ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. 18A410. In Re United States, et al., Applicants. The Government seeks a stay of proceedings in the District Court pending disposition of a petition for a writ of mandamus, No. 18–505, ordering dismissal of the suit. In such circumstances, a stay is warranted if there is (1) “a fair prospect that a majority of the Court will vote to grant mandamus,” and (2) “a likelihood that irreparable harm will result from the denial of a stay.” Hollingsworth v. Perry, 558 U. S. 183, 190 (2010) (per curiam). Mandamus may issue when “(1) ‘no other adequate means [exist] to attain the relief [the party] desires,’ (2) the party’s ‘right to issuance of the writ is clear and indisputable,’ and (3) ‘the writ is appropriate under the circumstances.’” Ibid. (quoting Cheney v. United States Dist. Court for D. C., 542 U. S. 367, 380–381 (2004)). “The traditional use of the writ in aid of appellate jurisdiction . . . has been to confine [the court against which mandamus is sought] to a lawful exercise of its prescribed jurisdiction.” Id. at 380 (quoting Roche v. Evaporated Milk Assn., 319 U. S. 21, 26 (1943)).

The Government contends that these standards are satisfied here because the litigation is beyond the limits of Article III. The Government notes that the suit is based on an assortment of unprecedented legal theories, such as a substantive due process right to certain climate conditions, and an equal protection right to live in the same climate as enjoyed by prior generations. The Government further points out that plaintiffs ask the District Court to create a “national remedial plan” to stabilize the climate and “restore the Earth’s energy balance.”

The District Court denied the Government’s dispositive motions, stating that “[t]his action is of a different order than the typical environmental case. It alleges that defendants’ actions and inactions—whether or not they violate any specific statutory duty—have so profoundly damaged our home planet that they threaten plaintiffs’ fundamental constitutional rights to life and liberty.” Juliana v. United States, 217 F. Supp. 3d 1224, 1261 (Ore. 2016). The District Court declined to certify its orders for interlocutory review under 28 U. S. C. § 1292(b) (permitting such review when the district court certifies that its order “involves a controlling question of law as to which there is substantial ground for difference of opinion and that an immediate appeal . . . may materially advance the ultimate termination of the litigation”). See this Court’s order of July 30, 2018, No. 18A65 (noting that the “striking” breadth of plaintiffs’ below claims “presents substantial grounds for difference of opinion”).

At this time, however, the Government’s petition for a writ of mandamus does not have a “fair prospect” of success in this Court because adequate relief may be available in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. When mandamus relief is available in the court of appeals, pursuit of that option is ordinarily required. See S. Ct. Rule 20.1 (petitioners seeking extraordinary writ must show “that adequate relief cannot be obtained in any other form or from any other court” (emphasis added)); S. Ct. Rule 20.3 (mandamus petition must “set out with particularity why the relief sought is not available in any other court”); see also Ex parte Peru, 318 U. S. 578, 585 (1943) (mandamus petition “ordinarily must be made to the intermediate appellate court”).

Although the Ninth Circuit has twice denied the Government’s request for mandamus relief, it did so without prejudice. And the court’s basis for denying relief rested, in large part, on the early stage of the litigation, the likelihood that plaintiffs’ claims would narrow as the case progressed, and the possibility of attaining relief through ordinary dispositive motions. Those reasons are, to a large extent, no longer pertinent. The 50-day trial was scheduled to begin on October 29, 2018, and is being held in abeyance only because of the current administrative stay.

In light of the foregoing, the application for stay, presented to The Chief Justice and by him referred to the Court, is denied without prejudice. The order heretofore entered by The Chief Justice is vacated.

Justice Thomas and Justice Gorsuch would grant the application.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

---

The Chief Justice said:

“We have issued orders today, they have been duly entered and certified, and filed with the Clerk.

“The Court notes with sadness the death of former President George H. W. Bush on November 30, 2018. In observance of the national day of mourning, the Court will not sit on Wednesday, December 5th.

“Before we commence this morning’s business, I would like to acknowledge the presence in the courtroom of Justice Anthony M. Kennedy, and I would like to read into the records of the Court an exchange of correspondence.

“The first letter is dated today, December 3, 2018. It is to Justice Kennedy from my colleagues and me, and it reads as follows:

“Dear Tony, Although our new Term is well underway, we remain keenly aware of your absence on the Bench and in our Conference. From the time each of us came to know you, you have enriched our lives through your kindness, comradery, and generosity. We are heartened that you have maintained an active presence in the building, and we take great comfort that you remain our valued colleague here. No one leaves Sacramento to become a prospector. But your labors since moving east have yielded a treasure of thoughtful decisions. This legacy will guide the understanding of judges, lawyers, and citizens for years to come. Your example of ceaseless civility inspires us as we go forward with the work of the Court that you have so vitally advanced. We wish you and Mary well in your much-deserved retirement, and we look forward to many more years in this new chapter of our shared friendships. Affectionately, and it is signed by all members of the Court as well as the retired Justices.

“The next letter is to myself and the colleagues on the bench and it is from Justice Kennedy. It reads:

“Dear Chief Justice and Dear Colleagues, Please accept this expression of deepest appreciation for the uplifting words and sentiments in your most gracious letter. It will be treasured by our family. This reply is not to say farewell, for it is my hope to linger here to be with all of you in the days and years to come. It is necessary, of course, to say farewell to being on the bench and in the conference room. There, for the past thirty years, it was a high honor to join with our colleagues in seeking how best to define and interpret an idea and a reality—the idea and the reality of the law.

“Even if we disagreed in a particular case, we admired and respected each other as we sought to explain the law as we found it to be and to ensure that, over the course of time, the law and the freedoms it sustains will be ever more secure, ever more revered. We first came to Washington knowing few who lived here, but the members of the Court at once reached out to Mary and me with gifts of guidance, understanding, and above all, the priceless bond of friendship. It seems proper to quote from the poet and to say that for all these gifts, ‘I can no other answer make but thanks, and thanks, and ever thanks.’ With assurances of my continued highest regards, I remain, Yours sincerely, Tony.”

The Chief Justice said:

“We are very pleased to have visiting with us this morning Mr. George E. Hutchinson, who this year celebrates eight decades of connection to the Court. In 1938, he started work here as a page. Charles Evans Hughes was sitting here at that time. Mr. Hutchinson was later Assistant Marshal and became the last person to hold the title of “Court Crier.” In that role he participated in many historic moments. To cite just one example, he cried the Court for both arguments in Brown v. Board of Education and was here for the announcement of the decision. He remains a member in good standing of our bar. Mr. Hutchinson, welcome back!”

ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. 19A60. Donald J. Trump, President of the United States, et al., Applicants v. Sierra Club, et al. Application for stay presented to Justice Kagan and by her referred to the Court granted. Among the reasons is that the Government has made a sufficient showing at this stage that the plaintiffs have no cause of action to obtain review of the Acting Secretary's compliance with Section 8005. The District Court's June 28, 2019 order granting a permanent injunction is stayed pending disposition of the Government's appeal in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and disposition of the Government's petition for a writ of certiorari, if such writ is timely sought. Should the petition for a writ of certiorari be denied, this stay shall terminate automatically. In the event the petition for a writ of certiorari is granted, the stay shall terminate when the Court enters its judgment.

Justice Ginsburg, Justice Sotomayor, and Justice Kagan would deny the application.

Justice Breyer, concurring in part and dissenting in part from grant of stay.
