Remarks of The Chief Justice regarding the end of the Term	809

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Present: Chief Justice Roberts, Justice Ginsburg, Justice Breyer, Justice Alito, Justice Sotomayor, Justice Kagan, Justice Gorsuch, and Justice Kavanaugh.

The Chief Justice said:

“I have the honor to announce, on behalf of the Court, that the October 2018 Term of the Supreme Court of the United States is now closed, and the October 2019 Term is now convened.

“Justice Thomas is unable to be present today. He is indisposed due to illness, but he will participate in the consideration and decision of the cases on the basis of the briefs and the transcripts or recordings of the oral arguments.

“Today’s orders of the Court have been duly entered and certified, and filed with the Clerk.

“I would like to note that August 3, 2019, marked the 25th Anniversary of the day our colleague Justice Breyer took the Judicial and Constitutional Oaths as a new Member of this Court. On behalf of the Court, I congratulate you, Justice Breyer, on your distinguished service, and I look forward to sharing many more years with you in our common calling.

“I also want take a moment to pay tribute to our friend and colleague John Paul Stevens, a retired Justice of this Court, who died on July 16, 2019. Justice Stevens was nominated to the Court by President Ford on November 28, 1975, and was confirmed by the Senate less than 20 days later. He was an active Member of the Court for more than 34 years. At the time of his retirement on June 29, 2010, Justice Stevens had become the third-longest serving Justice in the history of the Court.

“Justice Stevens devoted his life to public service. He was a commissioned officer in the United States Navy from 1941-1945, receiving a Bronze Star for his service. During the 1947 Term he was a law clerk to Justice Wiley Rutledge of this Court. Before joining this Court, Justice Stevens served five years on the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

“Justice Stevens was a dear colleague and friend. Our condolences go out to his children, his extended family, and his many admirers. At an appropriate time in the spring, the traditional memorial observance of the Court and Bar will be held in this courtroom.”

ANNOUNCEMENT

Out of concern for the health and safety of the public and Supreme Court employees, the Supreme Court Building will be closed to the public from 4:30 p.m. on March 12, 2020, until further notice. The Building will remain open for official business, and case filing deadlines are not extended under Rule 30.1.

All public lectures and visitor programs are temporarily suspended.

ANNOUNCEMENT

In keeping with public health precautions recommended in response to COVID-19, the Supreme Court is postponing the oral arguments currently scheduled for the March session (March 23–25 and March 30–April 1). The Court will examine the options for rescheduling those cases in due course in light of the developing circumstances.

The Court will hold its regularly scheduled Conference on Friday, March 20. Some Justices may participate remotely by telephone. The Court will issue its regularly scheduled Order List on Monday, March 23 at 9:30 a.m. The list will be posted on the Court's Website at that time: <https://www.supremecourt.gov/orders/ordersofthecourt/19>.

The Building will continue to be open for official business, and filing deadlines are not extended under Rule 30.1. The Court is expanding remote working capabilities to reduce the number of employees in the Building, consistent with public health guidance. The Building will remain closed to the public until further notice.

The Court's postponement of argument sessions in light of public health concerns is not unprecedented. The Court postponed scheduled arguments for October 1918 in response to the Spanish flu epidemic. The Court also shortened its argument calendars in August 1793 and August 1798 in response to yellow fever outbreaks.

ORDER

In light of the ongoing public health concerns relating to COVID-19, the following shall apply to cases prior to a ruling on a petition for a writ of certiorari:

IT IS ORDERED that the deadline to file any petition for a writ of certiorari due on or after the date of this order is extended to 150 days from the date of the lower court judgment, order denying discretionary review, or order denying a timely petition for rehearing. See Rules 13.1 and 13.3.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that motions for extensions of time pursuant to Rule 30.4 will ordinarily be granted by the Clerk as a matter of course if the grounds for the application are difficulties relating to COVID-19 and if the length of the extension requested is reasonable under the circumstances. Such motions should indicate whether the opposing party has an objection.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, notwithstanding Rules 15.5 and 15.6, the Clerk will entertain motions to delay distribution of a petition for writ of certiorari where the grounds for the motion are that the petitioner needs additional time to file a reply due to difficulties relating to COVID-19. Such motions will ordinarily be granted by the Clerk as a matter of course if the length of the extension requested is reasonable under the circumstances and if the motion is actually received by the Clerk at least two days prior to the relevant distribution date. Such motions should indicate whether the opposing party has an objection.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that these modifications to the Court's Rules and practices do not apply to cases in which certiorari has been granted or a direct appeal or original action has been set for argument.

