1 PROCEEDINGS 2 (10:03 a.m.) 3 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: We'll hear argument this morning in Case 16-111, 4 Masterpiece Cakeshop versus Colorado Civil 5 6 Rights Commission. 7 Ms. Waggoner. ORAL ARGUMENT OF KRISTEN K. WAGGONER 8 ON BEHALF OF THE PETITIONERS 9 MS. WAGGONER: Mr. Chief Justice, and 10 may it please the Court: 11 12 The First Amendment prohibits the government from forcing people to express 13 14 messages that their violate religious 15 convictions. Yet the Commission requires Mr. Phillips to do just that, ordering him to 16 17 sketch, sculpt, and hand-paint cakes that celebrate a view of marriage in violation of 18 his religious convictions. 19 20 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Can I ask you --JUSTICE GINSBURG: What if -- what if 21 2.2 it's a -- if it's an item off the shelf? That 23 is, they don't commission a cake just for them 24 but they walk into the shop, they see a lovely 25 cake, and they say we'd like to purchase it for

1 the celebration of our marriage tonight. 2 The Colorado law would prohibit that. 3 Would you claim that you are entitled to an exception? 4 MS. WAGGONER: Absolutely not. 5 The 6 compelled speech doctrine is triggered by 7 compelled speech. And in the context of a pre-made cake, that is not compelled speech. 8 9 Mr. Phillips is happy to sell anything in his store, including --10 JUSTICE KENNEDY: Well, didn't --11 12 didn't he express himself when he made it? 13 MS. WAGGONER: Yes, he did express 14 himself when he made it. And the purpose for 15 which he expressed it is important to the compelled speech doctrine and how it applies, 16 17 but when he --JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: I'm sorry, he did 18 refuse to sell --19 JUSTICE KENNEDY: Well, could I -- but 20 could I get the answer to the question? So --21 2.2 so -- so if it -- if you agree that it's 23 speech, then why can he not refuse to sell the cake that's in the window according to Justice 24 25 Ginsburg's hypothetical?

1 MS. WAGGONER: Well, in the context of 2 if it's already been placed in the stream of commerce in a public accommodation setting, his 3 speech has been completed. He -- he intended 4 to speak through that cake with the purpose of 5 whatever it was when he created it. 6 7 In contrast, though, when he has a different purpose, and is expressing a message 8 through a cake, it would render a different 9 result. It's still speech. 10 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: I'm sorry, didn't 11 12 he refuse to sell cupcakes that he sells 13 regularly to the public to some same-sex 14 couples who intended to marry? 15 MS. WAGGONER: That allegation was never involved in the complaint, the formal 16 charges, the ALJ's decision. 17 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: But I thought --18 I'm a little bit surprised by what you're 19 saying because your brief seemed to suggest 20 differently -- that the couple was looking at 21 2.2 his already pre-designed cakes that he appears 23 to sell without any customization, and they sat down with him, and he said I don't supply cakes 24 of any kind to gay couples. 25

1 So I thought this cake was about his 2 refusal to supply a cake for any wedding 3 ceremony.

MS. WAGGONER: Justice Sotomayor, 4 that's not how he responded to the couple. 5 The couple came in and they requested a custom cake 6 7 for their wedding. At that point, they brought in a folder with all kinds of designs they 8 9 wanted to discuss and ended up purchasing a rainbow-layered cake or -- or received a free 10 rainbow-layered cake, which certainly is 11 12 expression.

13 The order below requires Mr. Phillips 14 also to include words and symbols on his cakes. 15 It's that broad. So if, for example, 16 Mr. Phillips had used a Bible verse on a cake 17 in the past, he would be compelled to use that 18 Bible verse in a different context.

JUSTICE GINSBURG: Where does it -where does it say -- I -- I thought that the requirement was he supply a custom-made cake, as he would to any other shopper, but that he didn't have to convey somebody else's message; that is, he didn't have to write anything on the cake.

1 MS. WAGGONER: In Petitioners' Appendix 57(a), the order is provided, and that 2 order requires him to provide anything that he 3 would provide on a cake in another setting for 4 a marriage between a man and a woman, which 5 includes words and images that he would provide 6 7 on --JUSTICE GINSBURG: Well, suppose we 8 9 exclude that and say let's make the assumption that he -- if he makes custom-made cakes for 10 others, he must make it for this pair, but he 11 12 doesn't have to write anything for anybody. He doesn't have to write a message that he 13 14 disagrees with. 15 MS. WAGGONER: Well, this Court has recognized in Hurley as well as in other 16 17 decisions that artistic expression doesn't need to include words and symbols to express a 18 19 message or to be protected speech. JUSTICE KENNEDY: Well, just -- just 20 one more thing, and then we'll leave this part 21 2.2 alone, so at least as far as I'm concerned. 23 Suppose the couple goes in and sees the cake in the window and the cake has a biblical verse. 24

25 Does he have to sell that cake?

1	MS. WAGGONER: Under our theory, he
2	would need to sell that cake because he's
3	already created that cake with the message that
4	he intended for it, but we are drawing the line
5	prior to the compulsion there can be no
6	compulsion of speech.
7	If the Court were to choose to draw
8	that line in a different place and protect more
9	speech, there certainly is precedent for that.
10	But under the compelled speech doctrine, when
11	someone comes in and requests speech, if that
12	speech has already been created, then that
13	would be not be compelled.
14	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Could you tell me
15	how far
16	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: There's no
17	there's no there's no compulsion of speech,
18	but if he is required to sell a cake in the
19	window with the message already on it, that is
20	compelling him to associate that message with
21	the ceremony. And I thought that was something
22	to which you objected.
23	MS. WAGGONER: There would possibly be
24	an expressive association claim and potentially
25	a free exercise claim if he was delivering the

1 cake and there was other involvement. But in terms of the Court's application of the 2 compelled speech doctrine, the compulsion is 3 the trigger for that, but the Court could draw 4 that line at an earlier place and not force him 5 to sell that cake. 6 7 JUSTICE GINSBURG: But your --JUSTICE KAGAN: Ms. --8 9 JUSTICE GINSBURG: -- the question that I started out with, I -- I wanted to 10 clarify that what you're talking about is a 11 12 custom-made cake. You are not challenging his 13 obligation to sell his ordinary wares, his, as 14 you put it, already-made wares? 15 MS. WAGGONER: Not at all. And, in fact, Mr. Phillips offered the couple anything 16 17 in his store, as well as offered to sell additional cakes, custom cakes, that would 18 19 express other messages. JUSTICE GINSBURG: Going --20 21 JUSTICE KAGAN: Ms. Waggoner --2.2 JUSTICE GINSBURG: -- you mentioned --23 you brought up Hurley, but in Hurley, the 24 parade was the event. It was the speech, a parade. At a wedding ceremony, I take it, the 25

1 speech is of the people who are marrying and 2 perhaps the officiant, but who -- who else 3 speaks at a wedding? MS. WAGGONER: The artist speaks, 4 Justice Ginsburg. It's as much Mr. Phillips's 5 speech as it would be the couples'. And in 6 7 Hurley, the Court found a violation of the compelled speech doctrine. 8 9 JUSTICE GINSBURG: Who else then? Who else as an artist? Say the -- the person who 10 does floral arranging, owns a floral shop. 11 12 Would that person also be speaking at the 13 wedding? 14 MS. WAGGONER: If the -- if they are custom-designed arrangements and they are being 15 forced to create artistic expression which this 16 17 Court determines is a message --18 JUSTICE GINSBURG: How about --JUSTICE KAGAN: So could --19 20 JUSTICE GINSBURG: -- the person who designs the invitation? 21 2.2 MS. WAGGONER: Yes. JUSTICE GINSBURG: The invitation to 23 24 the wedding or the menu for the wedding dinner? 25 MS. WAGGONER: Certainly, words and

12

1 symbols would be protected speech, and the 2 question would be whether the objection is to the message provided or if it's to the person. 3 JUSTICE KAGAN: So the jeweler? 4 MS. WAGGONER: It would depend on the 5 6 context as all free-speech cases depend on. 7 What is the jeweler asked to do? JUSTICE KAGAN: The hairstylist? 8 9 MS. WAGGONER: Absolutely not. There's no expression or protected speech in 10 that kind of context, but what it would --11 12 JUSTICE KAGAN: Why is there no speech 13 in -- in creating a wonderful hairdo? 14 MS. WAGGONER: Well, it may be artistic, it may be creative, but what the 15 Court asks when there's --16 17 JUSTICE KAGAN: The makeup artist? MS. WAGGONER: No. What the Court 18 would ask --19 20 JUSTICE KAGAN: It's called an artist. It's the makeup artist. 21 2.2 (Laughter.) 23 MS. WAGGONER: The makeup artist may, 24 again, be using creativity and artistry, but when this Court is looking at whether speech is 25

13

1 involved, it asks the question of is it 2 communicating something, and is it analogous to other protected --3 JUSTICE KAGAN: But I'm --4 MS. WAGGONER: -- forms of speech. 5 6 JUSTICE KAGAN: -- I'm quite serious, 7 actually, about this, because, you know, a makeup artist, I think, might feel exactly as 8 9 your client does, that they're doing something that's of -- of great aesthetic importance to 10 the -- to the wedding and to -- and that 11 12 there's a lot of skill and artistic vision that 13 goes into making a -- somebody look beautiful. 14 And why -- why wouldn't that person or the 15 hairstylist -- why wouldn't that also count? MS. WAGGONER: Because it's not 16 17 speech. And that's the first trigger point of this case --18 JUSTICE KAGAN: I mean, some people 19 might say that about cakes, you know? 20 21 MS. WAGGONER: Some --2.2 JUSTICE KAGAN: But you have a -- you 23 have a view that a cake can be speech because 24 it -- it involves great skill and artistry. 25 And I guess I'm wondering, if that's

14

1 the case, you know, how do you draw a line? 2 How do you decide, oh, of course, the chef and the baker are on one side, and you said, I 3 think, the florist is on that side, the chef, 4 the baker, the florist, versus the hairstylist 5 6 or the makeup artist? 7 I mean, where would you put a tailor, a tailor who makes a wonderful suit of clothes? 8 Where does that come in? 9 MS. WAGGONER: Your Honor, the tailor 10 is not engaged in speech, nor is the chef 11 12 engaged in speech but, again, this Court --JUSTICE KAGAN: But why well, why --13 14 well -- woah. The baker is engaged in speech, but the chef is not engaged in speech? 15 MS. WAGGONER: The -- the test that 16 17 this Court has used in the past to determine whether speech is engaged in is to ask if it's 18 communicating something, and if whatever is 19 being communicated, the medium used is similar 20 to other mediums that this Court has protected. 21 2.2 Not --23 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Does it depend 24 on --25 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: So that begs the question, when have we ever given protection to a food? The primary purpose of a food of any kind is to be eaten.

Now, some people might love the aesthetic appeal of a special dessert, and look at it for a very long time, but in the end its only purpose is to be eaten.

And the same with many of the things 8 that you've mentioned. A hairdo is to show off 9 10 the person, not the artist. When people at a wedding look at a wedding cake and they see 11 12 words, as one of the amici here, the pastry 13 chef said, there was a gentleman who had upset his wife and written some words that said "I'm 14 15 sorry for what I did, " something comparable, and the chef was asked -- the cake maker was 16 17 asked, was that affiliated with you?

18 And she said no. It's affiliated with 19 the person who shows the cake at their wedding.
20 It's what they wish to show.

