Subject: ACF Stakeholders Request for Protective Order

Dear Mr. Pendergrast:

Tomorrow's conference call is related to an entirely different matter.

Your eleventh-hour request is unfortunately too little and too late.

The applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are available to you and, if necessary, we can schedule a conference call to discuss the issues raised at a later date, convenient to all counsel.

If you wish such a conference, please forward to me complete copies of each subpoena and a succinct list of specific objections to each.

If you are also objecting to any request to produce documents, please provide a log specifying each document and the reason for the objection.

Sincerely,

Ralph I. Lancaster, Jr.
