Cassandra Perkins, petitioner

V.

United States District Court of Northern Georgia et'al, defendants

Case No.:

IFP PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE AND MOTION FOR EMERGENCY INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

IFP Plaintiff, CASSANDRA PERKINS, files this Notice of Compliance and Motion for Emergency Injunctive Relief, respectfully showing the Court as follows:

I. Incorporation of Prior Pleadings and Compliance

1. All substantive facts, legal claims, and necessary elements supporting the underlying action have been fully detailed, completed, and filed with this Court.
2. Plaintiff specifically incorporates by reference the facts and arguments contained within the Cassandra Perkins petitioner v. United Health Group Optum et'al roughly five hundred page Writ of Certiorari filed on May 27, 2026.
3. This motion serves as a separate, distinct request pointing directly to those previously detailed elements to satisfy all statutory and procedural requirements for the immediate emergency relief requested herein.

II. Grounds for Emergency Injunctive Relief

Pursuant to United States law, Plaintiff moves this Court for an emergency injunction Hollingsworth v. Perry, 558 to preserve the status quo because the following elements are met based on the record already established:

- Irreparable Harm: Plaintiff will suffer immediate and irreversible injury if the Court does not intervene before a full hearing can be held. Plaintiff and Applicant will face imminent homelessness on July 31st, 2026 Destruction of the Litigant, Permanent Professional Atrophy, and complete loss of rights to due process in pursuing justice.
- No Adequate Remedy at Law: Monetary damages cannot adequately compensate or fix the harm that is currently threatened or occurring. The defendant and judicial officials' ongoing conspiracy against rights the Illusory Remedy is continuous and for the public in the southeast region of the United States, concerning lower courts and 11th Circuit of Appeals.
- Likelihood of Success: As detailed in the incorporated filings, Plaintiff possesses a substantial likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying case.
- Balancing of Equities: The threatened injury to the IFP Plaintiff with disabilities and the National public, heavily outweighs any potential harm or inconvenience an injunction might cause to the Defendants.

III. Relief Requested

Wherefore, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Accept this separate document as formal notice pointing to the fully completed requirements already detailed in the record;
2. Grant an immediate Emergency Injunction against the Defendants intent to manipulate procedure, alongside illusory remedy of lower courts ongoing unconstitutional machinery 18 U.S.C. SS, 1519 and 28 U.S.C. SS, SS, 351-364 against IFP Plaintiff with disabilities; restoring Title I, V and Title VII remedies(monetary emergency).
3. Schedule an expedited hearing on this matter at the Court's earliest availability.

Dated: July 23, 2026

Respectfully submitted,

Cassandra Perkins,
