To the Honorable Elena Kagan, as Circuit Justice for the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit:

In accordance with this Court's Rules 13.5, 22, 30.2, and 30.3, Applicant Ingo Rademacher respectfully requests that the time to file his petition for a writ of certiorari be extended for a further 30 days, up through and until January 6, 2027. The Court previously granted an extension of time to file the petition from October 6, 2026, through December 7, 2026. The jurisdiction of this Court is based on 28 U.S.C. § 1257. The request is unopposed.

Reasons for Requesting an Extension of Time

Mr. Rademacher is being represented in this Court by the same attorneys who represented him in the California courts His lead counsel, Scott Street, is a member of this Court's Bar. However, Mr. Street has been engaged in two jury trials this fall. He expected those trials to be finished by now, but they will extend past Thanksgiving. Therefore, Mr. Street does not expect to have the time between now and December 7 to complete the petition that he expected to have when seeking the first extension. The requested extension will provide counsel with the necessary time to complete the petition for a writ of certiorari. The petition is being drafted and will be finished by January 6, 2027.

Furthermore, similar issues have been raised in a petition that involves the scope of religious protection in Title VII, the law on which California's Fair Employment and Housing Act was based. Detwiler v. Mid-Columbia Medical Center,

No. 26-196 (petition filed Aug. 13, 2026). That case will be discussed at the Court's December 4 conference. If the Court were to grant certiorari in Detwiler, it would support granting certiorari here, at least pending the outcome of Detwiler. This request is unopposed.

Conclusion

Therefore, Mr. Rademacher respectfully requests that the time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari be extended by a further 30 days up to and including January 6, 2027.

Respectfully submitted,

SCOTT J. STREET*