These modifications will remain in effect until further order of the Court.

applies to defendants sentenced under the mandatory Sentencing Guidelines—I will cease noting my dissent in future petitions presenting the question. I hope, however, that the Court will at some point reconsider its reluctance to answer it.

ORDER

In light of the ongoing public health concerns relating to COVID-19:

IT IS ORDERED that with respect to every document filed in a case prior to a ruling on a petition for a writ of certiorari or petition for an extraordinary writ, or a decision to set an appeal for argument, a single paper copy of the document, formatted on 8½ x 11 inch paper, may be filed. The document may be formatted under the standards set forth in Rule 33.2, or under the standards set forth in Rule 33.1 but printed on 8½ x 11 inch paper. The Court may later request that a document initially submitted on 8½ x 11 inch paper be submitted in booklet format.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the following types of documents should not be filed in paper form if they are submitted through the Court's electronic filing system: (1) motions for an extension of time under Rule 30.4; (2) waivers of the right to respond to a petition under Rule 15.5; (3) blanket consents to the filing of amicus briefs under Rules 37.2(a) and 37.3(a); and (4) motions to delay distribution of a cert petition under the Court's Order of March 19, 2020. Notwithstanding Rule 34.6 and paragraph 9 of the Guidelines for the Submission of Documents to the Supreme Court's Electronic Filing System, these enumerated filings should be filed electronically in cases governed by Rule 34.6, although other types of documents in those cases should still be filed in paper form only.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, notwithstanding Rule 29.3, parties may be relieved of the obligation to effect service of paper versions of filings upon other parties if they agree to electronic service; parties are strongly encouraged to use electronic service if feasible.

ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. 19A1041. Mark Williams, Warden, et al., Applicants v. Craig Wilson, et al. The application for stay presented to Justice Sotomayor and by her referred to the Court denied.

The Government is seeking a stay only of the District Court's April 22 preliminary injunction. But on May 19, the District Court issued a new order enforcing the preliminary injunction and imposing additional measures. The Government has not sought review of or a stay of the May 19 order in the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Particularly in light of that procedural posture, the Court declines to stay the District Court's April 22 preliminary injunction without prejudice to the Government seeking a new stay if circumstances warrant.

Justice Thomas, Justice Alito, and Justice Gorsuch would grant the application.

No. 20A21. Beverly Clarno, Oregon Secretary of State, Applicant v. People Not Politicians Oregon, et al. Application for stay presented to Justice Kagan and by her referred to the Court granted. The district court's July 10 and July 13, 2020 orders granting a preliminary injunction are stayed pending disposition of the appeal in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and disposition of the petition for writ of certiorari, if such writ is timely sought. ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. 20A28. Republican National Committee, et al., Applicants v. Common Cause Rhode Island, et al. Application for stay presented to Justice Breyer and by him referred to the Court denied. Unlike Merrill v. People First of Alabama, 591 U. S. — (2020), and other similar cases where a State defends its own law, here the state election officials support the challenged decree, and no state official has expressed opposition. Under these circumstances, the applicants lack a cognizable interest in the State's ability to "enforce its duly enacted" laws. Abbott v. Perez, 585 U. S. —, — n. 17 (2018). The status quo is one in which the challenged requirement has not been in effect, given the rules used in Rhode Island's last election, and many Rhode Island voters may well hold that belief.

Justice Thomas, Justice Alito, and Justice Gorsuch would grant the application.