21 So how is this your client's 22 expression, and how can we find something whose 23 predominant purpose is virtually always to be 24 eaten? Call it a medium for expressive 25 expression. Mind you, I can see if they've --

15

1 create a cake and put it in a museum as an 2 example of some work of art, that might be different because the circumstances would show 3 that they want this to be affiliated with 4 themselves. 5 6 But explain how that becomes 7 expressive speech, that medium becomes 8 expressive speech. MS. WAGGONER: Certainly not all cakes 9 would be considered speech, but in the wedding 10 context, Mr. Phillips is painting on a blank 11 12 canvas. He is creating a painting on that 13 canvas that expresses messages, and including 14 words and symbols in those messages. 15 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: You know, the other night I had some people over and one of 16 17 them brought a box of cupcakes and one of the cupcakes was smashed against the box. 18 That was 19 the only cupcake not eaten. 20 Now, I suspect that one of the reasons is the others were so much more attractive 21 2.2 whole. There is creation in serving food, in 23 creating any type of edible product. 24 People -- there are sandwich artists There are people who create beauty in 25 now.

what they make, but we still don't call it
 expressive and entitled to First Amendment protection.

MS. WAGGONER: No, but when we have someone that is sketching and sculpting and hand designing something, that is creating a temporary sculpture that serves as the centerpiece of what they believe to be a religious wedding celebration, that cake expresses a message.

11 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: All right. 12 JUSTICE KAGAN: Is this just a --JUSTICE ALITO: What would you say 13 14 about an architectural design? Is that 15 entitled to -- not entitled to First Amendment protection because one might say that the 16 17 primary purpose of the design of a building is to create a place where people can live or 18 19 work?

20 MS. WAGGONER: Precisely. In the 21 context of an architect, generally that would 22 not be protected because buildings are 23 functionable, not communicative. 24 JUSTICE ALITO: You mean an 25 architectural design is not protected?

1 MS. WAGGONER: No. Architect --2 generally speaking, architecture would not be 3 protected. It would --JUSTICE BREYER: So, in other words, 4 Mies or Michelangelo or someone is not 5 6 protected when he creates the Laurentian steps, 7 but this cake baker is protected when he creates the cake without any message on it for 8 9 a wedding? Now, that -- that really does baffle me, I have to say. 10 MS. WAGGONER: Well, I did say 11 12 generally no in terms of architecture. 13 JUSTICE BREYER: All right, then, what 14 is the line? That's what everybody's trying to get at, because obviously we've all gone -- I 15 went to a Mexican restaurant. They have this 16 17 fabulous Mole specially made for the people at the table to show what important and wonderful 18 evening it was, which it did import -- impart. 19 There are all kinds of restaurants 20 that do that. And maybe Ollie's Barbecue, you 21 2.2 know, maybe Ollie thought he had special 23 barbecue. All right. Now, the reason we're 24 asking these questions is because obviously we 25 would want some kind of distinction that will 1 2 not undermine every civil rights law from the 3 -- from -- from the year two -- including the African Americans, including the Hispanic 4 Americans, including everybody who has been 5 discriminated against in very basic things of 6 7 life, food, design of furniture, homes, and buildings. 8 9 Now, that is, I think, the point of the question, and I've tried to narrow it and 10 specify it to get your answer. 11 12 MS. WAGGONER: Thank you, Justice In terms of the test that would be 13 Breyer. 14 applied, the Court would first ask under the 15 speech analysis, is there speech? And by asking that, you're asking is there something 16 17 that's being communicated and is it a protected 18 JUSTICE BREYER: And there isn't one 19 of the people I mentioned who doesn't think 20 he's communicating something. What do you 21 2.2 think they're doing when they're making the 23 Essow or the building? It's not just about 24 MS. WAGGONER: 25 what the individual thinks they're

19

20

1	communicating, though. This Court also
2	routinely makes that inquiry in all kinds of
3	situations in all free-speech cases.
4	Second, though, the Hurley framework
5	provides a framework for this Court to make
6	those decisions and to protect individuals.
7	The way that it does that is it asks: Is the
8	individual who's being compelled to speak
9	objecting to the message that's contained in
10	that speech or the person? And that's usually
11	a very obvious inquiry. If it's connected
12	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Would you stop
13	would that belief that expresses speech trump
14	public accommodation laws against
15	discrimination or protecting customers from
16	race? Yes or no.
17	MS. WAGGONER: This Court has never
18	compelled speech in the context of race, but if
19	it were ever to do so
20	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Oh, it didn't in
21	Newman versus Piggie?
22	MS. WAGGONER: Not in terms of
23	compelling speech.
24	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: There was a he
25	claimed that he was religious, that he opposed

21

1	serving blacks because it mixed the races, and
2	we basically refused both his free expression
3	and his free exercise clauses. So are you
4	saying that your rule now would trump
5	protection against race discrimination?
6	MS. WAGGONER: Respectfully, Your
7	Honor, I don't think this Court has ever
8	compelled speech in the context of
9	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: I'll read Newman
10	myself.
11	JUSTICE KAGAN: But, I'm sorry, could
12	I just
13	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Answer my
14	question.
15	JUSTICE KAGAN: understand your
16	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: It's your theory
17	is your theory that you that you
18	public accommodation laws cannot trump free
19	speech or free-exercise claims in protecting
20	against race discrimination?
21	MS. WAGGONER: That is not my theory.
22	That would be an objection to the person and
23	the Court may find a compelling interest in
24	that
25	JUSTICE KAGAN: But if I could just,

22

1 sorry, very quickly, I know your light is on 2 and I'm sure you'll be given a little bit of an 3 adjustment. Is that okay? (Laughter.) 4 JUSTICE KAGAN: I guess I just didn't 5 understand your answers to Justice Sotomayor's 6 7 question. Same case or not the same case, if your client instead objected to an interracial 8 9 marriage? MS. WAGGONER: Very different case in 10 11 that context. 12 JUSTICE KAGAN: Not the same. How 13 about if he objected to an interreligious? 14 MS. WAGGONER: Similar case, assuming that the objection is to --15 16 JUSTICE KAGAN: Similar to what? 17 MS. WAGGONER: Similar to Mr. Phillips. That would be protected under the 18 Compelled Speech doctrine if the objection is 19 20 to the message being conveyed in that expression. 21 2.2 JUSTICE KAGAN: You're just saying race is different? 23 24 MS. WAGGONER: I'm saying yes --25 JUSTICE KAGAN: I mean, I don't want

23

1	to put words in your mouth. I I just
2	really, you know, just want to know the answer.
3	MS. WAGGONER: I think race is
4	different for two reasons: one, we know that
5	that objection would be based to who the person
6	is, rather than what the message is.
7	And, second, even if that were not the
8	case, the Court could find a compelling
9	interest in the race inquiry just as it did in
10	the Pena-Rodriguez case. There are no
11	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: So how about
12	disability; I'm not going to serve cakes to two
13	disabled people because God makes perfect
14	creations, and there are some religions who
15	believe that?
16	MS. WAGGONER: Well, I'm
17	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: So how about
18	there?
19	MS. WAGGONER: I'm not aware of any
20	religions that believe that, but, if they did,
21	that would clearly be based on who the person
22	is and not the message in the final product
23	that's they're being asked to create.
24	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Well, your client
25	was saying that providing a cake to a same-sex

24

1 couple was against his free-expression rights 2 because -- and his free-exercise rights, because he cannot celebrate that kind of 3 marriage. 4 MS. WAGGONER: Mr. Phillips is looking 5 at not the "who" but the "what" in these 6 7 instances, what the message is. And for 25 years, he --8 9 JUSTICE GORSUCH: Well, actually, 10 counsel, that seems to be a point of contention. The state seems to concede that if 11 12 it were the message, your -- your client would have a right to refuse. But if it -- the 13 14 objection is to the person, that's when the 15 discrimination law kicks in. That's Footnote 8 of the Colorado Court of Appeals' decision. 16 Ι 17 know you know this. So what do you say to that, that 18 19 actually what is happening here may superficially look like it's about the message, 20 but it's really about the person's identity? 21 2.2 MS. WAGGONER: I would say that in 23 Footnote 8, the court applies an offensiveness 24 policy, which allows the state the discretion to decide what speech is offensive and what is 25

25

1 not, and it did not apply that in a fair way to 2 Mr. Phillips, which creates viewpoint discrimination, as well as a violation of free 3 exercise -- the Free Exercise Clause. 4 But what's deeply concerning is that 5 6 is not the theory that Respondents are 7 submitting to this Court today. They believe that they can compel speech, of filmmakers, oil 8 9 painters, and graphic designers in all kinds of 10 contexts. If there are no further questions, I 11 12 would reserver -- like to reserve the balance 13 of my time. 14 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: We'll afford you the full rebuttal time. 15 MS. WAGGONER: Thank you. 16 17 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Sure. General Francisco. 18 ORAL ARGUMENT OF GEN. NOEL J. FRANCISCO 19 ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED STATES, AS AMICUS CURIAE, 20 SUPPORTING THE PETITIONERS 21 2.2 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Mr. Chief Justice, 23 and may it -- may it please the Court: 24 This case raises an important issue for a small group of individuals, namely, 25 whether the state may compel business owners, including professional artists, to engage in speech in connection with an expressive event like a marriage celebration to which they're deeply opposed.

In those narrow circumstances, we believe the Free Speech Clause provides breathing space --

9 JUSTICE GINSBURG: How narrow is it? 10 Consider Justice Kagan's question. I mean, we've gotten the answer that the florist is in 11 12 the same place as the cake-maker, so is the person who designs the invitations and the 13 14 menus. I don't see a line that can be drawn 15 that would exclude the -- the makeup artist or the hairstylist. 16

17 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, Your Honor, that's, of course, a question that the course 18 has -- Court has to answer at the threshold of 19 every Free Speech Case. Is the thing that's 20 being regulated something we call protected 21 2.2 speech? I think the problem for my friends on 23 the other side is that they think the question doesn't even matter. So they would compel an 24 African-American sculptor to sculpt a cross for 25

1 a Klan service --2 JUSTICE KENNEDY: But the problem for you is that so many of these examples -- and a 3 photographer can be included -- do involve 4 speech. It means that there's basically an 5 6 ability to boycott gay marriages. 7 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, Your Honor, I think that what it boils down to is that in a 8 9 narrow category of services that do cross the 10 threshold into protected speech -- and I do think it's a relatively narrow category -- you 11 12 do have protection. For example, I don't think you could force the African-American sculptor 13 14 to sculpt a cross for the Klan service just 15 because he'd do it for religious services. 16 JUSTICE KAGAN: Mr. --17 JUSTICE KENNEDY: If you prevail, could the baker put a sign in his window, we do 18 not bake cakes for gay weddings? 19 20 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Your Honor, I think that he could say he does not make 21 2.2 custom-made wedding cakes for gay weddings, but 23 most cakes --24 JUSTICE KENNEDY: And you would not --25 GENERAL FRANCISCO: -- would not cross

28

1 that threshold. 2 JUSTICE KENNEDY: -- consider that an affront to the gay community? 3 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, Your Honor, 4 I -- I agree that there are dignity interests 5 at stake here, and I would not minimize the 6 7 dignity interests to Mr. Craig and Mr. Mullins one bit, but there are dignity interests on the 8 other side here too. 9 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Counsel, sometimes 10 it's not just dignity. A couple of the 11 12 briefs -- one of the amici briefs pointed out 13 that most military bases are in isolated areas 14 far from cities and that they're in areas where the general population, service population, is 15 of one religion or close to one religious 16 17 belief. GENERAL FRANCISCO: Uh-huh. 18 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: So where there 19 might be two cake bakers. They name a couple 20 of military bases like that. Or two florists 21 2.2 or one photographer. Very small number of 23 resources. 24 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Right. 25 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: And in those

