Business

By Elizabeth Campbell

June 1, 2017, 10:41 AM EDT
Updated on June 1, 2017, 3:23 PM EDT

► No end to budget impasse sends state to brink of junk rating
► State appropriations debt cut to below investment grade had its bond rating downgraded to one step above junk by Moody's Investors Service and S&P Global Ratings, the lowest ranking on record for a U.S. state, as the long-running over the budget shows no signs of ending.