STATE OF FLORIDA'S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO RESCHEDULE ORAL ARGUMENT

On July 29, 2019, the Special Master granted Florida's motion for oral argument in this matter and set that argument for December 16, 2019 in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Dkt. 662. On August 29, 2019, the Special Master reset oral argument for October 17, 2019. Dkt. 663. Due to a conflict with a previously scheduled oral argument in Washington, D.C. on the same day, Florida hereby moves to reschedule the argument in this matter. The State of Georgia does not oppose this request.

On July 30, 2019, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit scheduled oral argument for October 17, 2019 in Eagle Pharmaceuticals, Inc. v. Azar, D.C. Circuit No. 18-05207, in Washington, D.C. Florida's counsel in this matter represents the appellee in that appeal. In light of that conflict, Florida contacted Georgia's counsel to address the possibility of proposing to this Court a series of alternative dates on which both counsel could be available. Both parties also coordinated with their client representatives regarding availability to attend the hearing.

Following those consultations, the parties agreed to propose the following dates for this Court's consideration: November 7, 12, 18, 25 and 26, 2019.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, Florida respectfully requests that the Special Master reschedule the currently set October 17, 2019 argument either for one of those proposed dates, or for a later date.

<sup>1</sup> Florida also contacted counsel for the United States, who confirmed that the United States does not object to the proposed dates.