29

1	situations, they posit, and I don't think
2	probably wrongly, that it may come to pass
3	where the two cake bakers will claim the same
4	abstention here. So how do we protect the
5	military men and women who are of the same sex
6	who want to get married in that town because
7	that's where all their friends are, because the
8	base is there?
9	GENERAL FRANCISCO: Right.
10	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: All right? How do
11	we protect those people?
12	GENERAL FRANCISCO: And, Your Honor, I
13	think that is precisely a situation where the
14	state would be able to satisfy heightened
15	scrutiny because their interests in providing
16	access to goods and services would be narrowly
17	tailored.
18	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: So but isn't
19	that isn't that the same for everybody?
20	Meaning, look, we live in a society with
21	competing beliefs, and all of our cases have
22	always said where LGBT people have been you
23	know, they've been humiliated, disrespected,
24	treated uncivilly. The briefs are filled with
25	situations that

30

1 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Right. 2 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: -- the gay couple who was left on the side of the highway on a 3 rainy night, people who have been denied 4 medical treatment or whose children have been 5 denied medical treatment because the doctor 6 7 didn't believe in same-sex parenthood, et 8 cetera. 9 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Mm-hmm. JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: We've always said 10 in our public accommodations law we can't 11 12 change your private beliefs, we can't compel 13 you to like these people, we can't compel you 14 to bring them into your home, but if you want to be a part of our community, of our civic 15 community, there's certain behavior, conduct --16 17 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Right. JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: -- you can't 18 engage in. And that includes not selling 19 products that you sell to everyone else to 20 people simply because of their either race, 21 2.2 religion, national origin, gender, and in this case sexual orientation. 23 So we can't legislate civility and 24 rudeness, but we can and have permitted it as a 25

31

1	compelling state interest legislating behavior.
2	GENERAL FRANCISCO: And
3	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: So why is not
4	selling or selling to one group as opposed to
5	another not behavior?
6	GENERAL FRANCISCO: And, Your Honor,
7	if I could respond, I think it's because here
8	we have speech involved, and this case is
9	essentially the flip side of the Hurley case.
10	In Hurley, we couldn't force a parade
11	to include a particular speaker. Here, we
12	don't think you can
13	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: That was a private
14	parade.
15	GENERAL FRANCISCO: And here, Your
16	Honor, we don't think you can force a speaker
17	to join the parade, because when you force a
18	speaker to both engage in speech and contribute
19	that speech to an expressive event that they
20	disagree with, you fundamentally transform the
21	nature of their message from one that they want
22	to say to one that they don't want to say.
23	JUSTICE GINSBURG: How about if it's
24
25	JUSTICE KAGAN: So, General, you

32

1 started by --JUSTICE GINSBURG: -- if it's a -- if 2 it's a question of race? There's a certain 3 irony in here because one of the things that 4 anti-discrimination in public accommodations is 5 supposed to do is to protect religion, minority 6 7 religions. GENERAL FRANCISCO: Uh-huh. 8 9 JUSTICE GINSBURG: So you -- you have already said that you put -- might put race in 10 a different category, right? 11 12 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor. JUSTICE GINSBURG: How about gender? 13 14 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, Your Honor, I think that race is particularly unique 15 because when it comes to racial 16 17 discrimination states have --JUSTICE GINSBURG: Well, I asked you 18 what about --19 20 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Sure. I think --I think --21 2.2 JUSTICE GINSBURG: I have your answer 23 on race. How about gender? How about national 24 origin --25 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Right.

33

1 JUSTICE GINSBURG: -- and religion? 2 GENERAL FRANCISCO: I think pretty much everything but race would fall in the same 3 category, but as this Court made clear in the 4 Bob Jones case, the IRS could withdraw 5 6 tax-exempt status from a school that 7 discriminated on the basis of interracial marriage, but I'm not at all sure that it would 8 reach the same result if it were dealing with a 9 Catholic school that limited married student 10 housing to opposite-sex couples only. 11 12 I think when you get to this case, if you agree with our test -- and I know that I 13 14 have a little bit of an uphill battle in 15 convincing some of you of that. If you agree with our test, I think the heightened scrutiny 16 17 standard is particularly easy because they're the same interests at stake as were at stake in 18 19 Hurley. And if I could --20 JUSTICE KAGAN: General, it -- it 21 2.2 seems as though there are kind of three axes on 23 which people are asking you what's the line? How do we draw the line? So one axis is what 24

Heritage Reporting Corporation

we started with, like what about the chef and

34

1 the florist --2 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Speech, non-speech. 3 JUSTICE KAGAN: -- and -- and, you 4 know, everybody else that participates --5 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Uh-huh. 6 7 JUSTICE KAGAN: -- in a wedding? A second axis is, well, why is this 8 9 only about gay people? Why isn't it about race? Why isn't it about gender? Why isn't it 10 about people of different religions? So that's 11 12 a second axis. GENERAL FRANCISCO: Uh-huh. 13 JUSTICE KAGAN: And there's a third 14 axis, which is why is it just about weddings? 15 You say ceremonies, events. What else counts? 16 17 Is it the funeral? Is it the Bar Mitzvah or the communion? Is it the anniversary 18 celebration? Is it the birthday celebration? 19 So there are all three of these that 20 suggest like, whoa, this doesn't seem like such 21 22 a small thing. And so let me just give you one 23 hypothetical and then you can answer more 24 broadly.

25 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Thank you.

               JUSTICE KAGAN: Which, you know -- so let me -- I'll just pick one of those. It's like how about a -- a -- a -- a couple, a same-sex couple goes to a great restaurant with
      a great chef for an anniversary celebration,
      and the great chef says I don't do this for same-sex couples? How about that?
               GENERAL FRANCISCO: So, Your Honor, if
      I could answer that question starting out with another example that illustrates the point in 10 applying it to your example --
11
12
               JUSTICE KAGAN: Well, I'd like my 13
      example, please.
14
               (Laughter.)
15
               GENERAL FRANCISCO: Sure. So, in your example, I would first say, one, there's no
16
17
      speech involved and, two, there's --
               JUSTICE KAGAN: No, there is.
18
19
               GENERAL FRANCISCO: -- probably no
      expressive event.
20
               JUSTICE KAGAN: The chef is expressing 21 something about how he feels --
2.2
23
               GENERAL FRANCISCO: Right.
               JUSTICE KAGAN: -- about same-sex
24
      couples and same-sex marriage. He doesn't want 25

36

1	to celebrate a same the anniversary of a
2	same-sex marriage.
3	GENERAL FRANCISCO: And that's where
5	JUSTICE KAGAN: Just like
6	GENERAL FRANCISCO: Sure.
7	JUSTICE KAGAN: the baker doesn't
8	want to celebrate a same-sex marriage.
9	GENERAL FRANCISCO: And that's where
10	I'd go to something that I think that my
11	friends on the other side have to deal with, is
12	often is the case in First Amendment law you're
13	dealing with something that some everybody
14	clearly agrees is speech. And what makes this
15	case difficult is because we're kind of on that
16	line. Is it speech or is it not speech?
17	We think it's on the speech side of
18	the line. But take, for example, the sculptor
19	who does not want to sculpt that cross.
20	JUSTICE KAGAN: Well, I Mr
21	General, really, I mean, could could we just
22	I I guess I'd like an answer to my
23	hypothetical.
24	GENERAL FRANCISCO: Sure. So the
25	answer to your hypothetical is, as this Court

1 has repeatedly said, not everything that 2 expresses a message is speech. I think when it 3 comes to --JUSTICE KAGAN: So the baker is 4 speech, but the -- the great chef who's like 5 6 everything is perfect on the plate and it's a 7 work of art, it's a masterpiece? GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, Your Honor, 8 9 you have to confront that issue in every First Amendment case, if you're --10 JUSTICE ALITO: You know, General, my 11 12 -- my colleagues I think go to more elite restaurants than I do, but my --13 14 (Laughter.) 15 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Same here, Your 16 Honor. 17 JUSTICE ALITO: I -- I -- I think that 18 if --JUSTICE KAGAN: Well, Ollie's 19 20 Barbecue. JUSTICE ALITO: If -- if in my -- if 21 22 in my dreams I could go to a Michelin, I don't 23 know, one-tenth star, I don't know, two-star 24 restaurant, and there was a menu of wonderful dishes created by the chef with -- with great 25

1 creativity, and I said I really don't want any 2 of these. Here is the recipe. I -- I want you to make this for me. Do you think he'd do 3 that? 4 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Probably not, Your 5 Honor, but I think the critical question always 6 7 _ _ JUSTICE ALITO: He's serving up -- he 8 9 creates something when he makes -- when he devises those dishes and when somebody comes in 10 and asks to buy one, he is just mechanically 11 12 producing another example of the thing that he created earlier. 13 14 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Yes. Justice --Mr. Chief Justice, may I answer? 15 16 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Why don't --17 why don't you take an extra five minutes and I'll accord the same to your friends. 18 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, thank you. 19 And so what happens, though, in every 20 free-speech case you've got to make that 21 2.2 initial cut. Does it cross the line into 23 protected speech? And if it does, and I understand --24 25 JUSTICE KAGAN: Okay. How about the

1 same cake, if you don't -- if you want to, as I 2 understand it, you want to treat the chef differently from the baker, but let's say the 3 same cake, and a couple comes in, a same-sex 4 couple, and says it's our first-year 5 6 anniversary, and we would like a special cake 7 for it. Can he then say no -- no? No cake? 8 9 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, Your Honor, if it's the exact same cake and it crosses that 10 threshold into speech, I would say --11 12 JUSTICE KAGAN: It's a great cake. GENERAL FRANCISCO: Yeah, he can --13 14 JUSTICE KAGAN: What do you mean is it the exact same cake? 15 GENERAL FRANCISCO: No, what I'm 16 17 saying is if it's the same type of highly-sculpted stylized cake that Mr. Phillips 18 makes, such that in our view it crosses the 19 20 line into speech, then you can't force him to create that any more than you can force the 21 2.2 sculptor --JUSTICE GORSUCH: So, General, what --23 what is the line? How -- how would you have 24 25 this Court draw the line?

1 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Sure. There are a 2 couple ways to --3 JUSTICE GORSUCH: You've been asked a lot of specifics --4 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Yeah. 5 JUSTICE GORSUCH: -- but I'd -- I'd 6 7 appreciate a more abstract general rule that 8 the government suggests. 9 GENERAL FRANCISCO: I think there are a couple of ways to draw that line, and this is 10 something that the Court has to struggle with 11 12 in a lot of cases. I think the first way to draw that line is you analogize it to something 13 that everyone regards as traditional art and 14 15 everyone agrees is protected speech. 16 JUSTICE GORSUCH: Like the Jackson 17 Pollock? GENERAL FRANCISCO: Exactly. And here 18 you have a cake that is essentially synonymous 19 with a traditional sculpture except for the 20 medium used. But I also think that the Second 21 2.2 Circuit's decision in the Mastrovincenzo case 23 provides a good and workable standard when 24 you've got something that is part art and part utilitarian. 25

1	And what the Second Circuit asks is,
2	is it predominantly art or predominantly
3	utilitarian? And here people pay very high
4	prices for these highly sculpted cakes, not
5	because they taste good, but because of their
6	artistic qualities.
7	I think the more important point
8	JUSTICE GORSUCH: In fact, I have yet
9	to have a a wedding cake that I would say
10	tastes great.
11	(Laughter.)
12	GENERAL FRANCISCO: And, Your Honor,
13	my wedding cake, the top of it is still sitting
14	in our freezer, and I'm sure it no longer
15	tastes great.
16	JUSTICE GORSUCH: Yeah.
17	GENERAL FRANCISCO: But I think the
18	point is when you cross that threshold into
19	free speech, the question is can you compel
20	somebody to create and contribute speech to an
21	expressive event
22	JUSTICE GORSUCH: Is it a predominant
23	purpose test
24	GENERAL FRANCISCO: that they
25	oppose.

