California, either through appeal should he be 8 convicted or writ. See id. at 455–56. And the remedies available to him to 9 vindicate those rights are the same remedies available to any other criminal
10 defendant. Indeed, Jackson has already sought relief for a violation of his speedy
11 trial rights in the superior court. (Exh. D at 5.)

12 Again, as discussed above, the State has moved expeditiously to effect
13 Jackson’s retrial as required by the conditional writ. However, once the State 14 sought to initiate proceedings in the state courts, the state court, and not the 15 prosecutor or the warden, was in control of those proceedings. And the state court
16 is not a party to the § 2254 proceedings. See Hudson v. Lashbrook, 863 F.3d 652, 17 656 (“The writ is directed to the person detaining another: it is not directed at the 18 state government in toto.”). Yet, irrespective of this presumption, the records
19 provided in support of this motion demonstrate the state court has been moving 20 steadily forward with the retrial proceedings and there is no reason to believe it will 21 not continue to do so. But the speed of the retrial proceedings is only one of many 22 factors to be considered. Retrial, especially in a case of the size and complexity of 23 this one, is not a simple matter of empaneling twelve jurors and presenting some 24 evidence. There are numerous matters to be litigated before the trial itself can 25 occur, all of which are essential to the protection of Jackson’s rights and to ensuring 26 he receives the fair retrial to which he is entitled. These matters include protection 27 of Jackson’s right to self-representation, his competence to represent himself, and 28 his rights under the Racial Justice Act. (Exh. A at 2.) In particular, the disruption

1 to trial defense's counsel's representation of Jackson and preparation for trial
2 engendered by Jackson's request for self-representation and request for substitution
3 of appointed counsel, all initiated by Jackson himself, are of particular note with 4 regard to understanding any delays in the retrial proceedings. (Exh. A at 2; Exh. D
5 at 3–5.) While Jackson cannot be faulted for pursuing every legal avenue available
6 to vindicate his rights, he also cannot complain that those efforts all require court
7 time to adjudicate that necessarily delays his trial. And beyond those efforts, 8 counsel for respondent anticipates there will be any number of further matters to be 9 litigated, such as discovery motions, evidentiary motions, etc. The state court has 10 appointed an investigator to assist Jackson and there is no way of knowing what 11 that investigator will uncover and what further pretrial litigation those efforts may 12 spawn. And any delay necessitated by these further pretrial proceedings will in no 13 way be attributable to any bad faith or effort to avoid compliance with the 14 conditional writ but will instead be essential and legitimate efforts by the state court
15 to ensure Jackson receives a full and fair retrial.

16 Finally, beyond the jurisdictional question, there are certain practical and 17 jurisprudential considerations implicated by any further grant of relief in the writ
18 proceedings. First, there is the question of what form such relief would even take.
19 As discussed above, immediate, unconditional release and the barring of further 20 retrial proceedings is unavailable. See Fisher v. Rose, 757 F.2d at 791. Moreover, 21 even outside of the time afforded under the conditional writ, “the state is not 22 precluded from rearresting petitioner and retrying him under the same indictment.”
23 Id.; accord Harvest v. Castro, 531 F.3d at 750, n.9 [“Our granting of an 24 unconditional writ of habeas corpus does not, itself, preclude the State from 25 rearresting and retrying Harvest. [Citations.] (‘F]ederal courts usually permit
26 rearrest and retrial after the time period specified in the conditional release order 27 has elapsed and the prisoner has been released.’).”]. Rearrest already occurred on 28 May 28, 2024. (Exh. B.) And should this Court make orders imposing further

1 deadlines in the state court proceedings, such would potentially violate the 2 abstention doctrine of Younger v. Harris, 401 U.S. 37, 43 (“Since the beginning of
3 this country's history Congress has, subject to few exceptions, manifested a desire
4 to permit state courts to try state cases free from interference by federal courts.”).

