

No. 26-5403

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

SHYAMAL GHOSH, Petitioner,

v.

NEW YORK CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY, Respondent.

APPLICATION FOR A 30-DAY EXTENSION OF TIME TO COMPLY WITH THE OCTOBER 5, 2026 ORDER

Petitioner Shyamal Ghosh, proceeding pro se, respectfully applies for a 30-day extension of the October 26, 2026 deadline established by the Court's October 5, 2026 order. Petitioner requests an extension through and including November 25, 2026.

The Court denied Petitioner's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and directed him to pay the $300 docketing fee and submit a petition compliant with Rule 33.1. The Clerk's accompanying instructions require 40 copies of the petition and appendix in booklet format. Petitioner is simultaneously seeking reconsideration of the IFP denial, but understands that reconsideration does not toll the deadline.

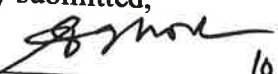

Petitioner needs additional time to determine whether reconsideration will be granted and, if not, to arrange payment and specialized printing of 40 booklet-format copies. His reported monthly gross income is $5,916, his biweekly take-home pay is approximately $1,596.95, and his previously disclosed monthly expenses are approximately $6,015. These circumstances make immediate payment and booklet production difficult.

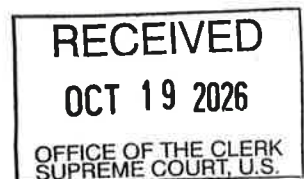

This application is made in good faith and not for delay. Petitioner respectfully asks for a 30-day extension to protect the opportunity to comply fully with the Court's order while the motion for reconsideration is considered.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests an extension of time to comply with the Court's October 5, 2026 order through November 25, 2026.

Petitioner understands that filing this application does not automatically extend the existing deadline and that the requested extension is effective only if granted.

Respectfully submitted,

10.10.2026