42

1	JUSTICE KAGAN: How about this
2	JUSTICE GORSUCH: or is it would
3	you say it's a predominant purpose or a
4	predominant effect? How would you characterize
5	that?
6	GENERAL FRANCISCO: So if you're
7	talking about the line between speech and
8	non-speech
9	JUSTICE GORSUCH: Yes.
10	GENERAL FRANCISCO: with the item
11	that's part utilitarian and part art
12	JUSTICE GORSUCH: Yes, yes.
13	GENERAL FRANCISCO: I'd say is it
14	predominantly expressive or predominantly
15	utilitarian?
16	JUSTICE GORSUCH: In its purpose or
17	its effect on others?
18	GENERAL FRANCISCO: I think I think
19	both. And I think one of the key factors that
20	the Second Circuit looks to, it looks to a
21	bunch of different factors, but one factor is
22	price. Are people paying for the utilitarian
23	side of it or are they paying for the artistic
24	side of it?

25 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: I'm not going to

1
               JUSTICE KAGAN: What if somebody comes in, it's a baker who's an atheist and really
      can't stand any religion, and somebody comes in
      and says I want one of your very, very special, 5
      special cakes for a First Communion --
               GENERAL FRANCISCO: Uh-huh.
               JUSTICE KAGAN: -- or for a Bar
 8
      Mitzvah. And the baker says no, I don't -- I don't -- I don't do that. I don't want my 10
 9
      cakes to be used --
11
12
               GENERAL FRANCISCO: Right.
               JUSTICE KAGAN: -- in the context of a 13
14 religious ceremony.
15
               GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, and, again,
      I think if you apply these tests, you first 16
17 have to decide whether -- 18
               JUSTICE KAGAN: I just want the 19 answer.
               GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, what I'm 20
      saying is that when you apply these tests
21
22
      you've first got to decide if the cake rises to 23
      the level of speech. If so, then, yeah.
24
               JUSTICE KAGAN: It's a special, 25
      special cake.

1	GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, you know, if
2	so, and it rises to the level of speech, then I
3	think he has a claim just like that same baker
4	could refuse to sculpt that cake
5	JUSTICE BREYER: Would I could I
6	ask you your answer to what I think is the same
7	question going on in different forums.
8	Forget the doctrine for a minute.
9	GENERAL FRANCISCO: Uh-huh.
10	JUSTICE BREYER: There's a category of
11	people called artisans. An artisan is a kind
12	of artist. They're in many fields. They're
13	also people who are discriminated against. And
14	we're in a country of minorities, there are
15	many different groups that have been
16	discriminated against.
17	For many years Congress has passed
18	laws saying, at least to the artisans: You
19	cannot discriminate on the basis of of race,
20	religion, dah, dah, dah. Sexual orientation.
21	If we were to write an opinion for
22	you, what would we have done to that principle?
23	And, of course, the concern is that we would
24	have caused chaos with that principle across
25	the board because there is no way of confining

45

1 an opinion on your side in a way that doesn't 2 do that. So tell me how. GENERAL FRANCISCO: Well, Your Honor, 3 I think that the way you do it is because none 4 of these Courts' cases has ever involved 5 requiring somebody to create speech and 6 7 contribute that speech to an expressive event to which they are deeply opposed. 8 9 And if I could go back to my example, when you force that African-American sculptor 10 to sculpt that cross for a Klan service, you're 11 12 transforming his message. 13 He may want his cross to send the 14 message of peace and harmony. By forcing him to combine it with that expressive event, you 15 force him to send a message of hate and 16 17 division. JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: I -- I -- I was a 18 little confused --19 JUSTICE KENNEDY: What would the 20 government -- what would the government's 21 2.2 position be if you prevail in this case, the 23 baker prevails in this case, and then bakers 24 all over the country received urgent requests: Please do not bake cakes for gay weddings. And 25

46

1 more and more bakers began to comply. 2 Would the government feel vindicated in its position that it now submits to us? 3 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Your Honor, I 4 think in that case, the case for strict 5 scrutiny would be much stronger, because you'd 6 7 be able to show that your -- that the application of the law is narrowly tailored to 8 9 the government's interests in ensuring access. Here, of course, you have these 10 products that are widely available from many 11 12 different sources. And I would submit, just to finish up, that if you were to disagree with 13 14 our basic principle, putting aside the line 15 about whether a cake falls on speech or non-speech side of the line, you really are 16 envisioning a situation in which you could 17 force, for example, a gay opera singer to 18 perform at the Westboro Baptist Church just 19 because that opera singer would be willing to 20 perform at the National Cathedral. 21 2.2 And the problem is when you force 23 somebody not only to speak but to contribute 24 that speech to an expressive event to which they are deeply opposed, you force them to use 25

47

1 their speech to send a message that they 2 fundamentally disagree with. And that is at the core of what the 3 First Amendment protects our citizenry against. 4 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Thank you, 5 6 General. 7 GENERAL FRANCISCO: Thank you, Mr. Chief Justice. 8 9 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Mr. Yarger. ORAL ARGUMENT OF FREDERICK R. YARGER 10 ON BEHALF OF THE STATE RESPONDENT 11 12 MR. YARGER: Thank you, Mr. Chief Justice, and may it please -- please the Court: 13 14 A decade ago Colorado extended to LGBT people the same protections used to fight 15 discrimination against race, sex and a person's 16 17 faith. Masterpiece Cakeshop is a retail bakery that is open to the public and subject to the 18 Colorado Anti-Discrimination Act. 19 20 Yet, Petitioners claim that they can refuse to sell a product, a wedding cake of any 21 22 kind in any design to any same-sex couple. 23 JUSTICE KENNEDY: I -- I don't want to 24 25 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Counsel, take

48

1 an organization --2 JUSTICE KENNEDY: Go ahead. CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: -- I think 3 there are many different faiths, but Catholic 4 Legal Services, they provide pro bono legal 5 6 representation to people who are too poor to 7 afford it and they provide it to people of all -- all different faiths. 8 9 So let's say someone just like Respondents here, except needing the pro bono 10 assistance, goes into Catholic Legal Services 11 12 and say, we want you to take this case against 13 Masterpiece Cakeshop. And the people at the --14 the lawyers say: Well -- we -- we -- we're not going to, because we -- we don't support 15 same-sex marriage. 16 17 Are they in violation of the Colorado law? 18 MR. YARGER: No, Chief Justice -- Mr. 19 Chief Justice, they are not. Refusing to offer 20 a particular service in that case when they 21 2.2 wouldn't provide it to any other customer --23 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: No, no, they would provide it, if a -- if a heterosexual 24 couple comes in and says we need particular 25

49

1 services in connection with our marriage, they 2 would provide it. It's only because, and they say this, 3 it's only because it's a same-sex marriage that 4 we're not going to provide pro bono legal 5 6 services to you. 7 MR. YARGER: In -- in the sense of a -- services regarding maybe divorce --8 9 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Something in connection --10 MR. YARGER: -- or something --11 12 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: -- something 13 in connection with the marriage. You know, they're having a -- a -- a -- whatever, a 14 15 contract dispute with somebody in connection with their marriage, and the lawyer says we're 16 not going to provide services in connection 17 with same-sex marriage because we have a 18 religious objection to that. 19 20 MR. YARGER: Mr. Chief Justice, I think there's an initial question that's asked 21 in all of these cases, and it's the way that 2.2 23 states have been resolving these questions for literally 100 years, and that -- the question 24 Is this entity operating in the way of a 25 is:

50

1	retail store in the sense that it is
2	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: No, no.
3	MR. YARGER: inviting
4	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: It's
5	clearly it's clearly covered by Colorado's
6	law. It's not primarily religious. It's
7	primarily legal. It's provided to all faiths.
8	And there's nothing in the law that I can see
9	that says it's limited to for-profit
10	organizations.
11	MR. YARGER: And, Your Honor, again, I
12	I think the question is going to be is is
13	that operating in the sense of a retail store?
14	If it is, then, yes, a state can require a
15	someone offering a service to give the same
16	services regardless of
17	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: So
18	MR. YARGER: the protected
19	characteristics of of the customer. If that 20
21	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: So so
22	Catholic Legal Services would be put to the
23	choice of either not providing any pro bono
24	legal services or providing those services in
25	connection with the same-sex marriage?

1 MR. YARGER: If -- if it is operating 2 in the same way as a retail store, I think the 3 answer --CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Under Colorado 4 5 law, is that --6 MR. YARGER: -- is yes, Your Honor. 7 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: -- are they or are they not? 8 MR. YARGER: I don't -- I can't answer 9 that question, because --10 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: What facts do 11 12 you need besides the ones I've given you? MR. YARGER: I would have to 13 14 understand what the -- the purpose and the 15 history is of that entity choosing customers and how it works. If there's genuine 16 17 selectivity --CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: They have all 18 -- they have taken every other customer to 19 date, except this is the first time someone's 20 come in and wants legal services in connection 21 22 with a same-sex marriage and they say we're not 23 going to do it because, as a religious matter, 24 we're opposed to same-sex marriage. 25 MR. YARGER: And -- and, Your Honor, I

52

1 think -- I think if they were operating like a 2 retail store like that, then -- then Colorado would have the ability to regulate them. 3 JUSTICE KENNEDY: The Chief Justice --4 MR. YARGER: If the answer were 5 otherwise --6 7 JUSTICE KENNEDY: -- the Chief Justice has introduced the question of the Free 8 Exercise Clause in this case. We didn't talk 9 about it earlier. 10 And perhaps you want to get on to 11 12 speech, but in -- in this case, pages 293 and 294 of -- of the Petitioner Appendix, the --13 14 Commissioner Hess says that freedom of religion 15 used to justify discrimination is a despicable piece of rhetoric. 16 17 Did the Commission ever disavow or disapprove of that statement? 18 MR. YARGER: There were no further 19 20 proceedings in which the Commission disavowed or disapproved of that statement. 21 2.2 JUSTICE KENNEDY: Do you disavow or 23 disapprove of that statement? MR. YARGER: I would not have 24 counseled my client to make that statement. 25

53

1	JUSTICE KENNEDY: Do you now disavow
2	or disapprove of that statement?
3	MR. YARGER: I I I do, yes, Your
4	Honor. I think I need to make clear that
5	what that commissioner was referring to was the
6	previous decision of the Commission, which is
7	that no matter how strongly held a belief, it
8	is not an exception to a generally applicable
9	anti-discrimination law.
10	And if if the assertion that what
11	is engaging in is speech is enough to overcome
12	that law, you're going to face a situation
13	where a family portrait artist can say I will
14	photograph any family but not when the
15	father
16	JUSTICE KENNEDY: But but but in 17
18	MR. YARGER: is wearing a yarmulke
19	because I have a sincere
20	JUSTICE KENNEDY: in that in
21	that
22	MR. YARGER: objection to the
23	Jewish faith. That would be discrimination.
24	JUSTICE KENNEDY: Suppose well,
25	suppose we thought that in significant part at least one member of the Commission based the 1 commissioner's decision on -- on -- on the 2 grounds that -- of hostility to religion. Can 3 -- can your -- could your judgment then stand? 4 MR. YARGER: Your Honor, I don't think 5 6 that one statement by the commissioner, 7 assuming it reveals bias --JUSTICE KENNEDY: Well, suppose we --8 9 suppose we thought there was a significant aspect of hostility to a religion in this case. 10 Could your judgment stand? 11 12 MR. YARGER: Your Honor, if -- if -if there was evidence that the entire 13 14 proceeding was begun because of a -- an intent 15 to single out religious people, absolutely, that would be a problem. 16 17 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: How many commissioners are there? 18 19 MR. YARGER: But this was a complaint filed by a couple who was --20 21 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: How many 2.2 commissioners are there? 23 MR. YARGER: Excuse me, Justice 24 Sotomayor. 25 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: I'd like you to