5 CONCLUSION

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

Felony and Misdemeanor Bail Schedule

Approved by the
Judges of the Riverside County Superior Court
October 27, 2023

Effective Date: January 1, 2024

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

Felony and Misdemeanor Bail Schedule

This Bail Schedule is adopted by the Superior Court of California, County of Riverside pursuant to Section 1269b(c) of the Penal Code and is to be utilized pursuant to Section 1268 et seq. of the Penal Code in setting bail for the release of persons arrested on charges, without warrant, for the alleged commission of any bailable offense, and for Writs of Habeas Corpus.

This Bail Schedule consists of two sections: (A) Bail for Felonies, and (B) Bail for Misdemeanors.

SECTION B: MISDEMEANOR BAIL SCHEDULE.....	13

SECTION A: FELONY BAIL SCHEDULE

PART 1: RULES

RULE 1: Setting Bail

- A. Bail for felony crimes will be set as follows:
1. The amount set in the approved arrest warrant;
 2. The amount set pursuant to 1269c P.C. (See Rule 6(A) herein);
 3. The amount set at a hearing in court; and / or
 4. The amount set through use of this Bail Schedule.
- B. The Felony Bail Schedule consists of four parts:
1. The "Rules";
 2. The "General Bail Amounts Chart";
 3. The "Special Bail Amounts"; and
 4. The "Bail Amounts for Enhancements."
- C. Review all Rules. Review the "General Bail Amounts Chart" section. Review the "Special Bail Amounts" section. If the bail amount is different, the higher amount applies.
- D. To calculate bail on any one case, take the count which imposes the longest term of incarceration, find the bail amount from the "General Bail Amounts Chart" section. Check the "Special Bail Amounts" section. If there is a conflict, use the larger sum. Next, add bail for all enhancements. The calculation is per case. For example, if a person has three cases and the bail is $5,000 on one case, $75,000 on another case, and $25,000 on a third case, then the person must post three separate bonds, one for each case, in order to be released.

RULE 2: No Bail

Murder with special circumstances will not be admitted to bail if proof of guilt is evident or the presumption great.

RULE 3: Attempts, Etc.

The following felony offenses will have a bail amount equal to the substantive offense, which was the object of the conspiracy, solicitation or attempt.

Section 182 P.C. (Conspiracy)
Section 653(F) P.C. (Solicitation)
Section 664 P.C. (Attempt)

Note: 182/187 PC: The bail is $1 million, even if special circumstances are alleged.

Note: 32 PC: The bail is half the amount for the substantive crime, but no less than 10,000.

RULE 4: Multiple Counts, Multiple Cases

A. Multiple Counts:

1. For each separate crime arising out of the same set of circumstances, the single highest bail plus all applicable enhancements shall apply.
2. If the charges could be filed as separate cases, separate bail amounts apply and those amounts are to be added together to calculate the appropriate bail for the case filed.

B. Multiple Cases: Calculate the bail for each case separately. A separate bail is required for each separate case.

C. Examples:

1. Two Separate Complaints Filed: Defendant commits two robberies on two separate dates (two separate sets of circumstances) – the applicable bail amount for each of the robbery complaints would be calculated. These are two separate cases and two separate bail bonds are required.
2. One Complaint Filed: Defendant assaults one victim and later that day assaults a second unrelated victim (two separate sets of circumstances). The applicable bail amount for each incident is calculated. Then the two amounts are added together to determine the amount of bail.
3. One Complaint Filed: Defendant robs a pizza store and takes money from the register and from a customer's wallet. The bail is the amount for the most serious criminal charge plus bail for any enhancements.

RULE 5: Enhancements / Strikes

A. Enhancements:

Where a felony offense has been committed and it is alleged in the Complaint or Information, or it is evident from other information made available to the Court, that one or more punishment enhancements are applicable, the bail amount specifically described for each applicable enhancement shall be added cumulatively to the bail set forth for the specified offense. See Part 4, Bail Amounts for Enhancements to Felonies. For unlisted enhancements, see Part 2, The General Bail Amounts Chart.

