Robert Hutchins, Jr.,

Petitioner,

v.

United States of America,

Respondent.

Associate Justice for the Seventh Circuit - Amy Coney Barrett

APPLICATION TO EXTEND THE TIME TO FILE A WRIT OF CERTIORARI

The basis for jurisdiction in this Honorable Court is based on the United States Court of Appeals has decided an important federal question in conflict with the decision of the United States Supreme Court and the Constitution, as to call for an exercise of this Honorable Court's supervisory power. Judgment was entered on a rehearing en banc on June 10, 2026, from the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

The judgment sought to be reviewed is an Application for Certificate of Appealability, United States v. Hutchins, No. 24-2860, United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, judgment entered March 26, 2026. The original 28 U.S.C. 2255 , No. 1:23-cv-00626-TWP-KMB.

An extension of time is justified due to receiving the denial of the rehearing en banc by U.S. Mail on or about July 17, 2026 from the prison staff. I have limited amount of time to do legal research and prepare my writ due to working 5 days a week for 8-9 hours per day and lockdowns from the institution.

WHEREFORE, it is not my intent to cause unjust or undue delays. I humbly and respectfully request from this Honorable Court an extension of 60 Days time to file my Writ of Certiorari.

Respectfully Submitted,

Robert Hutchins, Jr., Pro Se,