54

55

1	answer Justice Kennedy's question. How many
2	commissioners are there?
3	MR. YARGER: There are seven
4	commissioners, Your Honor.
5	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: All right. If one
6	if there was a belief, not yours stop
7	fighting the belief; accept the hypothetical
8	that this person was improperly biased, what
9	happens then? I think that's what Justice
10	Kennedy is asking you.
11	MR. YARGER: If there is one person
12	that's improperly biased?
13	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: One of the
14	commissioners is improperly biased.
15	MR. YARGER: I think you're going to
16	have to ask whether the complaint filed with
17	the division, which was filed by a customer who
18	was referred to a bakery to receive a product,
19	and the ALJ and the commission in the appeal
20	were all biased in the sense that this was a
21	proceeding meant to single out a religious
22	person for his views.
23	And that is not the fact here.
24	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: We've we've
25	had this case before

56

1 JUSTICE GORSUCH: But you'd agree that 2 would be a problem --CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: -- in the 3 context -- the context of courts, I think it's 4 not just where you have a three-judge panel and 5 it turns out one judge was -- should have been 6 7 disqualified, whether -- for whatever reason, they don't say that, well, the vote, there were 8 9 two still, so it doesn't change the result because it's a deliberative process, and the 10 idea is, well, the one biased judge might have 11 12 influenced the views of the other. MR. YARGER: And, Your Honor, again, I 13 14 don't think that this -- that particular 15 phrase -- I wouldn't advise my client to make that statement, but it was referring back to 16 the previous decision --17 18 JUSTICE GORSUCH: Mr. Yarger, you 19 actually --20 MR. YARGER: -- where the commission fully debated the issue --21 2.2 JUSTICE GORSUCH: -- you actually have 23 a second commissioner who also said that he's -- if someone has an issue with the laws 24 impacting his personal belief system, he has to 25

57

1 look at compromising that belief system 2 presumably as well, right? 3 MR. YARGER: And, yes, Your Honor. That's the same principle that this Court 4 recognized in cases --5 6 JUSTICE GORSUCH: But a second 7 commissioner? MR. YARGER: -- cases like United 8 9 States versus Lee --JUSTICE GORSUCH: -- so we have two --10 two -- two commissioners out of seven who've 11 12 expressed something along these lines. MR. YARGER: I don't agree that what 13 was expressed in the record reveals the kind of 14 15 bias that existed in cases like the Church of 16 _ _ 17 JUSTICE GORSUCH: What if we disagree with --18 MR. YARGER: -- Lukumi Babalu Aye. 19 20 JUSTICE GORSUCH: What if we disagree with you? Then what follows? 21 2.2 MR. YARGER: I think you have to do 23 that analysis and decide whether this 24 proceeding was engineered in a way to single out people with a certain faith and they're 25

1 not. This --2 JUSTICE GINSBURG: You would -- you would --3 JUSTICE BREYER: Well, the reason that 4 I think --5 6 MR. YARGER: -- this law would apply 7 to protect people with religious beliefs. JUSTICE BREYER: All right. I see 8 9 that. The reason I want you to continue this is that many of the civil rights laws, not all 10 public accommodations laws, though -- there are 11 12 exceptions, like, for example, with housing, a person's own room, for example. 13 14 And what people are trying to do with exceptions is take the thing you're worried 15 about, where there are genuine, sincere 16 17 religious views or whatever it is, and minimize the harm it does to the principle of the 18 statute while making some kind of compromise 19 20 for people of sincere beliefs on the other side. 21 2.2 And we find that in -- in a lot of 23 them, but that's primarily a legislative job. 24 And my impression of this is there wasn't much effort here in Colorado to do that. 25

1 JUSTICE GINSBURG: There were -- there 2 were exceptions --3 JUSTICE BREYER: And my problem is can we do that in any way, or is there any way to 4 get to a place that without harming the law, 5 and its object, which is fine, you can have 6 7 narrow kinds of exceptions for sincere, et cetera? Do you see -- do you see what I'm 8 9 driving at? MR. YARGER: I -- I do. 10 JUSTICE BREYER: And I can't think of 11 12 a way to do it. Maybe you can't think of a way to do it, but I thought it's worth asking. 13 14 MR. YARGER: Justice Breyer, I -- I do not agree that this law, which was passed in 15 2008, after literally a decade in the wake of 16 17 Romer, was not an attempt sincerely to hear from all sides about a question of whether to 18 grant the same protections to people who are 19 20 discriminated based on race or faith to people of the GLBT community. 21 2.2 JUSTICE ALITO: I mean, one thing 23 that's --MR. YARGER: And if you look at the --24 25 JUSTICE ALITO: I mean, one thing

60

1 that's disturbing about the record here, in 2 addition to the statement made, the statement that Justice Kennedy read, which was not 3 disavowed at the time by any other member of 4 the Commission, is what appears to be a 5 6 practice of discriminatory treatment based on 7 viewpoint. The -- the Commission had before it 8

9 the example of three complaints filed by an 10 individual whose creed includes the traditional 11 Judeo-Christian opposition to same-sex 12 marriage, and he requested cakes that expressed 13 that point of view, and those -- there were 14 bakers who said no, we won't do that because it 15 is offensive.

And the Commission said: That's okay. 16 17 It's okay for a baker who supports same-sex marriage to refuse to create a cake with a 18 19 message that is opposed to same-sex marriage. 20 But when the tables are turned and you have a baker who opposes same-sex marriage, that baker 21 2.2 may be compelled to create a cake that expresses approval of same-sex marriage. 23 MR. YARGER: Justice Alito --24 25 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Counselor, in that

1 case --2 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Maybe you 3 could answer --JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Could you answer 4 5 _ _ 6 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: -- maybe you 7 could Justice Alito's question. MR. YARGER: Yes, Mr. Chief Justice. 8 The facts of that case are that someone walked 9 into a bakery and wanted a particular cake with 10 particular messages on it that that bakery 11 12 wouldn't have sold to any other customer. Mr. Phillips would not be required to 13 14 sell a cake to a gay couple that he wouldn't 15 sell to his other customers. JUSTICE ALITO: No, but Mr. --16 Mr. Phillips --17 18 MR. YARGER: What he said in this 19 case --JUSTICE ALITO: Mr. Phillips would not 20 -- do you disagree with the fact that he would 21 22 not sell to anybody a wedding cake that 23 expresses approval of same-sex marriage? 24 MR. YARGER: I -- what he may not do as a public accommodation that's -- that's 25

1 offered to the public --2 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Would you answer 3 that question? MR. YARGER: -- yes -- yes, Your 4 Honor -- is decide that he won't sell somebody 5 a product that he would otherwise sell because 6 7 in his view the identity of the customer changes the message. 8 9 JUSTICE ALITO: No, he didn't say the 10 identity. MR. YARGER: That is discrimination 11 12 under our law. JUSTICE ALITO: He said the message. 13 14 He said the message. 15 MR. YARGER: Well, and the message in this case, Your Honor, depended entirely on the 16 17 identity of the customer who was ordering the cake. If he had said I have a deeply --18 19 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: I'm sorry, could you answer the question asked? Let's assume 20 this couple did come in and wanted the rainbow 21 2.2 cake. 23 MR. YARGER: Yes. JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: And this gentleman 24 says one of two things: If you're same-sex, 25

63

1	I'm not going to provide you with a rainbow
2	cake or I don't create rainbow cakes for
3	weddings because I don't believe in same-sex
4	marriage. I'm not going to sell it to you.
5	I'm not going to sell it to a same a
6	heterosexual couple. I just don't want to be
7	affiliated with that concept of rainbowness at
8	a wedding, any kind of wedding.
9	MR. YARGER: And Justice
10	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: So what are the
11	difference in treatment?
12	MR. YARGER: Justice Sotomayor, in
13	that latter case, if that was truly a product
14	he wouldn't sell to any other customer, he
15	would not have to sell it to this customer.
16	But if it's a question of a cake he
17	would sell to any other customer, he cannot say
18	I have a very strong objection to interracial
19	or interfaith marriages and I don't want to
20	send message about those those events, and
21	so I'm not going to sell it to you. That's
22	discrimination. It wouldn't be appropriate
23	under Colorado
24	JUSTICE KENNEDY: Counselor
25	JUSTICE GORSUCH: Mr. Yarger

64

MR. YARGER: -- law, and it would be a 1 2 First Amendment objection. JUSTICE KENNEDY: Counselor, tolerance 3 is essential in a free society. And tolerance 4 is most meaningful when it's mutual. 5 6 It seems to me that the state in its 7 position here has been neither tolerant nor respectful of Mr. Phillips's religious beliefs. 8 9 MR. YARGER: And, Your Honor, I --JUSTICE KENNEDY: And -- because 10 accommodation is, quite possible, we assume 11 12 there were other shops that -- other good 13 bakery shops that were available. 14 MR. YARGER: Your Honor, I don't -- I don't agree that Colorado hasn't taken very 15 seriously the rights of those who wish to 16 17 practice their faith. I urge you to read the legislative history that culminated in 18 literally 10 years of debate about how to deal 19 20 with this question. And what the legislature decided after 21 2.2 hearing from the faith community, after making 23 an exception for places of worship and doing -making other exceptions decided we can't make 24 exceptions here for same-sex people who deserve 25

65

1 the same protections if we wouldn't make those 2 same exceptions for discrimination based on race and sex and -- and religion. 3 JUSTICE GORSUCH: Mr. Yarger, may I 4 5 ask --6 JUSTICE BREYER: I'm asking can you do this? Can you -- can a baker say do this? 7 Could the baker say, you know, there are a lot 8 9 of people I don't want to serve, so I'm going to affiliate with my friend, Smith, who's down 10 the street, and those people I don't want to 11 12 serve, Smith will serve. Is that legal? 13 Would that be legal under Colorado 14 law? That'd be a kind of accommodation, so they get the cake. 15 MR. YARGER: It would be, Your Honor. 16 17 You --JUSTICE BREYER: It would be legal? 18 19 MR. YARGER: -- can't turn -- no, no. 20 JUSTICE BREYER: It would be illegal? MR. YARGER: If -- you cannot turn 21 away from your storefront if you're a retail 22 23 store. JUSTICE BREYER: No, it's a -- it's a 24 joint venture. I have a regular affiliation 25

66

1 with Smith. Smith and I work together. I 2 serve the people he doesn't like, he serves the people I don't like. 3 Does that violate the law? 4 MR. YARGER: I don't -- I -- I would 5 6 say that there's -- there is a possibility that 7 that does not violate the law if there's not some other pretext there to ensure that a 8 disfavored class of customers receives lesser 9 10 service. And that's always a question in a 11 case like this. 12 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Does it make a 13 difference, was -- was same-sex marriage 14 permitted in Colorado at the time of these 15 events? MR. YARGER: It was not, Your Honor. 16 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Does that make 17 a difference? 18 MR. YARGER: I don't think it does, 19 20 Your Honor. CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Could he have 21 said I'm not going to make a cake for, you 22 know, celebrating events that aren't permitted 23 in Colorado? 24 25 MR. YARGER: Well, Mr. Chief Justice

67

-- may I answer? 1 2 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: You have five -- five more minutes. 3 MR. YARGER: Oh. 4 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: If you want. 5 (Laughter.) 6 7 MR. YARGER: I'll have to think about that, Your Honor. But in the mean -- meantime, 8 9 there was nothing illegal about two gay people in 2012 in Colorado expressing their commitment 10 to each other and celebrating that commitment 11 12 with their loved ones. JUSTICE GINSBURG: Would Colorado be 13 14 required to give full faith and credit to the 15 Massachusetts marriage? MR. YARGER: Well, it certainly would 16 17 today, Your Honor. 18 JUSTICE ALITO: But it wouldn't at the time. 19 MR. YARGER: No, it wouldn't. 20 JUSTICE ALITO: It did not at the 21 2.2 time. That is -- this is very odd. We're 23 thinking about this case as it might play out 24 in 2017, soon to be 2018, but this took place 25 in 2012.

