and

No. 25-6837 C/A no 2:24-cv-04780-SAL

To: Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States

Application is hereby made pursuant to Rule 13, for a 60 day extension of time to the current September 1, 2026 deadline for petitioner William Joshua Alston to file a petition for writ of Certiorari.

The opinions of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit were entered on June 1, 2026. An order denying a petition for rehearing on both cases was entered on June 26, 2026, and copy of each document is included herewith. Jurisdiction is conferred by 28 U.S.C § 1254(1).

Petitioner brings forth this application for 60-day extension on the above referenced cases for the following reasons :

- Petitioners family has ordered Full briefs for Kingsley v. Hendrickson, Farmer v. Brennon, Estelle v. Gamble, and Scott v. Haris. These ordered briefs are scheduled to arrive between August 10-12, and petitioner seeks time to thoroughly review them.

- Petitioner is an incarcerated inmate at Perry Correctional in Pelzer, SC, and is only permitted to go to the Facilities Law Library on Tuesdays. The facility law library has a more thorough subscription to west law, than the limited access plans in our dorms. The facility also has tables to spread our work on, so he can accurately build his petition to be in compliance with this Honorable Courts rules.

For the foregoing reasons, petitioner humbly requests this Honorable Court will grant 60-day extensions for both aforementioned cases.

Respectfully Submitted

I hereby declare a copy of this petition for 60-day extension on the 5th day of August, 2026 was mailed via USPS to

Decided: June 1, 2026

Before WYNN, QUATTLEBAUM, and HEYTENS, Circuit Judges.

William Joshua Alston, Appellant Pro Se. Taylor Denslow Brewer, MORAN REEVES & CONN, PC, Richmond, Virginia; Elizabeth Fulton Morrison, WHELAN MELLEN &

NORRIS, LLC, Charleston, South Carolina, for Appellees.

Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

William Joshua Alston appeals the district court's order adopting the magistrate judge's report and recommendation and granting summary judgment to Defendants on Alston's 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action alleging deliberate indifference to his medical needs. Alston also moves to exceed the length limitations for his informal brief and to appoint counsel. We have reviewed the record and discern no reversible error. Accordingly, we grant the motion to exceed the length limitations for his informal brief, deny the motion to appoint counsel, and affirm the district court's order. Alston v. Lawson, No. 2:23-cv-03252-SAL (D.S.C., Aug. 25, 2025). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
