

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

PAMELA MCKETHAN, Petitioner,

v.

GSLS GA, LLC, Respondent.

APPLICATION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME
TO COMPLY WITH THE COURT'S ORDER
OF OCTOBER 5, 2026

Expedited Consideration Requested

To the Honorable Clarence Thomas, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Circuit Justice for the Eleventh Circuit:

Petitioner Pamela McKethan, proceeding pro se, respectfully requests an additional thirty (30) days, from October 26, 2026, through November 25, 2026, to pay the $300 docketing fee and submit forty (40) copies of her petition and appendix in booklet format in compliance with Rule 33.1 and the Court's October 5, 2026 order. This application is submitted under Rules 22 and 30.2 and the instructions accompanying the Clerk's letter.

1. On October 5, 2026, the Court denied Petitioner's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and allowed her until October 26, 2026, to pay the docketing fee required by Rule 38(a) and submit a petition complying with Rule 33.1. A copy of the Clerk's letter setting out that order is attached as Exhibit A.

REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION

Petitioner respectfully requests expedited consideration of this application and, if practicable, a ruling before the October 26, 2026 compliance deadline. Petitioner received the Clerk's letter on October 14, 2026, and needs additional time to obtain funds for the $300 docketing fee and to arrange and pay for preparation of the forty required booklet copies. A ruling before the existing deadline would allow Petitioner to know whether the requested extension through November 25, 2026, has been granted.

2. Petitioner received the Clerk's letter on October 14, 2026. As of the date of this application, October 15, 2026, only eleven days remain before the October 26 deadline.

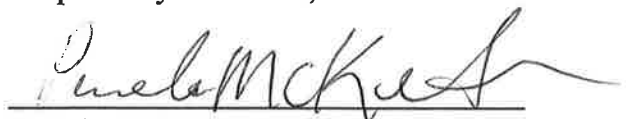

3. Petitioner needs additional time to determine how to have the petition and appendix prepared in the required booklet format, locate a printing provider, determine the preparation and printing costs, and arrange for forty compliant copies to be produced.

4. Petitioner also needs additional time to obtain the funds to pay both the booklet preparation and printing costs and the $300 docketing fee. Her limited financial resources make it difficult to meet these expenses within the short time remaining after receipt of the letter.

5. Petitioner intends to comply with the Court's order. The requested thirty-day extension will provide needed time to arrange preparation of the booklets and obtain funds for printing and the docketing fee. This request is made in good faith to permit compliance and is not made for purposes of delay.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that the deadline to pay the $300 docketing fee and submit the forty booklet-format copies of her petition and appendix be extended from October 26, 2026, to November 25, 2026.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Pamela McKethan
v. GSLS GA, LLC.
No. 25-7589

Dear Ms. McKethan:

The Court today entered the following order in the above-entitled case:

The motion of petitioner for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is denied. Petitioner is allowed until October 26, 2026, within which to pay the docketing fee required by Rule 38(a) and to submit a petition in compliance with Rule 33.1 of the Rules of this Court.

Sincerely,