B. Strikes:

Where it is alleged in the Complaint or Information, or it is evident from other information made available to the Court, that there is a strike prior within the meaning of Penal Code Sections 667 and 1170.12 the additional bail shall be calculated as follows:

- (1)(a) If the defendant has previously been convicted of one strike, the bail is enhanced by $50,000.
 - (b) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more strikes, the bail is enhanced by $50,000 per strike, if the current crime is a non-serious and non-violent crime.
 - (c) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more strikes, and the current crime is non-serious and non-violent, and, if any of the exceptions contained in section 667(e)(C)(2)(i-iv) apply, then the total bail is $1,000,000.
- (2) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more serious or violent felonies and the current crime is a serious or violent felony, then the total bail is $1,000,000.

RULE 6: Bail Increase / Source of Bail Funds

A. Bail Increase (1269c P.C.)

In the event that law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that the amount of bail set forth in the Bail Schedule is insufficient, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a 1269c P.C. declaration requesting an order setting higher bail. Once a copy of the 1269c P.C. form has been given to the booking officer, no one shall release the defendant except at the higher requested bail. The arresting officer then has eight (8) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If no Magistrate approved 1269c form is provided to the booking officer within eight (8) hours of the initial booking, then the defendant may be released at the amount of bail as indicated by the Bail Schedule. Any Magistrate approved 1269c form must be filed with the Complaint.

B. Source of Bail Funds (1275.1 P.C.)

In the event that law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that bail has been or may be obtained by felonious means, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a declaration requesting an order pursuant to Section 1275.1 P.C. Once a copy of the 1275.1 P.C. form has been given to the booking officer, no one may release the defendant. The arresting officer has twenty-four (24) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If a Magistrate approves the 1275.1 P.C. application, the defendant may not be released except upon the order of a Judge after a noticed hearing in Court. If no Magistrate approved 1275.1 P.C. form is provided to the booking officer within twenty-four (24) hours of the initial booking, then the defendant may be released upon whatever bail is set. Any Magistrate approved 1275.1 P.C. form must be filed with the Complaint or filed with the court if the complaint has already been filed.

RULE 7: Violation of Probation / Mandatory Supervision

Probation:

In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of felony probation shall be $50,000. In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of misdemeanor probation shall be $5,000.

Mandatory Supervision:

In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of mandatory supervision shall be $100,000.

RULE 8: Economic Loss

If the alleged economic loss is greater than the bail schedule, the bail shall be the amount of the loss, rounded to the next higher thousand-dollar level; i.e., if the economic loss is $58,423, the bail is $59,000.

Court Upholds Death Sentence of Hit Man

L.A. Times Archives

Aug. 28, 1996 12 AM PT

A Los Angeles man's death sentence for the contract killing of a former professional basketball player's wife has been upheld by the state Supreme Court.

Noel Jackson was convicted of the December 1984 murder of Sonja Niles outside her home in the Riverside County community of Corona.

Prosecutors said Jackson had been hired by the victim's husband, Michael Niles, to kill his wife and had been promised $5,000 from her $100,000 life insurance policy.

"APPENDIX B"

Michael Niles was tried along with Jackson but before a separate jury, which rejected a death sentence and sent him to prison for life without parole.

Each man claimed the other had fired the fatal shot from a shotgun pressed against the victim's head. Jackson's jury found that he was the gunman and recommended a death sentence, which was imposed by the late Superior Court Judge William Mortland.

Mortland barred evidence of a lie-detector test, administered by Redlands police officers, that found Jackson told the truth when he said Niles had killed his wife. The court upheld Mortland's decision, saying polygraph evidence had not been proven reliable enough to be admissible.

Niles, a 6-foot-6 forward, played basketball at Cal State Fullerton and spent a year in the NBA with the Phoenix Suns in the 1980-81 season.
