RECEIVED
NOV 17 2026
OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

To the Honorable Amy Coney Barrett, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Circuit Justice for the Seventh Circuit:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rules 13.5, 22, and 30, Applicant Marilyn M. Sloniker respectfully requests a 60-day extension of time, from November 16, 2026 through January 15, 2027, within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari. This is Applicant's first request for an extension. The extension is sought solely for Applicant Marilyn M. Sloniker.

JUDGMENTS TO BE REVIEWED AND JURISDICTION

1. Applicant seeks review of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals' September 26, 2025 order dismissing Appeal Nos. 2025AP1981 through 2025AP1988 as untimely and its October 6, 2025 order denying reconsideration. The Wisconsin Supreme Court denied Applicant's petition for review and motion for relief on August 18, 2026. Copies of those orders are attached.

2. This Court would have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1257(a). The petition will present federal questions under the Fourteenth Amendment and 11 U.S.C. §§ 108(c) and 362 concerning notice, opportunity to be heard, and the effect of federal bankruptcy law on proceedings and appellate timing.

3. Under Rule 13.1 and 28 U.S.C. § 2101(c), the current deadline is November 16, 2026. A 60-day extension would establish a new deadline of January 15, 2027.

EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES AND GOOD CAUSE

4. Applicant recognizes that this application is being submitted fewer than ten days before the existing deadline and therefore must establish the most extraordinary circumstances under Rule 30.2. The delay was not sought for tactical advantage.

5. Applicant is proceeding pro se and intends to request leave to proceed in forma pauperis. She cannot afford an attorney and has had to prepare the contemplated petition without legal assistance while doing the best she can under the circumstances.

6. Applicant is disabled and has accommodation papers on file in the Wisconsin circuit court requesting additional time. The challenged foreclosures caused displacement and periods of homelessness. Applicant remains homeless and has limited access to court facilities and services, printing, scanning, and other resources needed to prepare a Supreme Court filing. Much of her paperwork is packed in boxes, making it difficult to locate and access all of the records and documents needed to complete the petition and appendix.

7. Applicant was ill for approximately one month. She also suffered a serious fall and is still recovering. Her illness, injuries, disability, and continuing recovery materially reduced the time and physical ability available to research, assemble, type, copy, and serve the petition and appendix.

8. During the same period, Applicant was required to prepare documents in other legal matters and to prepare for and participate in a trial. Those obligations involved deadlines and proceedings that she could not disregard. Because she is unrepresented and cannot afford counsel, she had to perform that work herself while ill, injured, disabled, and homeless.

9. The contemplated petition concerns eight foreclosure matters and eight linked appellate proceedings. The relevant materials are dispersed among multiple circuit-court cases, appellate files, bankruptcy proceedings, property records, and records concerning service and notice. Applicant has been attempting to reconstruct these materials while homeless and without counsel.

10. Only recently did Applicant obtain and organize records necessary to avoid materially inaccurate representations, including bankruptcy filing notices, a partial dismissal order, recorded deeds for multiple properties, and the Wisconsin appellate orders. Those documents revealed issues requiring careful verification, including whether an automatic stay existed and for how long; whether each property belonged to a debtor or bankruptcy estate; when each lis pendens was recorded; and whether later trust conveyances created an independently protected interest.

11. Applicant also has forensic-audit materials that she has been unable to transmit and review because of current document-upload and technical limitations. Those materials must be evaluated against the lower-court record so that the petition does not make unsupported assertions concerning possession of the original notes, endorsements, assignments, securitization, or payment.

12. Applicant has worked diligently and has a substantial draft. Additional time is necessary to obtain the complete bankruptcy dockets and stay orders, the lis pendens records, relevant service records, completed title reports, and the portions of the state record showing when and how the federal questions were raised. Rule 14.1(g)(i) requires a state-court petitioner to identify where federal questions were timely raised and passed upon.

13. The requested extension will permit a truthful, focused petition and appendix addressing the federal questions actually preserved below. It will not prejudice Respondent, whose foreclosure judgments and enforcement actions have already proceeded.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Applicant respectfully requests that the time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari be extended for 60 days, from November 16, 2026 through January 15, 2027.

Respectfully submitted,

Marilyn Sloniker without recourse

DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

I, Marilyn M. Sloniker, declare as follows:

1. I am the Applicant, I am proceeding without counsel, and I intend to seek leave to proceed in forma pauperis.

2. I cannot afford an attorney. I have had to prepare this matter myself, and I am doing the best I can under the circumstances.

