No. 26A_____

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

BRENT KIDECKEL,

Applicant,

v.

FOREIGN NATION OF CANADA, et al.,
Respondents.

APPLICATION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME
WITHIN WHICH TO FILE A PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI
TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

To the Honorable John G. Roberts, Jr., Chief Justice of the United States and Circuit Justice for the District of Columbia Circuit:

Pursuant to Rule 13.5, applicant Brent Kideckel respectfully requests a 60-day extension of time, to and including January 25, 2027, within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari to review the judgment of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in No. 26-7006. Applicant is self-represented. Unless extended, the time to file expires on November 26, 2026.

1. Judgment sought to be reviewed. The court of appeals entered judgment on June 11, 2026, summarily affirming in part and dismissing in part applicant's appeal from orders of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in No. 1:24-cv-02907-CJN. A copy is attached as Exhibit A. Applicant filed a timely petition for panel rehearing and rehearing en banc

RECEIVED
NOV 17 2026
OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

on June 16, 2026. On August 28, 2026, the court of appeals denied panel rehearing in one order and denied rehearing en banc in a second order. Copies are attached as Exhibits B and C.

2. Jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under 28 U.S.C. § 1254(1).

3. Timeliness. Under Rules 13.1 and 13.3, the time to petition runs from the denial of rehearing and expires on November 26, 2026. This application is filed with the Clerk more than 10 days before that date, as Rule 13.5 requires.

4. Reasons for the requested extension.

a. Applicant is self-represented. He prepares his own filings without the assistance of counsel or legal staff.

b. Applicant intends to file the petition in booklet format under Rule 33.1 rather than to proceed in forma pauperis. Commercial printing of a booklet-format petition and appendix requires that the text and the appendix be final well before the filing date, and requires applicant to arrange and fund that printing. The time remaining does not permit it.

c. The petition will present a question concerning the authority of a district court that has dismissed an action for want of subject-matter jurisdiction to permit an amended pleading asserting federal causes of action. Several of the decisions on which the petition relies are reported only in printed reporters, which applicant must consult in person in order to cite them accurately.

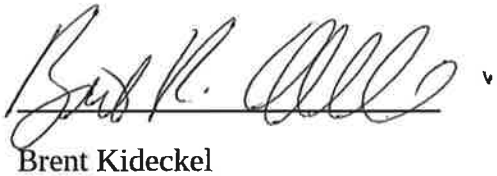

d. Applicant is simultaneously litigating related matters with filing obligations during the present period. An appeal remains pending in the court of appeals in No. 26-7172. In an action pending in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, Index No. 159649/2026, argument scheduled for November 10, 2026 was adjourned and is to be rescheduled, and briefing schedules on three pending motions to dismiss have yet to be set. Applicant expects to be required to prepare opposition papers in that action during the period covered by this request, on dates he cannot presently predict.

e. This is applicant's first request for an extension of time in this matter. No respondent will be prejudiced by the extension.

5. Relief requested. Applicant respectfully requests that the time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari be extended by 60 days, to and including January 25, 2027.

Respectfully submitted,

Brent Kideckel
