No. 26A713

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

JACOB JULICK,
Applicant,

v.

SCOTT JORDAN, ET. AL.,
Respondents.

RESPONSE TO APPLICATION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO FILE A PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI

To the Honorable Brett M. Kavanaugh, Associate Justice of the United States and Circuit Justice for the Sixth Circuit:

On November 16, 2026 Mr. Julick submitted an application, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2101(c) and Supreme Court Rules 13.5 and 22, requesting a 14-day extension, to and including December 3, 2026, within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari to review the judgment of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. The Sixth Circuit issued an opinion in Case No. 25-5667, Mr. Julick's appeal, on Aug. 21, 2026. Unless extended, Mr. Julick's time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari will expire on November 19, 2026. Respondents oppose Mr. Julick's request for an extension.

1. Mr. Julick has not shown good cause for an extension of time to prepare a petition for a writ of certiorari. Mr. Julick was transferred from Green River Correctional Complex to Southeast State Correctional Complex on July 17, 2026, where he remains incarcerated. From that date to the present, Mr. Julick has been housed in a general population dorm, with the exception of placement in disciplinary segregation from October 19-26, 2026 and November 3-16, 2026. Opposing counsel states that he mailed this Court's form affidavit in support of motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis to Mr. Julick on September 22, 2026. Opposing counsel further states that due to his placement in disciplinary segregation on November 3rd, Mr. Julick does not have access to the form affidavit and cannot return it to counsel in a timely manner.

2. Assuming that the form affidavit was delivered to Mr. Julick on September 29, 2026, that still left 26 days between then and November 3, 2026 in which Mr. Julick was not housed in disciplinary segregation, and during which he could have filled out and mailed the required affidavit to counsel. His delay in doing so, and his late placement in disciplinary segregation, are circumstances entirely within Mr. Julick's control. They do not, therefore, constitute the "extraordinary" circumstances required for the requested extension under Supreme Court Rules 13.5 and 30.2.

3. For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Julick's application for a 14-day extension of time, to and including December 3, 2026, within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari in this case should be denied.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Angela Dunham