3. I am disabled. I have ADA accommodation papers on file with the Wisconsin circuit court requesting additional time.

4. I am homeless, and most of my paperwork is packed in boxes, making it difficult to locate and access the records needed to complete the petition and appendix. I also have limited access to court facilities, printing, and scanning.

5. I was sick for approximately one month. I also suffered a serious fall and am still recovering. My illness, injuries, disability, and continuing recovery reduced the time and physical ability I had to prepare this filing.

6. During the same period, I had to prepare documents in other legal matters and prepare for and participate in a trial. Because I cannot afford counsel, I had to perform that work myself.

7. I am attempting to prepare a petition involving eight foreclosure cases and eight linked appeals. Relevant records are located in multiple state-court, bankruptcy, and property-record files.

8. I recently obtained additional bankruptcy notices, property deeds, and appellate orders that required correction and verification of the petition. I am still attempting to obtain complete bankruptcy dockets and stay orders, lis pendens records, service records, completed title reports, and relevant portions of the state-court records.

9. I have worked diligently and have a substantial draft, but I cannot responsibly complete an accurate petition and appendix by November 16, 2026 under these circumstances. If the extension is granted, I will use the additional time to locate the boxed records and complete and correct my draft before filing the petition.

10. I request the extension in good faith and not for delay.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

2025AP1988	Educators Credit Union v. Marilyn M. Sloniker (L.C. # 2023CV1076)

Before Graham, P.J., Blanchard, and Taylor, JJ.

Marilyn Sloniker has filed notices of appeal in the above cases. Each of the notices seeks to appeal from a July 2024 judgment of foreclosure. We now dismiss the appeals as untimely.

A timely notice of appeal is necessary for this court to have jurisdiction. WIS. STAT. RULE 809.10(1)(c). These types of appeals must be filed within ninety days after the judgment or order being appealed. WIS. STAT. § 808.04(1). In each of these cases, the circuit court docket shows that a judgment of foreclosure was entered in July 2024. Foreclosure actions, unlike most other actions, often result in two separate and final appealable orders: a judgment of foreclosure and a subsequent order of confirmation of sale. See Shuput v. Lauer, 109 Wis. 2d 164, 172, 325 N.W.2d 321 (1982); see also Anchor Sav. & Loan Ass'n. v. Coyle, 148 Wis. 2d 94, 101, 435 N.W.2d 727 (1989).

Sloniker filed these notices of appeal on August 28, 2025. That date is well beyond ninety days after the July 2024 judgments. That time cannot be extended. WIS. STAT. RULE 809.82(2)(b). The circuit court dockets do not show that any other appealable judgments or orders were entered during the period of ninety days before filing of the notices of appeal. Therefore, we dismiss these appeals as untimely.

We note that, after the notices of appeal were filed, the circuit court held a hearing on confirmation of sale, and entered orders confirming sales on September 5, 2025. However, Sloniker's notices of appeal are premature as to these orders, because an appeal is limited to circuit court decisions that were made before the notice of appeal was filed. See Chicago & N.W.R.R. v. LIRC, 91 Wis. 2d 462, 473, 283 N.W.2d 603 (Ct. App. 1979), aff'd, 98 Wis. 2d 592, 297 N.W.2d 819 (1980) (appeal from a judgment does not embrace an order entered after that judgment). New notices of appeal would be necessary to appeal the confirmation orders.

If Sloniker disagrees with the facts or legal analysis in this order, she must file any motion for reconsideration within twenty days of the date of this order. WIS. STAT. RULE 809.24(1).

IT IS ORDERED that these appeals are dismissed as untimely.

2025AP1988	Educators Credit Union v. Marilyn M. Sloniker (L.C. # 2023CV1076)

Before Graham, P.J., Blanchard, and Taylor, JJ.

In our order of September 26, 2025, we dismissed these appeals from July 2024 foreclosure judgments as untimely. The appellant now moves to reopen the appeals and vacate the dismissal order. We construe it as a motion for reconsideration.

Most of the motion appears to relate to the merits of the underlying case, which have no relevance to whether this appeal is timely. However, the motion does assert: "The appeal was in a timely manner due to the Sheriff sale on July 30, 2025." As we explained in the September 26 order, the circuit court's confirmation of those sales occurred after the appellant filed these notices of appeal, and our review is limited to decisions made before the notice of appeal. This court cannot review the confirmation of sale orders unless the appellant files new and timely notices of appeal from those confirmation orders.

Because we dismissed these appeals, we did not act on the other motions filed by the appellant. If the appellant files new appeals, she may submit similar motions in the new appeals.

IT IS ORDERED that reconsideration of the September 26, 2025 dismissal order is denied.