1	So, if Craig and Mullins had gone to a
2	state office and said we want a marriage
3	license, they would not have been accommodated.
4	If they said: Well, we want you to
5	recognize our Massachusetts marriage, the state
6	would say: No, we won't accommodate that.
7	Well, we want a civil union. Well, we won't
8	accommodate that either.
9	And yet, when he goes to this bake
10	shop and he says I want a wedding cake, and the
11	baker says, no, I won't do it, in part because
12	same-sex marriage was not allowed in Colorado
13	at the time, he's created a grave wrong. How
14	does that all that fit together?
15	MR. YARGER: Well, Your Honor, again,
16	it it the decision by this bakery was it
17	wouldn't sell any product
18	JUSTICE ALITO: No
19	MR. YARGER: of any kind, not even
20	when the same
21	JUSTICE ALITO: that's not right,
22	Mr. Yarger. It's a disturbing feature of your
23	brief because this case was decided on summary
24	judgment, and, therefore, you have to view the
25	facts in the light most favorable to Mr.

1 Phillips. 2 And the only thing he admitted and what was said in the undisputed -- the list of 3 undisputed facts was he would not create -- he 4 was very careful to use the word "create." Is 5 6 that wrong? 7 MR. YARGER: That's not incorrect, Your Honor. What -- what he has said is that 8 9 all of his wedding cakes are custom-made. And so what he said is that he would have a right 10 to refuse that service to anyone whose identity 11 12 in his view means that the message has changed. And he does not want to sell it to them. 13 14 It would be akin to a --15 JUSTICE ALITO: And we have a history of -- in the questioning by -- of Petitioners' 16 17 counsel, we explored the line between speech and non-speech, but as I understand your 18 position, it would be the same if what was 19 involved here were words. 20 21 Am I wrong? If he would put a 2.2 particular form of words on a wedding cake, on 23 a cake for one customer, he has to put the same 24 form of words, the same exact words, on a wedding cake for any other customer, regardless 25

1 of the context? 2 MR. YARGER: That's -- that's right, just as he would have to sell a happy birthday 3 cake to a member of the Jewish faith or an 4 African-American couple. 5 JUSTICE ALITO: So, if someone came in 6 7 and said: I want a cake for -- to celebrate our wedding anniversary, and I want it to say 8 9 November 9, the best day in history, okay, 10 sells them a cake. Somebody else comes in, wants exactly the same words on the cake, he 11 12 says: Oh, is this your anniversary? He says: 13 No, we're going to have a party to celebrate -celebrate Kristallnacht. He would have to do 14 15 that? MR. YARGER: Your Honor, that wouldn't 16 17 be -- the -- the test is whether --JUSTICE ALITO: It's exactly the same 18 19 words. MR. YARGER: It is, Your Honor. I 20 haven't -- I don't -- that would be a question 21 22 about whether there is a even-handed, genuine 23 policy applied by the baker that doesn't have 24 to do with the identity of the customer. 25 And if it has to do with a message

71

1 that is apart from the identity of the 2 customer, then he can refuse that. Otherwise, you'd have a circumstance in which he would 3 paint a picture of a couple but wouldn't change 4 the skin tone of the -- of the couple that's 5 6 pictured on the cake. That would be 7 discrimination. And there wouldn't be any First Amendment problem with enforcing our law 8 against that. 9

JUSTICE GORSUCH: I -- I have a quick 10 question about the remedy. As I understand it, 11 12 Colorado ordered Mr. Phillips to provide comprehensive training to his staff, and it 13 14 didn't order him to attend a class of the government's own creation or anything like 15 that, but to provide comprehensive staff 16 17 training.

18 Why -- why isn't that compelled speech 19 and possibly in violation of his free-exercise 20 rights? Because presumably he has to tell his 21 staff, including his family members, that his 22 Christian beliefs are discriminatory. 23 MR. YARGER: He -- a training

24 requirement is a common remedy that's used in 25 many civil rights cases. He --

1	JUSTICE GORSUCH: Yeah. But this
2	isn't attending your training.
3	MR. YARGER: He doesn't have to say
4	that his
5	JUSTICE GORSUCH: Mr. Yarger, again, I
6	agree with you, some sort of training by an
7	outside group, but this order was ordering him
8	to provide training and presumably compelling
9	him to speak, therefore, and to speak in ways
10	that maybe offend his religion and certainly
11	compel him to speak.
12	And given that, plus the
13	discriminatory language in the in the
14	Commission's discussion, I just that
15	concerns me, and I just wonder what you have to
16	say about it.
17	MR. YARGER: I understand, Your Honor,
18	if all that's required in these training
19	sessions is an understanding and a demonstrated
20	understanding of the Colorado
21	Anti-Discrimination Act.
22	It has nothing to do with a particular
23	person's belief. It has to do with ensuring
24	that the conduct that was found discriminatory,
25	and if that conduct can be regulated consistent

73

1 with the First Amendment, I think that a 2 training requirement like that can be imposed. 3 JUSTICE KENNEDY: Part of that speech is that state law, in this case, supersedes our 4 religious beliefs, and he has to teach that to 5 his family. He has to speak about that to his 6 7 family. MR. YARGER: He has to speak about the 8 fact that --9 JUSTICE KENNEDY: His family who are 10 the employees. 11 12 MR. YARGER: -- in running a public accommodation that's open to all people, he 13 cannot use his faith to discriminate based on 14 15 identity --16 JUSTICE GINSBURG: He doesn't have to 17 MR. YARGER: -- in selling a good he 18 would otherwise sell. 19 20 JUSTICE GINSBURG: The question does he -- he doesn't have to tell his family -- I 21 22 mean, his belief is his belief. 1 pictures of female CEOs if it believed that a 2 woman's place is in the home. And a florist could put a sign up on 3 her storefront saying we don't do gay funerals, 4 if she objected to memorializing gay people. 5 Now, both Petitioner and the United 6 7 States recognize that these results are unacceptable with respect to race. 8 9 And so they suggest that you draw a distinction between race discrimination and 10 sexual orientation discrimination and the 11 state's ability to protect it. But to do that 12 would be to constitutionally relegate gay and 13 14 lesbian people to second class status, even 15 when a state has chosen, as Colorado has done here, to extend them equal treatment. 16 17 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: I'm not sure he provides equal services outside the context 18 of wedding to -- weddings, to gay and lesbian 19 individuals. And the -- the racial analogy 20 obviously is very compelling, but when the 21 2.2 Court upheld same-sex marriage in Obergefell, 23 it went out of its way to talk about the decent 24 and honorable people who may have opposing 25 views.

75

1	And to immediately lump them in the
2	same group as people who are opposed to
3	equality in relations with respect to race, I'm
4	not sure that takes full account of that of
5	that concept in the Obergefell decision.
6	MR. COLE: So so, Chief Justice
7	Roberts, the Court in in Obergefell did,
8	indeed, say that individuals are free to
9	express their disagreement through speech with
10	the notion of same-sex marriage, but it did not
11	say that businesses who make a choice to open
12	themselves to the public can then turn away
13	people because they are gay and lesbian.
14	All the baker needed to know about my
15	clients was that they were gay and lesbian.
16	And, therefore or gay. And, therefore, he
17	wouldn't sell them a wedding cake which he
18	would sell, gladly, to anybody outside
19	JUSTICE BREYER: But is there an
20	answer to that? I was trying to get the answer
21	to that, and I I think that they're
22	proceeding roughly on the line that, well, all
23	that you say is true, but that doesn't mean
24	that under these laws, maybe the African
25	American, et cetera, is separate, but it

1 doesn't mean that the person could be hired to 2 come to the wedding and announce to the general people there, this is the most wonderful thing 3 I've ever been at. 4 Now, that's where they say they have a 5 6 right not to do that. 7 MR. COLE: And no one --JUSTICE BREYER: And then the second 8 9 step of that is to say: And what's going on here is the equivalent of that. 10 11 MR. COLE: Right. 12 JUSTICE BREYER: I took that as -- I may be unfair to them -- but I -- I took that 13 14 as -- as -- as the outlines of the answer to 15 what you're saying. So I'd like to hear what you say in respect, if I'm right, about what 16 17 they say. MR. COLE: Yeah, thank you. No one is 18 suggesting that the baker has to march in the 19 20 parade, as Mr. Francisco said here. What the 21 -- what the Colorado law requires is that you 2.2 sell a product -- when a -- when a mom goes 23 into a bakery and says make me a happy birthday 24 cake for my child, and then she takes that cake home for her four-year-old son's birthday 25

1 party, no one thinks that the baker is wishing 2 happy birthday to the four-year-old. It's the 3 mom. JUSTICE GINSBURG: But would that be 4 true -- would that be true if what the message 5 6 -- the message -- let's say Craig and Mullins 7 said we'd like to have on this wedding cake of ours these words: "God bless the union of 8 9 Craig and Mullins." MR. COLE: So, if he would not put 10 that message on any other cake, then he doesn't 11 12 have to put it on that cake. 13 JUSTICE GINSBURG: He would put --14 MR. COLE: If he --JUSTICE GINSBURG: -- that message on 15 a cake that said: God bless the union of Ruth 16 17 and Marty. MR. COLE: Right. If he would -- if 18 he would say that, then he would have to say 19 God bless the union of Dave and Craig because 20 the only difference between those two cakes, 21 22 Your Honor, is the identity of the customer who 23 is seeking to purchase it. It's the same cake otherwise. 24 So -so, yes, if he -- but, again, in this case --25

1	JUSTICE KAGAN: Do we have to answer
2	that question, Mr. Cole?
3	MR. COLE: No, you don't, no, Justice
4	Kagan, you don't, because in this case, again,
5	the only thing the baker knew about these
6	customers was that they were gay. And, as a
7	result, he refused to sell them any wedding
8	cake.
9	There was no request for a design.
10	There was no request for a message. He refused
11	to sell them any wedding cake. And that's
12	identity-based discrimination. It is not a
13	decision to refuse to put particular words on
14	it.
15	JUSTICE KENNEDY: Suppose that either
16	in this case or some cases you have a very
17	complex case cake, and case and cake
18	(Laughter.)
19	JUSTICE KENNEDY: That that and
20	and and you need a baker, a baker's
21	assistant to be right there at the wedding so
22	you cut it in the right place and the thing
23	doesn't collapse.
24	Does the baker have to attend that
25	wedding and and help cut the cake?

