Seattle Public Schools ✦

Home | Academics | Schools | News & Calendars | For Families | For St

Equity and Race Home

Equity Event Calendar

What's Happening

Resources

Learn

Professional Development

About the Department

Acknowledgements

For problems or questions regarding this departmental page, please contact Equity and Race Relations

Equity and Race Relations

White Privilege Conference

For the first time, Seattle Public Schools are sending student the annual White Privilege Conference, sponsored by the Uni Springs, the University of Denver, Teaching Tolerance, Stud\ Matrix, Center for Judaic Studies, GLSEN, and many more or Geneva Gay, Peggy McIntosh, Joy Leary, John-Paul Chaisson actively engaged in anti-racism work.

This year's conference takes place in Colorado Springs from are workshops designed specifically for youth, as well as ses participants. We are very excited about this opportunity for : learn together at an intense 3-day conference. In support of school reform and equity, funding for students to attend the learning communities grant.

From their website:

"The annual White Privilege Conference (WPC) serves as a y explore difficult issues related to white privilege, white supre a forum for critical discussions about diversity, multicultural justice, race/racism, sexual orientation, gender relations, rel privilege/oppression. WPC is recognized as a challenging, err experience. The workshops, keynotes and institutes not only challenge them, while providing practical tips and strategies

"The conference participants and presenters include corporal members, students, educators, activists, musicians and artis beating up on white folks. This conference is about critically live and working to dismantle systems of power, prejudice, f

For participants:

Expectations

Follow-up Activities

Chaperone Contacts: Ilsa Govan, Ray Williams