1 MR. COLE: So, I think, again, that --2 JUSTICE KENNEDY: Assume the hypo, 3 that the --MR. COLE: Right, right, that is --4 that is not necessary to decide this case, but 5 I think in -- I think in a future case that 6 7 involved physical participation in a -- in a -in a religious ceremony that an individual 8 9 deeply opposed, that a court -- this Court might draw -- might create new doctrine and 10 draw a new line and say, no, that's not 11 12 governed by Smith. That's not governed by O'Brien. We're going to make an exception. 13 But -- this -- this --14 15 JUSTICE BREYER: How do we do that? Because, you know, we can't have 42,000 cases, 16 17 each kind of vegetable --18 (Laughter.) 19 JUSTICE BREYER: -- that the preparer thinks is something special. 20 So -- so here, is it an answer that 21 satisfies you to say, well, you see, here, of 22 23 course, all custom goods, all custom goods have an element of expression. An artisan is not 24 quite the same as an artist, but an artisan can 25

1 be a great artisan and can produce good things. 2 But where the clash is between an important public policy, the policy of opening the doors 3 to everyone, including minorities, in the 4 public commercial area, well, there the speech 5 element of the artisan is not really sufficient 6 7 to outweigh that. Now, that's pretty 8 straightforward.

9 And I don't know if -- how it fits within the law and the so forth. But -- but if 10 you're looking at the policies here, it seems 11 12 to me the cases do support that. And they do have to leave open the instance where the 13 14 speech goes farther than just preparing a 15 specially-shaped cake, admitted that a specially-shaped cake can suggest approval, et 16 17 cetera.

MR. COLE: So, Justice Breyer -JUSTICE BREYER: And if that's not good, what is?
MR. COLE: So, Justice Breyer, I think

the -- the -- the colloquy with my opponent with respect to whether a cake artist is different from a makeup -- makeup artist, or whether a highly-sculpted cake is different

81

82

1 from an unsculpted cake illustrates that it's 2 just not possible to develop doctrine based on how expressive, how artistic the speech is. 3 And that's --4 JUSTICE BREYER: All right. Fine. 5 6 Then what do we do? 7 MR. COLE: This is what you do, Your Honor. You do what you did in O'Brien, in 8 9 CCMV, in FAIR versus Rumsfeld, and in Turner 10 Broadcasting. And what the -- what the Court has 11 12 done when it's expressive conduct, because 13 that's what we have here at most is expressive 14 conduct, we don't ask is it expressive from the perspective of the baker or is it expressive 15 from the perspective of a -- of a -- of a 16 customer. We ask what's the state's interest 17 in regulating? What is the state doing? 18 And if the state is regulating conduct 19 because of what it expresses, well, now that's 20 strict scrutiny. That's --21 2.2 JUSTICE ALITO: Are the words on the 23 cake expressive conduct or are they not speech? 24 MR. COLE: The -- the conduct, Your Honor, that is regulated by Colorado here is 25

83

1 not the words on the cake. The conduct that --2 that Colorado regulates is the sale by a -- by a business that opens itself to the public, 3 invites everybody in, it's -- it's regulating 4 the conduct of refusing a transaction --5 6 JUSTICE ALITO: But you're --7 MR. COLE: -- to somebody because of who they are. 8 9 JUSTICE ALITO: Yeah, but --MR. COLE: It doesn't matter whether 10 it's speech or whether it's not speech. 11 12 JUSTICE ALITO: What you just said, 13 and -- and -- and I understand Mr. Yarger --14 Yarger's position for Colorado to be the same, is that someone can be compelled to write 15 particular words with which that person 16 17 strongly disagrees. MR. COLE: If he --18 JUSTICE ALITO: That's your -- that is 19 your position, isn't it? 20 MR. COLE: If he has written the same 21 words for others, and the only difference is 2.2 23 the identity of the customer, yes, so, again, a 24 baker could sincerely believe that saying happy birthday to a black family is different from 25 saying happy birthday to a white family, but we would not say that, therefore, it's permissible for a baker to say: birthday cakes for whites only.

5 JUSTICE ALITO: There's a -- there are 6 services, I was somewhat surprised to learn 7 this, but weddings have become so elaborate, 8 that will write custom wedding vows for you and 9 custom wedding speeches.

So somebody comes to one of these 10 services and says: You know, we're not good 11 12 with words, but we want you to write wedding -a vow -- vows for our wedding, and the general 13 14 idea we want to express is that we don't 15 believe in God, we think that's a bunch of nonsense, but we're going to try to live our 16 17 lives to make the world a better place. And the -- the person who's writing this is 18 religious and says: I can't lend my own 19 20 creative efforts to the expression of such a 21 message. 2.2 But you would say, well, it's too bad

22 But you would say, well, it's too bad 23 because you're a public accommodation. Am I 24 right?

25 MR. COLE: What I would say, Your

1 Honor, is that if that case were to arise, it 2 would certainly be open to this Court to treat it differently, but this is not a case in which 3 anyone is being asked to --4 JUSTICE KENNEDY: Differently on what 5 6 -- differently on what principle --7 MR. COLE: I think it would -- it would -- it would have --8 9 JUSTICE KENNEDY: On what -- what principle do we use to treat it differently? 10 11 MR. COLE: I think the principle would 12 have to be some amendment to Smith versus Employment Division to say that even where 13 14 there's a generally applicable law, and even 15 where it's neutrally applied, if it has the effect of compelling somebody to engage in a 16 17 religious ceremony that is against their deep religious commitment, we might treat that 18 differently, but under current law --19 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Is that a 20 modification of --21 2.2 MR. COLE: -- that would not be the 23 result under Smith versus Employment Division. CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Is that -- is 24 25 that a modification of Smith? It sounds like

1 -- it sounds like an overruling of Smith. 2 MR. COLE: Well, I think it would depend on how broadly you wrote it, certainly. 3 But -- but I don't think in this case, where 4 all that's asked for is a product, that you 5 6 have to reach that question. 7 And the other thing I would say, Justice Alito --8 9 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: How do you deal under your hypothetical with hotels associated 10 with weddings? You know, hotels --11 12 MR. COLE: Yeah. 13 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: -- rent out 14 banquet halls, their staff. Would they be entitled to the exception you're imagining? 15 16 MR. COLE: No. 17 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Why? MR. COLE: And I'm not -- let me say 18 -- let me make it clear. I am not advocating 19 20 _ _ 21 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: You're not 22 advocating this? 23 MR. COLE: -- this exception at all. 24 I am just saying that this case does not involve that kind of participation, and so you 25

87

don't need to address it. If at some point a 1 case arises, then you might --2 JUSTICE GORSUCH: Well, let's take --3 let's take a case a little bit more like ours, 4 and -- and it doesn't involve words, but just a 5 It is Red Cross, and the baker serves 6 cake. 7 someone who wants a red cross to celebrate the anniversary of a great humanitarian 8 9 organization. Next person comes in and wants the same red cross to celebrate the KKK. Does 10 the baker have to sell to the second customer? 11 12 And if not, why not? MR. COLE: It's not identity-based 13 discrimination. If -- all -- all that Colorado 14 law and public accommodations law generally 15 requires is that you not discriminate on the 16 17 basis of particular protected classes: sexual orientation, race, disability, religion, and 18 the like. 19 20 And if I can go back to Justice Alito's question --21 JUSTICE GORSUCH: Well, why is that 2.2 23 any different than our case? You say it's not based on identity, but the baker might well say 24 I -- I -- I despise people who adhere to the 25

88

1 creed --2 MR. COLE: Right. JUSTICE GORSUCH: -- of the KKK. 3 That's one way of characterizing it. Another 4 way of characterizing it is saying I disagree 5 6 with the message of the KKK. 7 So too here. One could make the exact analogy, I would think, that you could either 8 characterize it as I -- I don't like people of 9 a certain class or I -- or I have a religious 10 belief against this kind of union. 11 12 So how do I distinguish those cases? 13 I'm not sure it's quite as easy as you suggest. 14 MR. COLE: So I -- I think -- I think, Your Honor, if -- if identity discrimination is 15 involved -- and there's no question that 16 17 identity discrimination is involved here because, again, the only thing the baker knew 18 was the identity of the people who were --19 20 JUSTICE GINSBURG: Mr. Cole, maybe I 21 _ _ 2.2 JUSTICE GORSUCH: That -- that's --23 JUSTICE GINSBURG: -- I misunderstood 24 your answer to Justice Gorsuch. Did you say you could refuse to sell the identical cake 25

89

1 with the red cross? 2 MR. COLE: If -- if he is not doing it on the basis of the identity -- a protected 3 identity. The Ku Klux Klan as an organization 4 is not a protected class. 5 6 So, yes, you don't -- you're -- you're 7 -- the -- the public accommodations law does not say you must treat everybody; it says you 8 9 cannot discriminate on the basis of protected 10 categories. JUSTICE KENNEDY: Well, but this whole 11 12 concept of identity is a slightly -- suppose he 13 says: Look, I have nothing against -- against 14 gay people. He says, but I just don't think 15 they should have a marriage because that's contrary to my beliefs. It's not --16 17 MR. COLE: Yeah. JUSTICE KENNEDY: It's not their 18 identity; it's what they're doing. 19 MR. COLE: Yeah. 20 JUSTICE KENNEDY: I think it's --21 2.2 MR. COLE: Well --23 JUSTICE KENNEDY: -- your identity 24 thing is just too facile. 25 MR. COLE: Well, Justice Kennedy, this

90

1 Court faced that guestion in Bob Jones 2 University. Bob Jones University said we're not discriminating on the basis of race; we 3 allow black people to come into the school. 4 We just refuse to admit those who are engaged in 5 6 interracial marriages or advocate interracial 7 dating. And this Court said that's race discrimination. That's identity-based 8 discrimination, even if you treat others 9 10 similarly. But -- but I think one way to think 11 12 about this case is -- is -- is analogize it to O'Brien, right? In O'Brien, nobody disputed 13 14 that O'Brien's burning of the draft card to protest the Vietnam War was expressive. It was 15 core political expression. 16 17 But what the Court did was it didn't say, well, how expressive is it? Is it 18 artistry; is it not? Is it core; is it not? 19 20 It said: What is the state trying to do here? Because it's expressive conduct. And if the 21 2.2 state's seeking to regulate conduct, then the fact that it has an incidental effect on 23 24 Mr. O'Brien's expression is not a problem as long as the state has a content-neutral reason 25

91

1 for regulating that conduct. 2 JUSTICE BREYER: I take Justice Gorsuch's guestion and substitute for the KKK, 3 a religious group, bizarre perhaps, but a 4 religious group that unfortunately has the same 5 beliefs as the KKK. It doesn't -- then you can 6 7 ask your question --MR. COLE: Yeah. 8 9 JUSTICE BREYER: -- and the answer is they do have to sell it to them, right? 10 MR. COLE: I think if the 11 12 discrimination is based on a -- a protected characteristic, yes, they -- they can't say 13 14 because I object to the message that equal treatment sends, right? Piggie Park objected 15 to the message that equal treatment sent. To 16 17 serve a -- a black person in a segregated -previously segregated restaurant sent a 18 tremendous message, a message that Piggie Park 19 sincerely religiously objected to. And this 20 Court said that that's a frivolous claim in 21 2.2 that context. So I don't -- I just -- I don't think 23 24 you can carve out exceptions to generally applicable rules that regulate conduct in a 25

1 content-neutral way, as this does. And so just 2 as Mr. -- the fact that Mr. O'Brien's conduct, burning the draft card, was expressive did not 3 give him a First Amendment exemption to a 4 content-neutral prohibition on draft card 5 destruction, so the fact that Mr. Phillips 6 7 considers his cake-baking to be expressive doesn't give him a First Amendment exemption to 8 9 a content-neutral regulation of public accommodation sales in the retail context. 10 11 This Court has already said that that 12 interest in prohibiting discrimination on the basis of identity in public accommodations is a 13 14 interest unrelated to the suppression of expression, said that in Roberts versus 15 Jaycees, it serves compelling interests, 16 17 Roberts versus Jaycees, even where race is not involved. 18 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: 19 Is your -- is your answer to my hypothetical about the 20 religious legal services organization the same 21 2.2 as Mr. Yarger's? MR. COLE: I think -- I -- I -- I 23 think if -- if Christian Legal Services --24 Catholic Legal Services, sorry, Your Honor, has 25

1 offered a service to the public generally, 2 let's say it was wills, and -- and a 3 same-sex -- someone who died, the -- the survivor of a same-sex couple --4 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: No, I just --5 6 you're -- you're changing the hypothetical just 7 -- just a little --MR. COLE: Well, I think it's the 8 9 same. CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: -- I -- the 10 services they offered was pro bono legal 11 12 services --13 MR. COLE: Yeah. 14 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: -- to people, 15 whether it's wills or --16 MR. COLE: Yeah. 17 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: -- contracts or landlord/tenant or anything at all. 18 MR. COLE: Right. So I -- I don't 19 20 think they have -- they obviously don't have to argue for a position that they disagree with. 21 22 But what they -- if they provide wills or they 23 provide landlord/tenant to a -- a straight 24 couple, then they have to provide that to a gay 25 couple. And --

94

1	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: So they
2	would if someone had a problem in connection
3	with their marriage, again, whatever it is,
4	contract dispute, something like that, they
5	would have to provide representative services
6	to someone who had a similar problem in
7	connection with a same-sex marriage?
8	MR. COLE: So I'd say two things, Your
9	Honor. First of all, I I think they would,
10	if they provide the same services to couples
11	who are straight.
12	But the Court might say that when what
13	you're regulating is only speech, not
14	expressive conduct because, remember, the
15	the O'Brien test, the CCMV test, the FAIR
16	versus Rumsfeld test
17	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: But this is
18	not only speech; it's providing the legal
19	services.
20	MR. COLE: Well, but the the legal
21	services are speech, Your Honor, I don't know
22	what other than speech I'm engaged in, for
23	example, right now.
24	CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Well, I would
25	say partly expressive conduct. You're engaged in a representation before the Court, which involves a lot more than simply what you're saying in response to the answers.

MR. COLE: Well, you know, if -- if 4 you -- if you treat -- if you treat -- Hurley, 5 I think, illustrates that where the state is 6 7 regulating only expression, no conduct at all, just a banner that's in the parade, the Court 8 takes a different view, but where expressive 9 conduct is involved -- and the reason the Court 10 takes a different view makes sense because, 11 12 again, the -- the analysis this Court uses with respect -- with respect to expressive conduct 13 14 is, is the state regulating the conduct for 15 some reason other than what it expresses or is it regulating what it expresses? 16 17 And -- and when you only have expression, when all that's involved is 18 expression, as was the case with the parade in 19 20 Hurley, that's different because there's no -there's no neutral conduct to be regulated. 21 2.2 But here what we have is the sale of a good, a 23 cake, to a -- to an individual. That's -- that -- to the extent it's expressive, it's 24 certainly also conduct. 25

1	And Colorado's interest in ensuring
2	the bakeries and tailors and and other
3	public accommodations treat all people equally
4	is a content-neutral interest in ensuring that
5	everybody has a right to participate in the
6	economic life of the community
7	JUSTICE ALITO: Along the
8	MR. COLE: and that no one has this
10	JUSTICE ALITO: Along the same lines
11	as the Chief Justice's question, would you say
12	that Colorado can compel a religious college
13	that whose creed opposes same-sex marriage
14	to provide married student housing for a
15	married same-sex couple or allow a same-sex
16	wedding to be performed in the college chapel?
17	MR. COLE: So I think that
18	JUSTICE ALITO: That's not pure
19	those are not pure speech
20	MR. COLE: I think, again, there
21	might, under under something like
22	Hosanna-Tabor, there might be religious-based
23	exceptions for core religious institutions, but
24	a bakery that opens itself to the public is not
25	a church, is not you know, it's

1	JUSTICE ALITO: Well, this is not a
2	church. It's an educational it's a it's
3	an independent educational institution with a
4	religious heritage. And that's what they
5	believe.
6	MR. COLE: So, I think I think
7	JUSTICE ALITO: So your answer is they
8	would be
9	MR. COLE: I
10	JUSTICE ALITO: they would be
11	required to do it?
12	MR. COLE: Well, I think under this
13	Court's doctrine in Employment Division versus
14	Smith, the question would be, is it a generally
15	applicable neutral law? And if it's a
16	generally applicable neutral law, there would
17	not be a free exercise question at all. Right?
18	And so and and the reason for
19	that, as Justice Scalia said in in
20	Employment Division versus Smith, is equally
21	applicable here.
22	Once you open this up, once you say
23	generally applicable regulations of conduct
24	have exceptions when someone raises a religious
25	objection, or in this case have objections

where someone raises a speech objection, you're in a world in which every man is a law unto himself.

And so the only sensible way to approach this is to say if the state is targeting religion, then we're going to be very careful about protecting religion. And if the state is targeting the message, is targeting the content of speech, then we're going to be very careful about protecting.

11 But when the state is regulating 12 conduct neutrally, unrelated to expression, which is what this Court has already said is 13 14 the case with respect to public accommodations, 15 then we can have a world in which everybody who raises an objection -- otherwise we would live 16 in a society in which businesses across this 17 country could put signs up saying we serve 18 whites only, music lessons for Muslims need not 19 20 apply, passport photos not for the disabled. 21 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Thank you. 2.2 Thank you, counsel. 23 MR. COLE: Thank you. 24 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: Ms. Waqqoner, 25 five minutes.

1	REBUTTAL ARGUMENT OF KRISTEN K. WAGGONER
2	ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER
3	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Ms. Waggoner, here
4	the seller of the cakes is not Mr. Phillips,
5	it's Masterpiece Corporation. Does it in
6	your arguments, who controls the expression
7	here, the corporation or its shareholders?
8	I always thought corporations were
9	separate entities. And how do we impute to
10	this corporation, which is just a bakery, it
11	doesn't purport to sell just religious items,
12	it's a public place, how do we and how do we
13	make this decision with respect to the rights
14	of individuals in a corporation that don't have
15	objections?
16	So can the chef at the Hilton and I
17	don't mean to demean the Hilton or anybody
18	else, I'm using it as an example can he say
19	I don't believe in same-sex marriage and I
20	won't create a cake and can he be fired?
21	MS. WAGGONER: Justice Sotomayor, in
22	the context of your question regarding the
23	Hilton, there may be a religious accommodation
24	that is made to that employee; but in the
25	context of Masterpiece Cakeshop, this this 100

1	Court has found that corporations have free
2	speech rights, as well as closely family-held
3	corporations have free exercise rights.
4	And Mr. Phillips is also the speaker.
5	So they're both speaking when they're creating
7	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: But who makes a
8	decision for the corporation? In in most
9	situations it may be easier in a
10	closely-held corporation, it may be the
11	shareholders. I don't know if it's the
12	corporate board or it's the shareholders.
13	Who who decides?
14	MS. WAGGONER: Well, certainly I think
15	it again, if it's dealing with an employee,
16	the employee certainly decides what what
17	they're willing to express, and
18	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: It can't be the
19	employee
20	MS. WAGGONER: and
21	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: speaking for
22	the corporation. The employee can be made an
23	agent of the corporation and speak on its
24	behalf, but the employee can't choose it on
25	behalf of the corporation.

101

1	MS. WAGGONER: Certainly. But if
2	we're talking about what the corporation will
3	speak, then the shareholders in an in a
4	small family-held corporation, the shareholders
5	would decide that. And that's exactly what's
6	at stake in this case.
7	Mr. Phillips owns Masterpiece
8	Cakeshops. He designs most of the wedding
9	cakes himself by him
10	JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: It's him and his
11	wife, right?
12	MS. WAGGONER: Yes, it is.
13	I have three brief points in rebuttal:
14	First of all, the bias of the
15	Commission is also evidenced in the unequal
16	treatment of the cake designers, the three
17	other cake designers who were on the squarely
18	opposite sides of this issue.
19	If if the Court looks at the
20	analysis that was provided by the Colorado
21	Court of Appeals, line by line they take the
22	opposite approach to Mr. Phillips that they do
23	to those who are unwilling to criticize
24	same-sex marriage
25	JUSTICE GINSBURG: And they say they

102

1 wouldn't -- that they would say no to anyone 2 who came with that request? MS. WAGGONER: No. The Colorado Court 3 of Appeals said that they could have an 4 offensiveness policy, and they said that those 5 three cake designers were expressing their own 6 7 message if they had to design that cake. In Mr. Phillips's case, they said it 8 wasn't his message. It's simply compliance 9 with the law. 10 In the other case, they said that the 11 12 cake designers, because they served Christian customers in other contexts, that that was 13 evidence it was a distinction based on the 14 15 message, but in Mr. Phillips's case, they ruled the opposite way. 16 17 Professor Laycock's brief provides a good analysis of that as well. It was filed in 18 this case. 19 20 Second, the Compelled Speech Doctrine and the Free Exercise Clause is anchored in the 21 2.2 concept of dignity and speaker autonomy. And 23 in this case, dignity cuts both ways. The record is clear on that. 24 25 Demeaning Mr. Phillips's honorable and

1 decent religious beliefs about marriage, when 2 he has served everyone and has a history of declining all kinds of cakes unaffiliated with 3 sexual orientation because of the message, he 4 should receive protection here as well. 5 6 This law protects the lesbian graphic 7 designer who doesn't want to design for the Westboro Baptist Church, as much as it protects 8 9 Mr. Phillips. Lastly, political, religious, and 10 moral opinions shift. We know that. And this 11 12 Court's dedication to Compelled Speech Doctrine and to free exercise should not shift. 13 14 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Counsel, the problem is that America's reaction to mixed 15 marriages and to race didn't change on its own. 16 17 It changed because we had public accommodation laws that forced people to do things that many 18 claimed were against their expressive rights 19 20 and against their religious rights. It's not denigrating someone by 21 saying, as I mentioned earlier, to say: If you 2.2 23 choose to participate in our community in a 24 public way, your choice, you can choose to sell

cakes or not. You can choose to sell cupcakes

1 or not, whatever it is you choose to sell, you 2 have to sell it to everyone who knocks on your door, if you open your door to everyone. 3 MS. WAGGONER: Mr. Chief Justice? 4 CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: You can 5 6 respond, if you'd like. 7 MS. WAGGONER: Justice Sotomayor, I think that the gravest offense to the First 8 9 Amendment would be to compel a person who believes that marriage is sacred, to give voice 10 to a different view of marriage and require 11 12 them to celebrate that marriage. The First Amendment --13 14 JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR: Then don't participate in weddings, or create a cake that 15 is neutral, but you don't have to take and 16 17 offer goods to the public and then choose not to sell to some because of a protected 18 characteristic. That's what the public 19 20 anti-discrimination laws require. CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS: A brief last 21 2.2 word, Ms. Waggoner. 23 MS. WAGGONER: A wedding cake 24 expresses an inherent message that is that the union is a marriage and is to be celebrated, 25
